A Town's Great Record.
Several Illinois towns claim to be oldest proliation towns in Illinois. Normal, however, can beat them all. It is said, when Normal was first laid out, in 1836, deeds to various lots contained very rigid stipulations that no saloon could be operated upon said lot; that each lot was sold with understanding that no saloons would be operated in town. This agreement was adhered to. As a result no saloons have ever been operated within the borders of that city.

SALEM SHORTLETS.
The good cooking at the lunch counter of George Bros. draws many farmers there.

We don't wonder whether there is in the state a more popular clothing house than that of G. W. Johnson & Co. As the seasons come and go they always manage to have what their customers want. Long experience has enabled them to anticipate the needs of their patrons. They have just added a shoe department which is sure to prove very popular.

There is a Class of People
Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called Grain-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over one-fourth as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. Fifteen cents and 25 cents per package. Try it. Ask for Grain-O.

DALLAS BUSINESS.
Nobody ever expects to get an inferior article at Faulk's hardware store for it is well known that he carries a high grade of goods. Most articles he sells at what many have to pay for shoddy articles. Spring has come and many are enquiring about grass and garden seeds. He has the of all kinds. Everything used by farmers can be obtained there.

A. W. Ducksteader, the liverrman, is sure of a big patronage during the political canvass, because he will leave no stone unturned to accommodate and please those concerned.

The number of people who go to Rissler's gunstore to have injured articles repaired is surprising. Many who used to throw away all broken things now have them mended for a fraction of what new ones would cost.

Let Stage Driver Filler get what you want from Salem and you will be pleased with it.

Our Goat Show.
This editor of a Portland agricultural paper who was here on that occasion has this to say: The annual Angora goat show held at Dallas, Oregon, is steadily growing in importance, attendance and interest. The show was held this season under most favorable circumstances. The large and well lighted building was an ideal place for the show, and the weather was most favorable. The show is now called a state show, but it is to be regretted that several of the most prominent breeders of the state did not exhibit. There were, however, more exhibitors and more goats than a better average grade of goats than any previous show and a great deal more interest was shown by visitors.

As heretofore, two classes were made—thoroughbreds and grades. Prior to the adoption of a registry system this was a proper classification, although there has always been some doubt as to the evidence required to establish the identity of a thoroughbred. It was perceived this year, however, that it will be better hereafter to qualify as registered and grades, meaning by the latter unregistered goats. This year a large percentage of the goats entered as grades were registered and many of them clearly belonged in merit with those ranked as thoroughbreds. There has been very little loss of goats this winter. The main reason for this is that the goats were looked after more carefully, commenced the winter in better condition and have been fed more than usual heretofore. The price paid in the Willamette valley for shearing goats is from 6 to 8 cents a head. There is not as much talk of pools as usual. The men who raise fine mohair do not care to give a part of the price they are entitled to, to men who raise low grade hair. The man who will not buy a good buck to improve his flock with because all mohair sells for the same price is about to receive a rude awakening.
