

THE POLK COUNTY ITEMIZER

DALLAS, FRIDAY, JAN. 4, 1901.

W. A. WASH, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Per year $1.50, Per six months $1.00, Per three months $0.50.

THE settlement of China with the other nations at inter is so complicated and intricate an affair...

Is Cuba and Porto Rico peaceful conditions are gradually assuming shape and the more thrifty classes will soon become comparatively prosperous.

SEVERAL great railroad corporations that are hampered in their western traffic are struggling for Pacific coast connections or terminals and the next few years will most likely see several other transcontinental roads.

THE czar of Russia has been very ill, but is all right again. The whole civilized world was uneasy over his condition...

THE followers of Grover Cleveland and those of W. J. Bryan cannot see things in exactly the same light, but both factions earnestly wish an amicable coming together of the whole party.

Miss Dora Hodgkin, of Independence, is teaching near Silverton.

"Hit the Nail On the Head."

If you have eruptions, pains in the head or kidneys, stomach trouble and feelings of weariness, "Hit the nail on the head." Hood's Sarsaparilla is the hammer to use.

Hood's Sarsaparilla NEVER Disappoints

DALRYMPLE'S

BRANCH STORE,

297 Commercial street, Salem, Oregon.

With every tenth suit at $10 or over we give a $10 bill free.

With every tenth suit at $5 or over we give a $5 bill free.

A full line of clothing, dry goods and furnishings at lowest prices.

Opposite Postoffice, Salem, Oregon.

CONGRESS is still hammering away at the Nicaragua canal project. An old treaty made with England has been a stumbling block and now the new Hay-Pauncefote treaty has not yet become entirely satisfactory to both countries.

PROF. LAKE, of the agricultural college, has returned from a six months' tour of Europe in the interest of Oregon hop and prune growers and thinks that he found there several varieties that can be used to advantage here.

THE state food and dairy commissioner reports 125 creameries in the state, some of them making both butter and cheese. Within a year 43 of them have made 1,665,000 pounds of butter.

It is wonderful what strength of purpose and boldness and energy of will are reposed by the assurance that we are doing our duty.—Scott.

THE GLASS OF FASHION.

The large, loose waves so essential to the low, fluffy, half parted pompadour style of hairdressing can be made by wetting the hair and tying broad bands of tape around it.

Renl laces are being used to a remarkable extent. Cluny Arabian, point d'Alencon, Irish point, point de flandres and rennaissance taking the lead.

Several from McCoy attended the Christmas tree at Parrydale and report a pleasant time.

Miss Edith Percival, who has been teaching in Sheridan, passed through here Saturday on her way to Salem.

Miss Mary Wisner has returned from Washington, where she has spent a few months.

The card party at Will. Strong's new residence on Tuesday evening was a complete success.

Ralph Ball and Johnnie Smith are home from Corvallis for the holidays.

His Wife Saved Him.

My wife got advice saved my life writes F. M. Ross of Winsfield, Tennessee, for I had such a bad cough I could hardly breathe, I steadily grew worse under doctor's treatment, but my wife urged me to use Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, which completely cured me.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy.

OUR STAFF OF RUSTLERS.

WHAT THEY HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THE DOINGS IN THE COUNTY.

An Unequaled and Complete Resume of What Your Friends are and Have Been Lately Doing.

WEST SALEM.

Miss Bessie Ward has gone to California with her grandmother.

G. W. Gosser has purchased a half interest in a blacksmith shop in Salem.

C. E. Hanna, wife and Miss 'Rilla Fletcher spent Christmas with relatives near Jefferson.

A. J. Ward has been appointed the stage manager of the new opera house in Salem.

Mrs. Miller Wilkening, G. Chapman, and B. Miller butchered their hogs last week.

Doug. Hanna and family have moved to near Chemawa.

School reopened Monday after a week of holiday.

BUCKEN'S Africa Salve.

Has world wide fame for marvelous cure. It surpasses any other salve, lotion, ointment or balm for cuts, corns, burns, boils, sores, fclons, ulcers, tetter, salt rheum, fever sores, chapped hands, skin eruptions; infallible for piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cents at M. D. Ellis'

BETHEL AND MCCOY.

James Tozier, who is attending a Portland business college, came home to take Christmas dinner with his parents.

Lewis Mackin is slowly improving.

George Shields spent a few days with his grandparents in McMinnville recently.

The shooting match at McCoy Saturday, was well attended considering the stormy weather.

Miss Ella Carpenter spent the holidays with her parents in Dallas.

Perry Campbell and wife, who have been visiting here for the past few weeks, have left for their home in Oakesdale, Washington.

William Kingston, Ed. Pigg and Leola Howard visited their mother, Mrs. Kingston this week.

Mrs. Mel. Bailey, of Oregon City, visited her parents, Mr. Buttrick and wife, last week.

Miss Violet Anderson has been visiting at home for a few days.

C. L. Hawley and wife returned from Monmouth Thursday after a short visit.

Elms and Ada Fletcher spent a few days at Dixie recently.

Several from McCoy attended the Christmas tree at Parrydale and report a pleasant time.

Bert Purvine was seen on our street last week.

Floyd Miller and family and Fuller Deane and wife of Macleay, spent Christmas with relatives here and at Ferrysdale.

Mrs. Taylor spent a few days of last week in Portland.

BUTLER.

We are having quite a snow storm. Mrs. Kuykendall, of Eastern Oregon, has been visiting relatives.

Miss Ella Pettyjohn spent vacation week at her home, but returned to Belltown to resume her teaching Monday.

Reta Rowell has been visiting in Sheridan the past week.

Andrew Shepard and family returned to their home in Dallas last week.

A sister of Mrs. Wallace and the Husseys is down from her home in Washington on a visit.

A watch party was held at the residence of C. Hussey to watch the old year and century out and the new one in.

Miss Grace Hussey is spending her vacation at home, but will return to Salmon river to resume teaching sometime this week.

Miss Rena and Lawrence Buell have been visiting their brother here. Lawrence stays at Wheatland and Rena is attending school in Corvallis.

Quite a nice time was had at the Christmas tree and go home was forgotten by Santa Claus.

OAK CREEK.

The farms around are wrapped in blankets of snow.

D. B. Rubie is hauling lumber from the Dallas saw mill.

The grain fields look fine.

Mr. Perkins, from Portland, is visiting his brother-in-law, Allen Rogers.

Miss Mella White, who is teaching at Hood River, came home for the holidays and so did Eunice Allen and Seth Fawk from the schools they are attending.

J. G. Wight, a former teacher here, has been among us this week.

Both our public school and our Sunday school are doing well.

A large crowd gathered at grange hall for a watch night party.

Last Saturday evening there was a surprise party at the home of J. C. White in honor of his niece, Miss Mella White, who has been teaching at Hood River for three years.

There were present J. C. White and wife, Mrs. Texalla White, Misses Hattie and Iva Roberts, May Feely, Nellie Williamson, Ethel Smith, Nannie and Lena Heise, Mella and Gusie White, Frank, Ray and Seth Fawk, Clifford, Lyman and Arthur Roberts, Homer and Seth White, Tom Haney, J. G. Wight, W. C. Kantner, Winnie Smith, H. C. Seymour, Clayton Heise and Clarence Seelye.

Our grange has chosen new officers and Pomona grange will meet in Dallas January 12th. All business will be done in the fourth degree and all grangers of that degree are invited to be present.

FALLS CITY.

At the Woodmen dance Christmas night there were forty-two couples and eleven men to spare.

On the 27th a surprise party took Mrs. Moyer by storm and a very pleasant time was had.

Tom Hollowell has sold the hotel to Zim Hinchlaw, who has taken possession. Tom has run a hotel and ranch for nine years.

Last Friday A. L. Porter began a survey and level of an alternative route or the Independence and Monmouth extension railroad from Biglery on the Southern Pacific south of the Luckiamute river. The other route is on the north side of the river and starts at Elkton.

R. V. Long and B. I. Carey have taken up homesteads about seven miles from Philomath, in the Alsea country. On inquiry all the timber land west of this place was found to be filed upon.

Oliver Lee's nephew is on a visit to him.

Prairieton Todd has rebited his place to Mr. Hunter and may go to eastern Oregon for a time.

E. G. White and family have gone on a visit to Mrs. White's brother, John Hyde Jr., near Philomath. Arthur Vassall is holding down Ed's ranch during his absence.

New Year's day the ladies aid of the Methodist church provided a dinner and also a supper on a novel plan a sort of blind pool whereby you ask for a dish of unknown food and get what you did not expect. This caused lots of fun. Two dishes were generously donated without charge they being water and toothpick. The amount raised to paint the church was considerable.

BRIDGEPORT.

Miss Frances Brown, of Corvallis, was visiting Nell Ford during the holidays.

A. M. Vassall gave a dance New Years eve. The musicians were Cliff Pugh, Southard Talbot and Johnnie McCoy.

Edith and Ethel Chambers were home Christmas, the former from Portland and the latter from Dallas, whom she is attending college.

Fred Chapin is visiting relatives in Yamhill county.

The Sunday school officers for the following year are: Supt., J. B. Smith; assistant, Mr. Plankington; secretary, W. L. Frink; organist, Mrs. C. O. Gardner.

Beat Out of an Increase of Poison. A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48, I contracted Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension for on every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequaled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by A. K. Wilson.

SUNNY SLOPE.

Bert Martin is down from eastern Oregon visiting his parents.

About forty persons attended the watch party at the home of Mrs. Olms.

George Sullivan and wife are over from Salem among kindred.

Rev. I. N. Mulkey, of Bethel, will preach at Antioch next Sunday.

Listen for the ringing of wedding bells.

ROCK CREEK.

Our rainy spell has ended for a time and we are enjoying some fine, frosty weather, which is not, however, an advantage to the stock.

The Misses M. L. and Ethel Hampton are spending the holidays with their parents.

The second annual Christmas dinner given by J. L. Morrison was quite an enjoyable affair. The table, handsomely decorated with evergreens, fairly groaned beneath the abundance and variety of the viands.

Marion Syron, J. L. and F. J. Morrison, their wives and Corporal Henry were welcome guests Sunday at the homes of F. Wittens' room and G. B. Hampton.

Santa Claus found all the houses at this end of the creek and made happy all the children, young and old.

HARMONY.

Bessie and Ethel Clark, of McMinnville, are visiting friends here.

Miss Ona Porter, who has been teaching on Salt Creek, is home for a two weeks' vacation.

Jack Wilson and family, of Independence, spent Christmas among friends and relatives here.

The people of this place had a tree on Christmas which all enjoyed.

Janie Gatty is quite sick.

John Penland, of Dayton, who has been attending the Corvallis school, is spending his vacation here.

The Harmony Sunday school has recently elected new officers as follows: Superintendent, J. L. Gatty;

CATARRH

The Cleansing and Healing Cure for CATARRH. Ely's Cream Balm. Easy and pleasant to use. Contains no injurious drugs. It is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. It opens and cleanses the nasal passages. Alleviates inflammation. Restores the membrane. Restores the sense of taste and smell. Large size, 50 cents. Single or by mail. Trial size, 10 cents by mail. ELY'S BROTHERS, 50 Warren St., New York.

WILSON'S

CELERY AND DANDELION. Will give strength to the nerves and restore the liver and kidneys to a healthy condition, give tone to the stomach and bowels, and promote a good appetite. Healthy digestion, will relieve constipation, purify the blood and make a healthy body with a clear skin. That tired feeling will leave you and sleep will be restful. At Wilson's drug store, Dallas.

Don't Rub It In.

ALL ACHES AND PAINS LOOK ALIKE TO Scotch Remedy. There are four good reasons why every household should use this remedy: First-It penetrates quicker and deeper than any known remedy. Second-It removes pain and soreness at once, and will not soil or discolor the skin or clothing. Third-It contains no chloroform, ether, ammonia, capicum or iodine and is not volatile. Fourth-Because it is the only safe, quick and harmless remedy found on the market.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents. SCOTCH REMEDY COMPANY Western Agency SAN FRANCISCO

Photo-graphic Supplies.

PFENNIG, Jeweler and Optician.

Next door to P. O., Dallas.

EVERYTHING

THAT GOES INTO THE MAKEUP OF SWELL APPAREL. CAN BE FOUND IN THE DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT - IN - OUR - STORE.

QUALITY IS OUR FIRST CONSIDERATION IN BUYING, EW THEREFORE HAVE THE CHOICEST GOODS THE MARKET AFFORDS AND OUR PRICES ARE NO HIGHER THAN MOST STORES CHARGE FOR INFERIOR GOODS.

WE ARE OFFERING TRUNKS AND VALISES SO LOW THAT IT WILL PAY YOU TO get one just to pack your summer clothes in if you are not going to travel.

HOLVERSON'S

SALEM'S BEST STORE

R. E. BRYAN & SON. One Price - - - - Cash Store DALLAS, OREGON.

We wish you a happy and prosperous new year. We especially think those whose liberal patronage has enabled us to establish ourselves amongst you. Our effort shall be to do everything possible to merit your confidence and your trade. Our interests should be mutual. We strive to make them so. The more we sell, the cheaper we can buy. Remember, our success depends upon your success. Let us work together and make this first year of the twentieth century a success for all. Our early shipment of spring goods are now beginning to arrive. We have just received a shipment of shoes and a line of overcoats and tailor made clothing from Cruise & Braden. These are fine goods. Also the finest line of trunks and traveling bags ever brought to this market. Our prices our right. Call and see us early and often.

SPECIAL THIS WEEK:

At cost our entire line of Ladies' Capes, Jackets and Mackintoshes, also box coat mackintoshes for men. See our bargain counter for shoes.

assistant superintendent, Alice Remington; treasurer and secretary, Fannie Gutter; chorister, Amy Porter.

Mr. Parks boys have the measles.

A party was given at Oliver Ralston's one evening not long ago that was greatly enjoyed by all who attended it.

PEEDEE.

Miss Lena Tarter, of Corvallis, spent holiday week with her grandpa, Mrs. Phoebe Johnson.

The Misses Rittner have returned to school at Dallas.

Rex Womer spent the holiday vacation with relatives at Philomath.

J. A. Humphrey, of Canyon City an agricultural college student, visited his cousin, J. W. Yost, last week.

Mrs. Charles Irwin and Mrs. Troy Turner, are visiting their parents, Alva Womer and wife.

Clay Bush, of Parker, was a caller last week.

Mrs. Sarah Price is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Mohney, of Salem.

Quite a number of our people attended the basket social at Montgomery last week.

Our citizens have recently shown unusual interest in international affairs and Tuesday of last week was by common consent set apart for a special discussion of our relations with Turkey.

Alva Womer has a force of carpenters at work building a large barn.

D. H. Simpson started last Monday on a trip to the Calappa mountains, and while gone will inspect the lumber forests tributary to the Upper Willamette.

School work was resumed in all the districts in this part of the county last Monday.

J. W. Yost is preparing to increase the capacity of his tannery.

From the many nice things the republican newspapers are saying about Grover Cleveland, it is quite evident that the republican diplomatists would be pleased to have the ex-president again assume leadership of the democratic party.

AIRLIE.

A happy new year to all.

The new year was introduced at this place by a heavy snow storm.

Cassie Hedgepeth is getting better.

Mrs. Wilson has improved considerably during the past few days.

Marcus Bevens, of Rainier, spent the holidays with relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. Tucker, from below Portland, is visiting his brother-in-law, Z. Horner.

Ed. Patras has several hands assisting him with his stove making.

Cecil Staats and Lena Tarter returned to Corvallis Wednesday.

Frank Scott was down this way on a deer hunt during the holidays. He spent most of his time at J. O. Staats.

N. Tarter and Mr. Quivy came in on the Suver stage Monday evening.

A. R. Lewis and wife returned from Portland a few days ago.

About two dozen friends of H. Tarter and wife called on them Tuesday and were treated to a fine new year's dinner.

N. Tarter is down from Corvallis on a short vacation and will put up a monument in the English cemetery and also one at Kings Valley.

Miss Nellie Osborne returned from Oregon City Saturday night, where she has been visiting friends.

George Graves, of this place, is at work in Oregon City this winter.

Miss Ivy Burton, who is attending the agricultural college at Corvallis, is home during the holidays.

Bert Healey and Smith Mann, of the Oregon agricultural college, have been visiting friends here during the last few days.

The Misses Blanche and Bessie Phillips, of near Greenwood, were visiting friends in town during the holidays.

There was a watch party at the residence of Miss Sallie Graves on New Year's eve. The evening was spent in all kinds of games and at midnight they all sat down to a delicious lunch, which everyone seemed to enjoy. These present were Frank Russell and wife, Forest Finch and wife, Mrs. W. D. Graves, Misses Blanche and Bessie Phillips, Maud P. Morse, Nellie Osborn, Nora and Della Wood, Man I. Merwin, Cadie Grady, Florence Burton, Sallie Graves, Willie and Newell Smith, Arthur Baker, Elva Osborn, W. M. Finch, Leslie Ball, Frank Penrose, Wesley Perry, Willis Hartman, Willie Wood, Edward Graves and J. F. Howard. At 1 o'clock they departed for their many homes, wishing their hosts many a happy New Year.

This is the first white New Year we have had for a long time.

Frank Russell and wife have returned from Southern Oregon and will make this their future home.

J. H. Burton, who is visiting relatives and friends in Canada, is expected home soon.

Mrs. J. J. Daly and her son, Floyd, returned from Portland Monday evening and so did this editor, his wife and daughter.

Jacob Baker, who has lived near Bridgeport for many years, died in Independence Monday.

Uncle Peter Syron, who is with his son, Zimri, at Falls City, is 70 years old and in much better health than a year ago.

Hardware!

A general assortment of nearly everything in that line at lowest prices.

Stoves and tinware. Paints and oils. Bee supplies. Notions in variety.

J. J. WISEMAN.

MILL STREET, DALLAS.

DON'T HESITATE

To build new fence on account of cost. Reduced prices on wire fencing. Send for circulars.

SEND FOR PRICES ON WIRE FENCE.

SALEM FENCE WORKS

59 State street, Salem.

WALTER MORLEY, Prop.

INDEPENDENCE.

Miss Nora Wood, who has been visiting in Portland during the last two months, returned to her home last Saturday night.

Miss Nellie Osborne returned from Oregon City Saturday night, where she has been visiting friends.

George Graves, of this place, is at work in Oregon City this winter.

Miss Ivy Burton, who is attending the agricultural college at Corvallis, is home during the holidays.

Bert Healey and Smith Mann, of the Oregon agricultural college, have been visiting friends here during the last few days.

The Misses Blanche and Bessie Phillips, of near Greenwood, were visiting friends in town during the holidays.

There was a watch party at the residence of Miss Sallie Graves on New Year's eve. The evening was spent in all kinds of games and at midnight they all sat down to a delicious lunch, which everyone seemed to enjoy. These present were Frank Russell and wife, Forest Finch and wife, Mrs. W. D. Graves, Misses Blanche and Bessie Phillips, Maud P. Morse, Nellie Osborn, Nora and Della Wood, Man I. Merwin, Cadie Grady, Florence Burton, Sallie Graves, Willie and Newell Smith, Arthur Baker, Elva Osborn, W. M. Finch, Leslie Ball, Frank Penrose, Wesley Perry, Willis Hartman, Willie Wood, Edward Graves and J. F. Howard. At 1 o'clock they departed for their many homes, wishing their hosts many a happy New Year.

This is the first white New Year we have had for a long time.

Frank Russell and wife have returned from Southern Oregon and will make this their future home.

J. H. Burton, who is visiting relatives and friends in Canada, is expected home soon.

Mrs. J. J. Daly and her son, Floyd, returned from Portland Monday evening and so did this editor, his wife and daughter.

Jacob Baker, who has lived near Bridgeport for many years, died in Independence Monday.

Uncle Peter Syron, who is with his son, Zimri, at Falls City, is 70 years old and in much better health than a year ago.