Tremendous Auction Sale

Of an immense stock of clothing—hats, dry goods, gentlemens furnishing goods, hosiery, gloves, notions, stationery, cutlery, blankets, quilts, etc., etc. The above goods are all new and fresh from the factories. On account of the strikes in San Francisco and several eastern cities the manufacturers were mable the factories. On account of the strikes in San Francisco and several eastern cities, the manufacturers were unable to move their goods in time for the fall trade, and have therefore sun over $25,000 worth of goods to be disposed of at the purchaser's own price. They are now being sold by S. Friedman, auction eer, on the corner of State and Commercial streets. Sales daily at 1 o'clock pm. and continue until January 1st. It will pay people to come from a distance, as well as these who live in the immediate vicinity, and attend these sales, for there is no reserve. Every article is sold for whatever the bidders give, as for instance: An overcoat worth $10 only brought $2.60; a dress mattern worth $4.75 sold for 35 cents; a table cloth worth $1.50 brought 35 cents. Many articles brought ridiculously low prices. Hats worth $2.50 went as low as 40 cents. Yet the sales will goon to a finish regard css of the consequence. Any one in need of clothing, dress goods furnishing goods, hats, etc., come and help yourself at your own price. Take them away. You will be convinced of the fact when you come to the auction, so says
