

THE POLK COUNTY ITEMIZER

DALLAS, FRIDAY, NOV. 23, 1900.

W. A. WASH. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: $1.50 Per year, $1.00 Per six months, $0.50 Per three months.

STATE SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT Ackerman and President Campbell, of the state normal school spent part of last week together visiting country schools in Yamhill county.

Uncle Joe Emmons was dangerously ill Wednesday night, but was some better yesterday.

One of the very best ways to celebrate Thanksgiving day will be to do kind things for the poor and needy.

When you wish to buy or sell anything or have lost or found anything and want to let the public know it the Itemizer is the very best medium in this county.

China Wedding. Felix Noel and wife were married in Colorado twenty years ago and about seventy friends assembled at their hospitable home in Dallas Wednesday evening to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of that event.

COLLEGE NOTES. We are to have two days vacation at Thanksgiving.

Prof. Countryman gave a reading at Bridgeport Saturday evening and the entertainment there was attended by Daniel Poling and Bert Teats.

House to House Visitation. Last Saturday afternoon was the best half day's work, religiously, ever done in Dallas.

Disfigured Skin. Scrofula, let alone, is capable of all that, and more. It is commonly marked by bunches in the neck, inflammations in the eyes, dyspepsia, catarrh, and general debility.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is always radically and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Great Fur Sale! We have just received from Edwin S. George—the largest manufacturer of fine furs in America—a sample line of the handsomest furs ever brought to Salem.

THE QUALITY STORE J. J. DALRYMPLE & CO. THE QUALITY STORE SALEM.

morning all sang, Home Sweet Home, with a chorus and the guests began to depart, but it was an hour later before the leave taking of some who felt inclined to stay by a good thing as long as possible.

AIRLIE. Roy Byerly was milling at Derry Tuesday.

Wm. Barker is putting up a kitchen for Ira Hooker.

The boys are thinking of starting up the skating rink.

A stray snow storm stopped over night with us recently.

Ed Patras, the stove maker, will soon locate among us again.

Sam Gross is considerably under the weather at his home near here.

The Woodmen are making a few remarks about putting up a hall here.

Several loads of turkeys have been brought in the past week, but are not commanding a very large price.

About 300 men more or less went out on a coyote chase a day or so ago, and the wiley wolf could not be found.

Maggie, the 6-year-old daughter of Willie Bush and wife, of Peedee, was buried at the Montgomery cemetery Tuesday.

Charley Collins, of Independence, was up a few days ago visiting J. C. Hastings and thinks some of starting a rabbitry near here.

A large panther track was seen recently near Phy. Simpson's logging camp and quite a number of the boys in that vicinity are figuring on an exciting chase during the present snow storm.

Phil Buffington, of Fossil, has been visiting his brother-in-law, H. Brinkley. Some twenty years ago Mr. Buffington lived at Lewisville and supplied the surrounding country with choice meats.

From a private letter we learn that Dr. Jessup, who located at this place a couple of years ago, but soon left for his old Iowa home, will return to old Webfoot again. In Oregon once, in Oregon always.

There is both a young men and a young ladies christian association in connection with the school, each meeting at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Both organizations promise to do excellent work along refining and christianizing lines.

Walker Fitts has built a new barn. Alan Thacker has returned home.

There was a light fall of snow on the 19th.

Miss Idella Traglio has gone to Baker City.

A. V. Thompson has moved into the Porter house.

Doug Hanna butchered a couple of hogs Monday.

A Jones sold last years wheat at 50 cents a bushel.

The spud crop is about harvested and the yield is fair.

Governor Fletcher and wife are visiting their sons at Jefferson.

Mrs. D. L. Matheny's grandson is stopping with her and attending school.

W. P. Ringle's wood saw has been doing a right sharp business in this locality.

Dorr Gibson, of Popcorn, purchased 30 bushels of potatoes at 25 cents a bushel from C. E. Hanna.

A pleasant farewell party took place at A. Jones' a few evenings prior to their departure for their new home in Santa Rosa, California. It was a complete surprise, the evening was pleasantly spent socially, and a delicious lunch served. They will be greatly missed in social circles here.

Some worthless curs killed some of R. P. Simon's sheep recently.

Rev. Lowell preached a good sermon to a well filled house here Sunday.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity have all of the grain sown that they wish to sow this fall. The early grain looks well.

Albert Tedrow, who is attending school at Albany, came over on the 15th to attend the sociable and visit his friends.

Highland grange met last Saturday with a good attendance. Three were initiated and two candidates failed to put in appearance.

The Sunday school sociable was a grand success in every particular. There were 35 present and they cleared $12.85 for the organ fund.

A. B. Gibson visited Portland last week.

Walter Hunt is working for A. R. Southwick.

W. P. Ringle and wife spent last Sunday at the Southwick home.

An enterprising young lady in the neighborhood is helping her father cut wood this fall.

Mrs. James Phoenicia has been at the Salem hospital for several weeks and is getting along nicely.

The Popcorn republicans had a rally last Thursday evening. They built a bonfire, made a lot of noise, and had a general good time.

OUR STAFF OF RUSTLERS.

WHAT THEY HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THE DOINGS IN THE COUNTY.

An Unequaled and Complete Record of What Your Friends are and Have Been Lately Doing.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take laxative bromo quinine tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. Signature of E. W. Grove on each box. 25 cents.

SMITHFIELD. Lon Adams is working for Henry Wagner.

Mr. Murphy, of Falls City, was seen in these parts Sunday.

Schools getting along nicely under the management of Miss Ora Rhoads-targer.

George Myers, who has wheat to sell has only been able to get one car in the last six weeks.

Mrs. A. J. Hastings and grand-daughter have returned from a two weeks stay in Portland.

Mrs. Wagner, who has been keeping house for her son, Henry, has returned to Dallas to spend the winter.

Trust Those Who Have Tried. I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind and never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that—Oscar Ostrom, 45 Warren avenue, Chicago Illinois. I suffered from catarrh; it got so bad I could not work; I used Ely's Cream Balm and an entirely well—A. C. Clarke, 341 Shannott avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. The Balm does not cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cents or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

SALT CREEK. Samuel Burk is nursing a very sore finger.

Elinor Gilliam has returned from Eastern Oregon.

The children of Henry Clamfield have the measles.

We are to soon have a postoffice at the home of Mr. Nachtingal.

J. M. Lynn is putting out a large patch of all kinds of berries. He will get monthly strawberries from James Boydston.

Martin Murray, wife and child are visiting her parents, Joshua Bowles and wife. He has gone back to his work, but her health being poor she will remain for some time.

The German Baptists have had a three days convention at their church near the old Dodson home. Ministers and members were in attendance from Salem, Portland and other places. They constructed a tabernacle 20x30 feet in size and had in it two large tables at which everybody took dinner and supper.

Miss Ethel Sappingfield, from near Salem, has been visiting friends here and at Sheridan.

Miss Beacie Hussey gave a party the 16th in honor of her birthday and quite a crowd attended.

Jack Burton, of Salmon River, who has been sick of typhoid fever at McMinnville, died there last week.

Preparations are being made for an entertainment and basket supper at the school house on Thanksgiving evening.

Charley Holman is building shelter for his barn.

Marion Smith was an Independence visitor Saturday.

Jan. Atwater took a load of apples and pears to town last week.

Misses Minnie and Ada Lewis have returned from a visit to Independence.

Mrs. Ada Alexander, nee Ada Burns who is living at Astoria, has a baby girl.

C. W. Pagett, the Pee Dee post master, was doing business in town Thursday.

Monro grange will hold their annual election of officers at their next meeting, Dec. 1st.

Frank Gilliam, of Pee Dee, passed here Sunday. He had been visiting at Monmouth.

Willie Lee and bride, of Bridgeport, are spending a few days here with the family of Wm. Critchlow.

Clyde Turner, Johnny Williams and Walter Norton have gone to the mountains for a deer hunt.

Miss Ada Byers took charge of the Lewisville mail last week while Mr. Pearce attended to other business.

James Haggard and Marion Smith were very industriously employed last week dipping their sheep and goats.

John Mulkey intends visiting friends at a distance on Thanksgiving, and there will be no school on Friday following.

The Ladies' Aid society of this place are making arrangements whereby

Bulbs. We have a choice lot of bulbs at the following prices: Hyacinths, mixed colors, 90c a dozen. Tulips, finest, $1.00. Crocus, " " 35c. Send in your order at once while the stock is complete.

SAVAGE & REID, Seedsmen, Salem.

One day last week Dorr Gibson and Frank Kenney were seen down in Gene Hanna's garden in West Salem loading up their wagon with potatoes, cabbage, etc.

The other evening a number of the friends gathered in, armed with horns, tin pans and other instruments of torture, to give Otis Wait and wife a musical welcome home. He must have been expecting the boys for he had plenty of cigars on hand.

Apples and potatoes are all covered up.

A number of fields have been sown to clover this fall.

Henry Flickinger is visiting his brother at Pendleton.

Miss Ruby Burns is stopping with Mrs. C. E. McLane.

No sales of wheat, the holders waiting for better prices.

Lots of plowing and seeding have been done in these parts.

Jas. Harper and family have moved into the Long Tom country.

Grass has been good up to the present and all kinds of stock look well.

Hops all gone to market and farmers are buying and shipping logs.

D. R. Rubie's new barn is under roof.

Many have finished up their fall work.

Rev. Morehead preached for us last Sunday.

Both our public school and our Sunday school have taken on new life.

Those who attended the oyster supper at the home of W. W. Smith had a fine time.

Grange meets next Saturday and they will take in a new member. Pomona grange will assemble at Independence December 4th.

Basket social at the church Thanksgiving evening. The baskets will be auctioned off at the grange hall, the proceeds to go to the preacher. A pleasing program is under preparation.

J. S. Pettyjohn has a new barn.

Mr. Auer has bought quite a band of goats.

Mr. Cox is building an addition to his house.

Mr. W. R. Ellis and family have been visiting relatives in and near Salem.

Mrs. Rush, who has been visiting here has returned to her home in San Francisco.

Miss Grace Hussey is teaching school in the Bellwood district on Salmon River.

Miss Ethel Sappingfield, from near Salem, has been visiting friends here and at Sheridan.

Miss Beacie Hussey gave a party the 16th in honor of her birthday and quite a crowd attended.

Jack Burton, of Salmon River, who has been sick of typhoid fever at McMinnville, died there last week.

Preparations are being made for an entertainment and basket supper at the school house on Thanksgiving evening.

Charley Holman is building shelter for his barn.

Marion Smith was an Independence visitor Saturday.

Jan. Atwater took a load of apples and pears to town last week.

Misses Minnie and Ada Lewis have returned from a visit to Independence.

Mrs. Ada Alexander, nee Ada Burns who is living at Astoria, has a baby girl.

C. W. Pagett, the Pee Dee post master, was doing business in town Thursday.

Monro grange will hold their annual election of officers at their next meeting, Dec. 1st.

Frank Gilliam, of Pee Dee, passed here Sunday. He had been visiting at Monmouth.

Willie Lee and bride, of Bridgeport, are spending a few days here with the family of Wm. Critchlow.

Clyde Turner, Johnny Williams and Walter Norton have gone to the mountains for a deer hunt.

Miss Ada Byers took charge of the Lewisville mail last week while Mr. Pearce attended to other business.

James Haggard and Marion Smith were very industriously employed last week dipping their sheep and goats.

John Mulkey intends visiting friends at a distance on Thanksgiving, and there will be no school on Friday following.

the people near here can spend Thanksgiving pleasantly and profitably as well. The ladies are all requested to bring a lunch for two and a pound of carpet rags and the gentlemen are requested to bring a quarter.

The carpet rags will be sold at 25 cents a pound and the gentlemen getting the carpet rags of a certain lady will eat lunch with her about the noon hour. A good literary program will precede the lunch. The object is to get a carpet for the parsonage. Come everybody and have a good time.

Lowest on night of 19th, 25 degrees. Watch out for your spuds.

Social Thanksgiving evening and box social at the Christian church.

There will be a temperance service next Sunday at the Methodist church.

Emma Tice has been hired to teach a three months term of school in district 60, beginning on the 26th.

Our enterprising citizen, F. A. Lucas, has broken out in a fresh place, and now supplies us with fresh meat. This was a much needed improvement and we hope his patronage will be sufficient to justify him in continuing it.

J. L. Morrison sold a cow and ten calves last week.

Mrs. R. E. Henry has gone on a visit to the valley.

C. T. Timmons, of Salem, and W. M. Ashford, of Lewisville, passed by here last week.

The first snow of the season fell on the 18th and on Monday morning the ground was white.

J. L. Morrison, G. B. Hampton and Henry Scott did some much needed work on the road last week.

Our school is larger this winter than common.

Gilbert and Patterson have bought the Beardsley farm, the hill land also.

Mr. Shoemaker has gone to his place near Mill City to work for a while.

Blanch Hunter has been having a hard time with an ulcerated tooth, which finally split out.

Mr. Brophy has commenced to cut and burn his hop vines. There will be considerable work done on the place this winter.

Mrs. Clara Brunk was awarded five premiums out of eight at the Independence chrysanthemum show and they were all first class too. Pretty good for an amateur.

There will be no admission charged for the Falls City Thanksgiving exercises. The program will be followed by a basket social in the basement of the Christian church.

This is said to be a preventive or a sure cure for smallpox: An ounce of pure cream of tartar, mixed with a pint of boiling water and taken in moderate quantities before meals.

CATARRH LOCAL AND CLIMATIC. Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure. CATARRH The Specific is Ely's Cream Balm. It is quickly absorbed, gives relief at once, it opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages. Always Infestation. Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. No injurious drug. Regular size, 50 cents; Family size, $1.00 by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

COLD IN HEAD. Preparations are being made for an entertainment and basket supper at the school house on Thanksgiving evening.

LEWISVILLE. Charley Holman is building shelter for his barn.

Marion Smith was an Independence visitor Saturday.

Jan. Atwater took a load of apples and pears to town last week.

Misses Minnie and Ada Lewis have returned from a visit to Independence.

Mrs. Ada Alexander, nee Ada Burns who is living at Astoria, has a baby girl.

C. W. Pagett, the Pee Dee post master, was doing business in town Thursday.

Monro grange will hold their annual election of officers at their next meeting, Dec. 1st.

Frank Gilliam, of Pee Dee, passed here Sunday. He had been visiting at Monmouth.

Willie Lee and bride, of Bridgeport, are spending a few days here with the family of Wm. Critchlow.

Clyde Turner, Johnny Williams and Walter Norton have gone to the mountains for a deer hunt.

Miss Ada Byers took charge of the Lewisville mail last week while Mr. Pearce attended to other business.

James Haggard and Marion Smith were very industriously employed last week dipping their sheep and goats.

John Mulkey intends visiting friends at a distance on Thanksgiving, and there will be no school on Friday following.

The Ladies' Aid society of this place are making arrangements whereby

..CLEARANCE SALE..

R. E. BRYAN & SON. One Price - - - - Cash Store

In order to reduce our stock to the lowest minimum by January 1st we are making a wholesale reduction on many lines of staple goods, among which will be found Mens, Youths and Boys' Clothing, Underwear, Drawers and Suspenders for big men, Overcoats, Boxcoats, Mackintoshes and Hats, Ladies Wrappers, Mackintoshes and Furs, Dress Goods, Ladies Furnishings, Gloves and Hosiery, Table Linens and Napkins, Large sizes in Mens Boots and Shoes, and all sizes in broken lines in Ladies, Children and Mens Shoes at less than cost to close out. No coupons given on special sale prices.

SPECIAL THIS WEEK: Liebe Co's latest Fur capes reduced from $18 to $15, from $15 to $12.50, from $12.50 to $10. Collarets from $7.50 to $6.50, from $6.50 to $5.50, from $5.50 to $4.50. Boas from $4 to $3, from $3 to $2.50. Ladies Nobby Jackets reduced from $15 to $12, from $12.50 to $10.50, from $11 to $9.50 and $8.50, from $10 to $8, from $8 to $6 to $4, from $5 to $3.75. Line of Ladies Mackintoshes for $2. Mens Rubber Hip Boots with leather soles, large sizes for $3.25. Yours truly, R. E. BRYAN & SON.

A new postoffice, Salt Creek, has been established at the Dodson place with David Nachtingal as postmaster.

John Stump, of Monmouth, has gone to Chicago to attend the fine stock shows and may go on to Canada for a car load of extra fine sheep.

A special agent of the postoffice department will next week examine into the two proposed routes from Salem into the Spring Valley and East regions.

J. L. Morrison, G. B. Hampton and Henry Scott did some much needed work on the road last week.

Our school is larger this winter than common.

Gilbert and Patterson have bought the Beardsley farm, the hill land also.

Mr. Shoemaker has gone to his place near Mill City to work for a while.

Blanch Hunter has been having a hard time with an ulcerated tooth, which finally split out.

Mr. Brophy has commenced to cut and burn his hop vines. There will be considerable work done on the place this winter.

Mrs. Clara Brunk was awarded five premiums out of eight at the Independence chrysanthemum show and they were all first class too. Pretty good for an amateur.

There will be no admission charged for the Falls City Thanksgiving exercises. The program will be followed by a basket social in the basement of the Christian church.

This is said to be a preventive or a sure cure for smallpox: An ounce of pure cream of tartar, mixed with a pint of boiling water and taken in moderate quantities before meals.

Preparations are being made for an entertainment and basket supper at the school house on Thanksgiving evening.

Charley Holman is building shelter for his barn.

Marion Smith was an Independence visitor Saturday.

Jan. Atwater took a load of apples and pears to town last week.

Misses Minnie and Ada Lewis have returned from a visit to Independence.

Mrs. Ada Alexander, nee Ada Burns who is living at Astoria, has a baby girl.

C. W. Pagett, the Pee Dee post master, was doing business in town Thursday.

Monro grange will hold their annual election of officers at their next meeting, Dec. 1st.

Frank Gilliam, of Pee Dee, passed here Sunday. He had been visiting at Monmouth.

Willie Lee and bride, of Bridgeport, are spending a few days here with the family of Wm. Critchlow.

Clyde Turner, Johnny Williams and Walter Norton have gone to the mountains for a deer hunt.

Miss Ada Byers took charge of the Lewisville mail last week while Mr. Pearce attended to other business.

James Haggard and Marion Smith were very industriously employed last week dipping their sheep and goats.

John Mulkey intends visiting friends at a distance on Thanksgiving, and there will be no school on Friday following.

The Ladies' Aid society of this place are making arrangements whereby

Bulbs. We have a choice lot of bulbs at the following prices: Hyacinths, mixed colors, 90c a dozen. Tulips, finest, $1.00. Crocus, " " 35c. Send in your order at once while the stock is complete.

SAVAGE & REID, Seedsmen, Salem.

THE QUALITY STORE J. J. DALRYMPLE & CO. THE QUALITY STORE SALEM.

Next door to P. O., Dallas.

Patton's Book Store SALEM

Choose your Camera. As you would a watch—get one that is all Right. The ones I carry in stock are of that Kind. PFENNIG, Jeweler and Optician.

Next door to P. O., Dallas.

Hardware! A general assortment of nearly everything in that line at lowest prices. Stoves and tinware. Paints and oils. Bee supplies. Notions in variety. J. J. WISEMAN. MILL STREET, DALLAS.

WILSON'S CELERY AND DANDELION. Will give strength to the nerves and restore the liver and kidneys to a healthy condition, give tone to the stomach and bowels, and promote a good appetite, healthy digestion, will relieve constipation, purify the blood and make a healthy body with a clear skin. That tired feeling will leave you and sleep will be restful. At Wilson's drug store, Dallas. SEND FOR PRICES ON WIRE. SALEM FENCE WORKS. 59 State street, Salem. WALTER MORLEY, Prop.

I HAVE PURCHASED. The Osburn Racket store at 60c on the dollar and have moved the goods into my store, first south of the postoffice. I will give my customers the benefit of my purchase by sacrificing the goods, some at wholesale cost, some for less than wholesale cost. The stock consists of ladies and gents furnishing goods, shoes, umbrellas, mackintoshes, rubbers, notions and hats. Come early and get first choice. Isadore Greenbaum, First door south of the postoffice, Salem.

EVERYTHING THAT GOES INTO THE MAKEUP OF SWELL APPAREL. CAN BE FOUND IN THE DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT—IN OUR STORE. QUALITY IS OUR FIRST CONSIDERATION IN BUYING, EW