Not half enough turnips have been raised around Dallas to supply the home demand and nearly all the celery used here is brought from elsewhere. Somebody could make it pay to put in a big market garden near Dallas. As large quantities of bacon and lard are shipped in here every year, more hogs ought to be in this county. Now it will pay big to raise nearly all kinds of good stock.

In unity there is strength in all departments of life. Corporations are taking advantage of that fact now as never before in the world's history. It has come to the point that disunited and unorganized industries are at a great disadvantage in the competition for business. Hop raisers and fruit growers in this region have felt keenly the lack of pulling together and in each others interest. Numerous meetings have been and are being held to devise some feasible means of united effort in which the interests of all will be conserved and protected alike. The Hood River fruit men have so organized that they are now in a more prosperous condition than ever before.

The Youth's Companion in 1902. To condense in a paragraph the announcement of The Youth's Companion for 1902 is not easy. Not only will nearly 200 story writers contribute to the paper, but many of the most eminent of living statesmen, jurists, men of science and of letters, sailors, soldiers and travelers, including three members of the president's cabinet. In a delightful series of articles on military and naval topics the secretary of the navy will tell "How Jack Lives," Julian Ralph, the famous war correspondent, will describe "How Men Feel in Battle," and Winston Spencer Churchill, M. P., whose daring escape from a Boer prison pen is well remembered, will describe some experiences "On the Flank of the Army." And this is but a beginning of the long list. A complete announcement will be sent to any address free. The publishers also announce that every new subscriber who sends $1.75 for the 1902 volume now will receive all the issues of the remaining weeks of 1901 free from the time of subscription; and the Companion calendar for 1902—all in addition to the 52 issues of The Companion for 1902.—The Youth's Companion, 135 Columbus avenue, Boston, Mass.

Itching Skin

Distress by day and night—That's the complaint of those who are so unfortunate as to be afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum—and outward applications do not cure. They can't. The source of the trouble is in the blood—make that pure and this itching, burning, itching skin disease will disappear. "I was taken with an itching on my arms which proved very disagreeable. I concluded it was salt rheum and bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. In two days after I began taking it I felt better and it was not long before I was cured. Have never had any skin disease since." Mrs. Ida E. Ward, Cove Point, Md.

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Then the richness of the blood—the albumen—leaks out and the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.
