There is a class of people who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called Grain-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it with out distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over one-fourth as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. Fifteen cents and 25 cents per package. Try it. Ask for Grain-O.

Opposition Bowling Alley.

Floyd Myer, Glen Elkins, Leif and Roy Finseth, Harold Elich and Lawrence Aldrich have leased Mr. Finseth's barn and rigged up therein a very creditable bowling alley. They charge a flat rate of 2 cents a game and have up a chicken as a prize to whosoever scores the greatest number of points. There is no dead head playing, even the owner of the property having to pay cash. The boys are so in love with their business that they seldom want to go home for supper. They defy the other fellow to meet their prices and claim to be patronized by the highest toned ladies and gentlemen in town.

A Good Cough Medicine.

From the Gazette, Toowoomba, Australia: I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months, and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it.—W. C. Wockner. This is the opinion of one of our oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited, as was Mr. Wockner. This remedy is sold by A. K. Wilson.

Oregonian-Itemizer Combination.

Within a month we have ordered twenty four Oregonians to be sent to persons who paid $2 for it and this paper for a year, their aim being to get the greatest possible amount of county, state, national and foreign news. Many others have decided to do the same thing between now and Newyears. If you want to make two friends Christmas or Newyears gifts that would be appreciated, send the Oregonian to one of them and this paper to the other. Money is never better spent than for good reading matter.

The Best Prescription for Malaria.

Chills and fevers is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chills Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no pay. Price 50 cents.

BUSINESS IN SALEM.

The New York Racket store has an over supply of clothing, which they desire to greatly reduce before taking stock in January. To do so they will sell all men and boys' clothing at a reduction of 20 per cent. Take your children there and treat them to new suits as Christmas gifts.

The Yokohama Tea company keep the very best teas, coffees, spices and extracts, and besides that have elegant lines of Christmas goods. Their silverware is unique and their China could not be more attractive.

New wearing apparel is always suitable for presents. At Stockton's dry goods store may be seen many elegant patterns and ready made things to wear. For a young lady nothing could be nicer than a pair of kid gloves, and mother should not be forgotten while bestowing presents.

Johnson's clothing store has stood the test for many years and has never yet been found except in the front rank. Quite a number of Polk county parents are making their sons gifts of new suits there. They are making a good sized reduction on everything in the store. Buy now and save money. Remember the place near Albert's bank.

The steel bridge feed yard people take care of nearly all teams that cross the river. The whole yard being under roof is always dry and quite warm. Be kind to your horse.

All the trains, boats and stages take packages to and from the steam laundry where one gets the best washing to be obtained in the city. Prices no higher than where they do inferior work.

As confectioners Ellis & Zinn have no superiors. Try their called almonds and Spanish peanuts. Candies fresh and pure. Lots of nice things for the holidays.

Santa Claus has established his headquarters at the Fair store, where will be found one of the largest stocks of dolls, toys and holiday goods in the city. They undersell nearly everybody.

Go to George Bros. lunch counter on State street when you want something good to eat.

The Home bakery in the State insurance block has not only the very best of bread, cakes and pies, but candies, fruits and nuts for the holiday trade.

DALLAS BEFORE HOLIDAYS.

At the ladies and childrens furnishing goods emporium of Mrs. Chace, may be found a great variety of articles that would make pleasing presents.

Wiseman, the hardware man, has various things that boys, girls and older folks would be glad to receive as useful gifts. Go there and pick out something for your friends.

Brown's store offers quite a variety that would make acceptable presents at this season. Take a peep through both the dry goods and the grocery departments. Never buy flimsy useless things for gifts.

If you have occasion to drive into the country during the holidays, remember that Ducksteader's livery stable is the best place to get an outfit that will be sure to please you.

Lynch, the iron artist, is ready to do you a first class job of blacksmithing.

No matter what you want in the way of poultry or stock feed, it may be had at Ulrey's store. He has what will make your hens lay.

Have you noticed those nice iron beds at Kerslake's furniture store. He has easy chairs that would be so nice for the old folks and other things which would add to the comfort and attractiveness of any home.

At Miss Hallock's millinery store may be found a variety of pleasing things for ladies and girls. See what a nice present she can fix up for you.

KICK A DOG

Kick a dog and he bites you. He bites you and you kick him. The more you kick the more he bites and the more he bites the more you kick. Each makes the other worse.

A thin body makes thin blood. Thin blood makes a thin body. Each makes the other worse. If there is going to be a change the help must come from outside.

Scott's Emulsion is the right help. It breaks up such a combination. First it sets the stomach right. Then it enriches the blood. That strengthens the body and it begins to grow new flesh.

A strong body makes rich blood and rich blood makes a strong body. Each makes the other better. This is the way Scott's Emulsion puts the thin body on its feet. Now it can get along by itself. No need of medicine.
