George Robinson, who has been staying with his son, John, has gone to Washington to spend the winter.

The boys say they will charavari Allie Kimball when he comes here with his bride, even should he stay away until spring.

John Robinson and Ben Thompson have recently killed four deer, while George Siefarth and Fount Murphy have slain eight of them.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery absolutely free by mail, and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Sunday School Rally.

There will be a Sunday school rally at Zena, Sunday, November 4th. It will be an all day session with a basket dinner. Mr. Reed, vice president of the state association, will tell what organization means, and Mrs. Winslow, state superintendent of the home department, will explain that part of the work. The children, as well as older ones, may expect a treat from Mrs. Wash, county president. Rev. Morehead will discuss the essentials to successful teaching of the Bible and the superintendent of the Normal school will talk on teachers meetings. The needs of the school will be discussed by Bethel, Perrydale has been invited to tell of primary work, and Balltown will talk about the adult classes. Zena will speak on the practical results from our schools. You are most cordially invited. EMMA RIGGS, district president.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well known village blacksmith at Grahamville, Sullivan county N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so had have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is new our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by A. K. Wilson.

The Youth's Companion in 1901.

The ends of the earth will be laid under tribute for the 1901 volume of The Youth's Companion. Statesmen, diplomats, travelers, trappers, Indian fighters, cow-punchers, and self-made men and women of many vocations will contribute to the entertainment of young and old in Companion homes. Theodore Roosevelt will write upon "The Essence of Heroism." The Secretary of the treasury will answer the question, "What is Money?" Frank T. Bullen, the old sailor who spins fascinating yarns of life at sea, will contribute a story. W. D. Howells will contribute the relations between "Young Contributors and Editors." Paul Leicester Ford will write about "The Man of the dictionary"—Noah Webster. There are many spaces here to begin to tell of the good things already provided for readers of the new volume of The Youth's Companion—interesting, instructive, inspiring—from the pens of famous men and women. Illustrated announcement of the 1901 volume and sample copies of the paper sent free to any address. All new subscribers who send in their subscription now will receive not only the $2 copies of The Companion for 1901 but also all the copies for the remaining weeks of 1900 free from the time of subscription, besides the beautiful "Puritan Girl" calendar for 1901, lithographed in 12 colors and gold.—The Youth's Companion, Boston, Massachusetts.

Go and see those elegant medallions in the show window of the Morris Jewely establishment. There are a dozen different kinds and it will be hard to decide which is the prettiest.

A. M. Stump has bought of W. C. Brown the Cottage hotel at $2,500 and has been sprinkling the roof with lime to keep the moss from growing. Who has tried that and found it an effective remedy?

Prof. Metzger will preach in the college chapel next Sunday morning and Prof. Bittner in the evening. Pastor Deck will hold services at Bridgport morning and evening and at Falls City in the afternoon.

So many horses, cattle, sheep and goats have been killed or injured by careless hunters in all parts of the county that farmers are being compelled to post their lands against trespassers. We have for sale large trespass notices printed on cloth.

Photographer Cherrington has returned from the meeting of the photographers association in Portland and while there gained quite a number of pointers as to the better and more attractive photographic work. Have him to take you some holiday pictures with the improvements.

Mary E. Wilkins has just finished a new novel, which has been secured by The Ladies Home Journal. The social life of a small town is her theme. She reveals its romances, its honors and its tragedies with that charming realism which characterizes her writings of this popular novelist.

Chicken pie supper in the basement of the Christian church at Falls City to-morrow evening. As the proceeds go toward a bell for the church and will be a benefit to the surrounding country all who feel able should patronize the feast. All the chickens and things you can eat will cost you only 25 cents.

The Thurston Lumbering company are putting the finishing touches on a large dam that will hold an immense amount of water up toward the head of La Creole. Very soon they will have their mill pond full of logs and the machinery in steady operation. They can readily dispose of all the lumber they can make.

One of the most devoted and active members of the M. E. church at Falls City is Mrs. Eleanor F. Butler, who is now confined to her home with a broken ankle. Not many days ago she was pleasantly surprised by the coming of her pastor's wife and members of the ladies aid society. They brought pretty flowers and well filled baskets and after a nice dinner there were pleasant rounds of conversation and music.

THE KING WAS BETTER.

But the Doctor Got Little Credit For His Efforts.

A story illustrating the good sense and humor of the late King Humbert is told at the expense of his physician, Dr. Saglione. Sometimes the king, from his hunting lodge of Castle Fusano went to the sea and amused himself by shoveling sand into a cart. "Take care, your majesty," said Saglione one day, "not to perspire too much." "Ah, my dear Signor Doctor," answered the king, resting his chin on his two hands that grasped the handle of his spade, "this muscular exercise does me much more good than your prescriptions." "Yes, but one must abuse anything." "But I tell you that I feel very well, and you are afraid you see in this poor shoveling competitor." And, laughing heartily, the king finished filling his cart.

However, by exposing himself in every way without exercising any care, the king contracted bronchitis, which took a chronic form and gave him a rather troublesome cough. This cough was a source of anxiety to the faithful doctor, as he could not convince his patient of the necessity for taking medicine. Occasionally the doctor was even sent away abruptly by the king, who would say, "I have not called you. Why did you come? You may go. I thank you very much."

One evening, however, the doctor thought he had gained his point, and prepared for the king in his bedroom the powders he was to take during the night. The next morning Dr. Saglione rose very early, being very anxious to know the effect of his medicine. He was received in the bedroom and at once asked, "Well, how does your majesty feel this morning?" "Much better—I may say quite well," was the response.

"Ah," observed the doctor, rubbing his hands with satisfaction, "you see the results of listening to reason." "What do you mean?" asked the king. "The powders!" "Bravo!" shouted Humbert. "Go into the next room and see what you can find."

The powders were in the waste paper basket. Age may not be garrulous, but there is no denying the fact that it tells on both men and women.—Exchange.

AIRLIE.

Rev. Prosser preached here Sunday. Bura Tarter is speculating in calves. Willie McAdams is among us once more.

The rain of the past few days has stopped plowing. Jim Atwater brought in a load of pears and apples last week. One of the Wellman boys was cutting wood for H. Tarter last week. H. Tarter's little boy had the croup a few nights ago, but is all right now. Mrs. C. E. Staats spent several days of last week with friends at Independence.

A. C. Staats has the necessary material on hand to build a cellar or fruit house. J. O. Staats and Tom Gross have met with good success in bagging ducks. J. F. Berry, who is 81 years old is in very poor health. Dr. Hill was over to see him a few days ago. A. L. McKisson, after spending several days prospecting in the vicinity of Grants Pass, returned home last week. Mrs. Nannie Goyean is quite sick at her home in Natron. Her mother, Mrs. T. B. Williams, of this place, is with her. Miss Nettie Staats, of this place, was married in Portland last Tuesday to Robert Golden, of Marshfield. They will reside at the latter place. Orville Buchanan, who has been conducting a store at Wren, has moved his family and goods to this place and will assist his father with the store here. State eggs, which are being so freely used in the east, has caused the price of fresh eggs to advance to 24 cents at this place, and, consequently, the housewife is happy. Monday morning at Mrs. Walker Bevens was preparing to put on her washing, one of the children, while walking backward, fell into a tub partially filled with hot water. It was severely burned about the hips, its head having caught on the opposite side of the tub.

HOUSE TO HOUSE VISITATIONS.

In many parts of the union the progress of church and Sunday school work has been wonderfully helped along by co-operation as indicated below. The most interested meet, select a chairman and procure efficient committees representing all the different denominations. Then the town or city is divided into districts and each district is assigned a number. The facts concerning each family are taken down on printed cards and the information gained turned over to the particular organization most interested in the families or individuals. It has been the means of getting a multitude into the churches and Sunday schools and of having thousands of neglected ones cared for. An effort is being made to cure the same results in Dallas. There has been a meeting of the pastors and others most interested. Rev. M. A. Deck has been chosen chairman and there will be another meeting at the Presbyterian church next Monday evening to perfect arrangements and have the census made. The object is purely for the good of all concerned and no one who fairly understands it will offer criticism. No reasonable person will object to giving the information sought. It is in the interest of all churches alike and may be made to improve the condition of every one of them.

GROWTH IN BELGIAN HARES.

Last March I brought home with me three Belgian hares, two does and a buck from Los Angeles. At that time there was a great demand for them there, both from a fancier's standpoint and for their fine, white, tender meat. These were the first to come to Dallas having a pedigree. At that time Edgar L. Collins had had four or five but he paid little attention to them, just raised a few for his own use for the table, seeing there was going to be a good demand for them I sent to Los Angeles for three more, all of different strains and had them bred to three different bucks of different strains. These were fine, high pedigreed stock and I paid fancy prices for them. Seeing I could not supply the demand I sent for five more does and another fine buck. By this time there was some interest taken in them and besides a few young ones I let five of the old ones go and put for three more does. It pays to buy good stock no matter how few or many you buy. I have sold to several who went to Salem and to Independence. I sold pedigreed stock for from $2.50 to $15, according to age and fitness. I have sold and used for the table over one hundred and I have on hands, counting all ages about ninety. I have six breeding does and a buck, and have sold foundation stock to many here and in the surrounding country. These, Rowell has bred up a good place in a shed on the side of his barn and has 28. Dunn Bros. have built a fine rabbitry 20x24 of rustic and nicely painted; it will contain twenty pens capable of caring for 100 hares, they now have 8. Mrs. Riggs has a nice shed built onto the side of her barn 16x16 containing twelve hutches; she has three fine does and a buck to start with. Ohio Williams has a nice new place for his and keeps about a dozen. Bert Stiles has 4 and uses one half of the lower barn floor. Chet Coad Jr. has 2, they are using a room built onto the washshed. The Elkins boys have 6 in a nice pen down by the creek. George Whitehorn has 4 and has his barn floor partitioned off for them. C. Hughes has 12, having converted his China pens into a rabbitry. Claud Dempsey has 28, which he keeps in a shed by the barn. A. B. Egan has 3. Peter Redinopp 3, Henry Fern 2. Dr. Fisher 1, Mr. Macomber 3, Leonard LeSier, Oia Grant 1, O. H. Cobb 3, and John Simpson 8. I predict that in two or three years there will be 100 pens in around Dallas raising Belgian hares for their own table and for market. It is claimed, and I believe true that one doe will bring from six to eight litters per year of from six to twelve to the litter, or an average of eight. These sixty-four when grown will weigh from six to eight pounds, or 384 pounds of the very finest of meat. Is there anything that will beat it at so little expense and trouble. H. L. CRIDER.

GROCERIES.

My fall and winter stock of everything in that line is very complete. Just now I wish to call special attention to a new invoice of Tableware.

A variety of patterns, both plain and decorated. Any kind of taste can select from my assortment articles that would make her table very attractive. I have just put on display as handsome an array of new designs in China ware as you ever saw. Many things are intended as presents for young people and children.
