

THROUGH A GLASS.

IVORY SOAP is a skin soap. On one square inch of your hand there are 2,800 pores. On the whole body you have 2,381,284 of these little cavities to look after. Every one of these openings must be kept clear, or the impurities of the body can not pass out. Now, to cleanse the pores, you need a fine, pure soap. Scientists who speak not from opinion, but from scientific analyses, urge the use of Ivory Soap. 99 3/4 per cent. pure.

When 20 years old he came to this county and for a short time ran a butcher shop in Dallas and then settled on Goosecreek, where by thrift and industry he gradually accumulated about 500 acres of land. For a considerable time he had been an invalid and some weeks ago went to a Portland hospital for treatment. In spite of the best medical skill he died there last Monday, his wife and son, Ed, being with him. Rev. C. C. Platto preached his funeral in the Methodist church Wednesday and he was laid to rest in the Old Fellows cemetery. He had been a lifelong earnest Methodist and was one of God's noblemen. He was always an outspoken foe of whatever was unmanly and his ward was as good as his bond. His brother, E. F. Good, is an attorney here.

Green, R. E. Hamilton, Earl Haworth, Elizabeth Heinrich, Mrs. J. E. Hoppas, W. A. Marsh, Mr. Berz Pitt, G. G. Coad, postmaster.

A Dramatic Treat.

The Fischer-Vassell Madison Sq. Theatre company will be in Dallas at the city hall during the week commencing Monday, October 14, 1901. They have just closed a successful engagement in McMinnville during the carnival, playing to packed houses both afternoons and nights. The company consists of 20 people—count them—and carry their own band orchestra. They carry special scenery for each production and are considered the best popular priced attraction on the road. The opening bill, Jerry the Tramp, is produced with the full cast of the competent company. The character of Jerry is very portrayed by Mr. McDowell. The heavy Jim Blackburn is put on in a masterly way by Dallas Covington. Frank Lee is the duped child, a vehicle of attraction that gives Babe Fischer, a 14-year-old miss, a chance to display her histrionic ability. Bert VanCleve, as Jack Worthington, is a host in himself. The supporting company is cast exceptionally strong. Tuesday night they will produce that uproariously funny comedy, The Lunatics, which you come so near being suited in footwear. Their slippers are so comfortable for evenings.

BUENA VISTA.

J. M. Prather and A. M. McLaughlin were Dallas visitors Monday.

M. N. Prather and family were Port land visitors last week.

Mrs. E. N. Hall and children were Salem visitors last week.

I. C. Rowe visited his daughter, Bertha, at Monmouth last Saturday.

N. E. Tyler is hauling clay to Parker to ship to Newberg.

At the special school meeting last Monday it was voted to have a ninth grade.

Dorcelle Shives will be assistant teacher at Liberty the coming year.

Our school opens next Monday. B. L. Murphy being the teacher. Mrs. Cramer resigned at the last moment, thus making the school a week later in commencing.

Grandma Scott, of Dakota, is visiting old friends here.

George Scott and family, of Dallas, are visiting here. He is now able to walk with crutches.

Frank McCormick and family were trading in Albany Tuesday.

Cruden Shives, who has been working in Washington through harvest, spent a few days here recently with his parents on his way to Engen-where he will attend school.

OAKCROVE.

Rev. Moore, Baptist missionary to Mexico, preached here Sunday and afterward a short talk on Mexican life.

Services were conducted at the Methodist church Sunday by Rev. Hansel.

A. G. Robert's house caught fire on last Sunday, but was quickly extinguished.

After an absence of 11 years S. K. Crowley is welcomed back on his farm once more.

A. Heise and wife have been in the metropolis.

Clayton, Nannie and Lena Heise will attend school in Salem.

Pomona grange will meet with the Suver grange next Saturday at 10 in the morning. Fourth degree members will please be present.

Joe Delap is back from Wisconsin with a bride. We wish them much joy.

SALEM BUSINESS INVITATIONS.

Without exception these who patronize the steam laundry pronounce it ahead of any other such institution in the city. Try the place and you will so conclude.

To introduce his fine new lines of boots and shoes J. L. Stockton will for a short time offer a good discount. Go at once and see about it. His recently imported dry goods will shine brightly beside anything else you can find in the city. Inspect his nobby cloaks and suits.

Dr. Kerler, the true friend of sick animals, is kept busy prescribing for them for miles around. No one knows better what to do for a sick horse, cow, sheep, goat, hog or dog.

If you believe in patronizing home industry use the products of the Salem soap factory. Polk county people can there exchange their grease for toilet or laundry soap.

Bar's jewelry store will this fall beat them all in the matter of fine and artistic things for presents. Ask to see their novelties of gold, silver and other kinds. They are beauties.

G. W. Johnson & Co. are just now making some clothing offerings that they may pay you to investigate. There one always gets the full worth of his money. If your boys from the three year old up need any kind of clothing they will sell at cost to close out about 200 suits of broken lots. Go now and get your pick of the whole lot. They are real bargains.

Drop into the Barnes Backet store and you will wonder why they have so many clerks. Stay a little while and you will wonder why they have so many customers. It's because they give everybody such real dry goods bargains.

The Yokohama Tea store is headquarters for all sorts of glassware, fine plain and decorated tableware, lamps and crockery. They can meet your wants in those lines.

As a blacksmith Mr. Lynch has few superiors.

Many ladies around Dallas buy all furnishing goods for themselves and their children at the Emporium of Mrs. Chace.

The footwear at the Bee Hive is quite attractive in appearance and will wear exceedingly well for the price. See their show window for an inkling of what may be found inside.

The hardware you buy at Faul's store never goes back on you. He handles only first class brands of everything in that line. You may get cheaper goods elsewhere but they will lack in quality. See his attractive stock of stoves. He has grass seeds of many kinds for those who are going into stock raising.

Mr. Risser, the popular gunsmith, is keeping more than busy these days supplying the wants of hunters. He fills his own shells, and sportsmen all ways find his ammunition to be first class.

Mr. Fidler goes to Salem every day and will get whatever you want.

Gaynor's is the only exclusive shoe store in town and nowhere else can you come so near being suited in footwear. Their slippers are so comfortable for evenings.

Kerelako's store is the place to both buy and sell all manner of second hand things. Nowhere else can you be so cheaply fitted out for temporary house keeping. See his stoves.

Novelties in cloaks and dresses good in great variety at the Bee Hive. Not often is so good an assortment of jackets found outside of a city store.

Have you ever noticed how quick Dockett's dealer's steam stoves stop and how clean and neat are all the conveyances he sends out. Ed Blessing is a boss driver.

John E. Smith cannot be beat at blacksmithing.

In the dry goods department of Brown & Son ladies will find a great variety of attractive dressings for themselves and their children. Any gentleman can there have his measure taken and a new suit of clothes made to order promptly. Step across into their grocery and you will find everything good to eat.

As a milliner Miss Hallock is not excelled in this county. She selected nothing but the best raw material and has the requisite taste and skill to make up what will please the most refined ladies.

Have you seen Mr. Wiseman's fall stock of stoves. He can surely please you in the matter of a cooking range or warming stove. All kinds of hardware used by everybody. Once his customer you will never leave him.

Glasses that fit will give you comfort and help you to forget worry. The price will cause you no worry either if you get them of Morris, the leading optician.

H. Hayes, Jas. Elliott and Wm. Grant got their prune crops dried in nice shops and the other orchards are now finishing up a profitable season's run. The rain did but little damage.

Pomona grange will meet with the Suver brethren at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Millard White has moved from north of Dixie to this place.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The names of Chas. LaFollet, of Salem, and Chas. Chace, Gilman Nunn, Albert Cairnes, and LaVerne Buras of Dallas, swell our number to 64.

Miss Smith, of Lewisville, who recently came to Dallas as a student, returned home last Friday on account of sickness.

The dormitory is now lighted by electricity. Soon our college also will be treated according to the same prescription.

Prof. Countryman has in charge a very expensive collar button. Any one who should chance to have lost such an article will please call on him.

Death of E. C. Hall. When a child in 1856 he crossed the plains with his father who took up a donation claim where Buena Vista now stands. The parents died there and were laid to rest in a nearby cemetery. Some ten years ago he left the old home place and went to Moscow, Idaho, where he became quite prosperous and prominent as a citizen. Only two weeks ago he returned there from a visit to Buena Vista and within a few hours died from heart disease. His remains were brought and laid beside his parents. For many years he was the leading spirit among Buena Vista Methodists and had been mayor of Moscow. L. M. Hall, R. P. Hall and A. J. Hall, of this county, are his brothers. One sister, Mrs. E. M. Croisan, lives in Salem, and another, Mrs. Smith at Egan.

Nearly all who heard the Buyer lecture last Friday evening were delighted with it, pronouncing it a brilliant gem of pure, bright thoughts. Others of equal interest are to follow in behalf of the college.

The Chapin and Ford hops have been sold at 11 cents.

Remember the special school meeting at the city hall at 2 o'clock next Thursday to vote on adding a ninth grade to the public school course.
