Matters are comparatively quiet in China and the Philippines. The powers are still undecided as to the best means of disposing of the delicate situation.

A shrewd Portland man who has observed the products and the markets of the country has written a long article telling of a number of industries that ought to be made more profitable in Oregon.

BUTLER.

Ground is again dry enough to plow. Fall sown grain is looking green and pretty. Lillie Cox has gone to work for Charley Scroggin.

Catarrh

Its cause exists in the blood, in what causes inflammation of the mucous membrane. It is therefore impossible to cure it by local applications.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

promises to cure and keeps the promise. Accept no substitute.

We keep legal blanks of all kinds and have monthly school reports and trespass notices for sale.

Enterprising farmers all over the county are building additional stock sheds.

A regular old fashioned copper still with coiled copper worm has been brought from near Cumberland Gap, East Tennessee, to do service in a distillery at Eola.

H. M. Lines had a pleasant gathering of friends on his 64th birthday. Miss Bessie Butler gave a largely attended musicale one evening recently.

The Methodist church ladies netted $83.40 cents at their chrysanthemum fair. Last week John Scrafford died at Corvallis and Mrs. May Clodfelter in Monmouth.

SUNNY SLOPE. Will Fishback helped Mr. Clark kill his hogs. Miss Ruby Reese, of Bethel, is teaching for us.

Our location is between Monmouth and Cooper Hollow. Mr. Lea and Retta Clarke have been visiting Salem kindred.

The Hopper family have moved into the house of Mr. Ohms. John Clarke and family, of Eastern Oregon, are visiting at the home of Robert Clark.

The young folks had a lively surprise party at the home of Mrs. Ohms the other evening. A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan county N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so had the attacks before that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by A. K. Wilson.

BETHEL AND MCCOY.

A son of Montgomery Syron about 15 years old was dangerously injured while helping Van Sears put up wire fence on his farm near town. The wire broke while it was being stretched and struck him on the head. He is still very bad, but hopes are entertained of his recovery.

W. E. Duncan has sold his stock ranch to three of his nephews, who recently arrived here from California. The young gentlemen will at once begin extensive improvements.

The basket social to be given by the Pelee literary association at our school house on Saturday night December 1st, promises to be a very enjoyable entertainment and the committee of arrangements report prospects very good for a large attendance.

Both vocal and instrumental music will be furnished by members of the association. Mrs. Nancy A. Pulse, a widow lady who lived with her son, Geo. N. Pulse, died on Tuesday of last week and was buried in the Montgomery cemetery on Wednesday. Mrs. Pulse was 52 years old and had lived in this part of the county about three years.

Her death was caused by cancer. She was a member of the Evangelical church, and bore her affliction with true Christian fortitude, and humble submission to the will of He who doeth all things well. She possessed every attribute of mind and heart that go to make up the true Christian, and her death is lamented by the whole community.
