

TUB TRUTHS.

DROP of ink will color a whole glass of water. It is an inch of yeast which makes a pan of bread rise, and a single cake of soap containing unabsorbed alkali can ruin a hundred times its cost in laces and fine embroidery. After all, is it wise to take such risks with common soap? Of course you can get along without Ivory Soap. So can a wagon without axle grease—but it goes hard.

DALLAS SHORTLETS.

John E. Smith's blacksmith shop is headquarters for good work.

Miss Ha'lock is well pleased with her season's trade and expects to bring on a better fall stock than ever. She still has a good assortment of summer millinery.

Turkish towels 7 cents each, napkins 25 cents a dozen, 38 inch scrim 5 cents a yard, good prints 5 cents at The Bee Hive.

It pays to buy nothing short of the best in footwear. Gaylor's shoe store get all their stock from old established factories where quality, style and workmanship are always guaranteed.

Mr. Fidler, who drives the Salem stage, will get whatever you want from there.

Scott's Lawa at 5 cents a yard, new dimity at 8 cents, imported dimity 10 cents a yard at The Bee Hive.

See the new goods at Korala's furniture store. He handles both new and second hand things and sells at bottom prices. He buys second hand furniture.

Dodson's racket store claims to be the cheapest place in town and they are anxious for you to test the truth of their assertion. A dime saved is that much made.

Extra special on wrappers, $1 grade now sold at 75 cents, at The Bee Hive.

Furnishing goods for ladies and children on sale by Mrs. Chase in the Collins building. Fancy hosiery and perfect fitting corsets are specialties.

The blacksmithing done by Mr. Lynch proves him to be a superior workman.

Get best and most reliable patterns. The Bee Hive store handles the But tricks. Try them.

When any article about your home gets broken or out of repair it should be taken to Riser's gun store. He outfits fishermen and sells cutlery and umbrellas.

All kinds of oils and extras for harvesting machinery are kept at Faulstich's hardwareemporium. His nice Mr. Neis can make whatever you may want in that line. Anything that you could get in Salem he can furnish here. Everything of superior quality and at moderate prices. He has received an immense quantity of twine for binders.

SALEM SHORTLETS.

The proprietor of the New York Racket store prides himself on offering no baits of any kind. As the very beginning of the price of every article is marked as low as it can be reasonably sold. He buys at a discount for cash and gives every customer the benefit of it.

Take your $10 to Johnson's clothing store, try on one of his nice, appealing and perfect fitting suits, such as he recommends, and you will be sure to want it. Take it home and your wife will smile with approval and your children will feel proud of their father. No other store in town can show so nearly exactly what you need.

We know by experience that the steam laundry beats them all in turning out good washing. All the Polk county stages take clothing there free of charge.

It doesn't pay to keep unseasonable millinery goods over for a year, therefore Mrs. Fiester has decided all her summer stock must go regardless of cost.

Polk county farmers can exchange their soap grease for good laundry or toilet soap at the Capital soap works. And there they can get an excellent spraying soap.

For only 20 cents Charlie Hellenbrand sets a meal good enough for anybody.

Schramm's feed yard is a favorite stopping place with all Polk county people who ride or drive to the city. It is just across the steel bridge and quite convenient.

At the Cronise studio you never get inferior work.

Some people admit that they cannot at all times see clear and yet deny that their eyes are defective. If your eyes trouble you they should be promptly examined by a competent oculist, such as Dr. H. W. Barr on State street.

Kantner-Whiteaker Wedding. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Whiteaker, near Monmouth, June 19, Prof. C. W. Kantner, of Dallas, was married to their daughter, Miss Nellie, his father, Rev. W. C. Kantner, officiating. They were both handsomely attired and the ceremony took place under a beautiful marriage bell. The forty guests partook of a splendid dinner and then wished the happy couple untold joy during their months honey moon trip through Washington and British Columbia. About the middle of July they will return to Dallas and settle down, he to teach music and she to make their home as attractive and pleasant as possible.

CLOSE OF SCHOOL.

The graduating exercises of the Dallas public school occurred at the city hall Wednesday evening.

The stage was tastefully arranged and on it besides the six graduates were the school board, President Poling, School Superintendent Starr and Rev. A. I. Goodfriend. A cart load of bouquets were piled up in front of the platform to be given to the graduates when they finished their parts.

From beginning to end there was perfect quiet throughout the room, a courtesy always due on such occasions. After the invocation by Brother Goodfriend Miss Eather Savage appeared, arrayed in snowy white and delivered the salutatory, when sweet little curly haired Ruth Campbell tripped up and gracefully handed her a bunch of flowers.

Miss Kate Ketchum, of Independence, rendered a delightful violin solo with a piano accompaniment by Mrs. Joey Leitch. Richard Webster gave a pleasing selection from Longfellow's poems and was quickly remembered by the petite flower girl. The solo of little Miss Clytia Cooper was so good that she was called back to the stage and then Miss Maud Hart in an entertaining way told about the Ladder of St. Augustine. Four young ladies from McMinnville, Misses Hobbs and Misses Patty, who had been there pupils of Prof. Reynolds for two years, took the stage and delighted the audience with their sweet singing. Then W. H. Coats came forward with a choice selection from Longfellow, and in a very manly manner Dean Collins told of the life of Henry W. Longfellow, America's greatest poet. They were cheered and given beautiful bouquets. F. H. Morrison appeared and sang a solo that called for applause. The salutatory was delivered by Miss Amy Hibbard in touching words to teacher, classmates, schoolmates and friends. Frank Miller, of Ricksdale, proved that no one in all this region can draw sweeter music than he from the violin, he having to respond to an encore. Miss Carrie Garwood, Miss Hallie Morrison, Floyd Darby and Ralph Morrison gave a well received quartet. Alonzo Brown, the chairman of the board of directors, presented their diplomas to the graduates and Rev. C. C. Poling addressed the class. If they and other young people present will follow his suggestions they may have a bright future. The McMinnville quartet gave another charming song and then Principal Reynolds awarded to Dean Collins a scholarship in Dallas college for standing at the head of his class and a medal to Richard Webster for superior merit. A spelling contest had been going on during the year, Hazel Young, Esther Savage and Amy Hibbard being in the lead at the close. In the final effort Miss Hibbard won the premium book offered. At 10 o'clock the exercises were over and the audience went home, but the graduates, their teachers, their parents and a few friends, including the nine recent graduates of the Independence school, and their teacher, Prof. A. M. Sanders, remained for a banquet in a room under the hall.

Erta Hart has moved from Salt Creek to Independence.

It was 5 o'clock last evening when Rev. D. M. Metzger pronounced Henry W. Stump and Elvie J. Blessing husband and wife. It was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Blessing in Dallas and in the presence of many friends. The bride was attired in white organdie, embellished with white satin ribbon, and white silk lace, and the groom appeared well in pure black. The rooms were prettily draped in white and green, there being a profusion of roses and sweet peas. An artistic bell of flowers hung from the center of the parlor and in one corner was a tastefully arranged canopy of sweet smelling flowers beneath which the happy couple stood during the ceremony. Delicious ice cream and cake were served. The pair will at once go to house keeping in the newly furnished home in Dallas. The invited guests were Oliver Stump and wife, Mr. Ingalls and wife, Mr. Faulstich and wife, Mr. Ellis and wife, Joe Shaw and wife, Mrs. Cook and family, Mrs. Plummer and family, J. H. Robertson and family, W. A. Wash, wife and daughter, Ed Blessing and family, Misses Zora Whitman, Hattie Adams, Mamie Brown, Ethel McKinley, Minnie and Dora Roy, Isabel and Jessie Riddell, George Stuckey, Dan Hollingsworth, Walter Nichols, Perry Caldwell, Frank Brown, Charlie Roy and Squire Whitman.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CONVENTION PROGRAMME.

Following are the topics for discussion at the district Sunday school convention to be held at the Montgomery school house on June 30th at 10 o'clock:

Wedding Bells.

At the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Campbell in Dallas at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, their daughter, Miss Lena, was united in marriage with Prof. H. D. McDonald by Rev. W. T. Matlock. He was garbed in conventional black and she in pure white, carrying a bouquet of white carnations. The rooms were artistically decorated with ivy and roses, those in the parlor being white and in the dining room pink. The ceremony occurred under a handsome wedding bell of white roses and the bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Lydia Campbell. An excellent dinner was served. For the past two years he has taught in the Dallas public schools and she in the district north of town. Many nice and useful presents were bestowed upon them. They left on Thursday morning's train for their new home near Gresham. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Black, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Luper, Dr. and Mrs. Hayter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Black, Mrs. E. L. DeLumutt, Mrs. Mary Graham, T. J. Campbell, A. L. Stevens, Miss Lillie Baxter, Nina Mack, Clara Dashiell, Mabel Guy, Loretta Campbell, Ora Rhoadsberger.

A Terrible Explosion.

Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the running sore that followed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Infallible for cuts, corns, sores, boils, bruises, skin diseases and piles. 25c at all druggists.

LETTER LIST.

These letters remain uncalled for in the Dallas postoffice for the week ending June 24th and parties calling for them will please state that they have been advertised:

Grain-O! Grain-O!

Remember that name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it. Grain-O is made of pure grain, it aids digestion and strengthens the nervous system. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and the children as well as the adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about one fourth as much as coffee. 15 and 25 cents per package. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

Lumber.

Montgomery & Mulligan are now prepared to furnish any kind of lumber on short notice. Saw and planing mills three fourth miles west of Falls City, with branch office and yard at Airlie in charge of W. J. Turnidge. Our lumber is seasoned and trimmed and it pays to buy dry lumber. Plans and estimates furnished free. Write for further information.—John Montgomery, general manager, Wm. Mulligan, yard manager.
