DR. ARTHUR G. KEANE.
[other Doughkopsis, N. Y., or Montclair, N. J. All the amateur experts of this country will appear, and a sextet of prominent Canadian cricks has entered to defend the titles captured over their boys in Montreal last year. Figure skating is another branch of the great sport that is receiving a deal of attention just at present. Dr. Arthur G. Keane of New York is the American champion, having successfully defended the title for three consecutive years. Dr. Keane performs all the most difficult maneuvers and in the opinion of experts will win again in this year's contest.]
It is now an established fact that the Olympic games of 1904 will be held in Chicago, and the committee in charge of the preparations is already deep in its voluntary task of promoting the event. One of the latest features planned to add interest to the athletic games and gymnastic contests is a museum of athletic apparatus, chronologically arranged so as to show the improvement in the instruments of all lines of sports. The congress of the Olympic committees of all countries will be held this spring at Brussels, and the importance of the meeting has been increased by the announcement already made that King Leopold will preside. The following men have been appointed a committee on finance for the games: Benjamin Rosenthal, chairman; H. N. Higginbotham, ex-president of the World's Columbian exposition; James H. Eckels, ex-comptroller of the treasury; Oregon Smith, Clarence Buckingham, Charles L. Hutchinson, and Otto Young.

Mike Dwyer's Yearlings.
Although the well known name of M. F. Dwyer has not been seen on the race programme during the past season, it is said the "white gold tassel" will again be seen on the turf next summer, as he has ten yearlings now quartered at the Gravesend (N. Y.) race course, and it is hoped that some of them will revive the glories of old times. The yearlings are in the care of Trainer Richard Miller, who has been in charge since the death of Hardy Campbell, for whom he acted as foreman.
Healey Parts With McCue.
Tom Healey, who will train exclusively for R. T. Wilson, Jr., next season, has stated that he has parted company with the former jockey, Patsy McCue. He could not control the boy and thought it best to let him have a free hand. McCue has taken on so much flesh of late that there are only two courses left open for him to earn a living as a rider—to become a steeplechase jockey or go to England, where the scale of weights is high.

Canada Cup Race in 1902.
The international yacht race for the Canada cup, which was to have been sailed between vessels representing the Royal Canadian Yacht club of Toronto and the Rochester Yacht club off Toronto harbor in 1902, has been postponed until 1903, since it is not likely that the Yacht Racing Union of the Great Lakes will decide in time to permit the clubs to build what class of yachts shall be permitted to enter for competition for this cup.
McGovern and Atwell.
Jack McKenna of Inveror has deposited a stake of $1,000 in a match between Abe Atwell and Terry McGovern for the featherweight championship of the world. McKenna stipulates that the boys shall meet at 12 pounds, the featherweight limit, the bout to take place regardless of the outcome of the coming bout between McGovern and Dave Sullivan.

How to Wash Elder-down Quilts.
Make a good lather of soap jelly (boiled soap) and warm water and add to it a little borax or ammonia. Into this put the quilt and knead it about; repeat the process in fresh suds if very soiled. Then rinse all the soap out with two or three changes of water, shake and hang out to dry. During the drying and afterward shake the quilt well, and it will be as full looking and soft as when new.
How to Tighten Cane Seats.
Cane seats of chairs may be easily tightened by the use of hot water. Turn the chairs upside down and wash the cane with very hot water, using a brush in the work. Soap may be used if needed in cleaning the cane. Let it dry in the open air, but away from the direct rays of the sun, and it will come out as firm and fresh as new.
How to Make Horseshod Sauce.
Chill and beat one cup of cream till stiff; add half teaspoonful of salt, pinch of pepper and three tablespoonfuls of prepared horseradish; if fresh grated horseradish is used, add two tablespoonfuls of vinegar and one teaspoonful of sugar; keep in a cool place, as it should be stiff and thick when used.

How to Bake Pies.
When baking pies, if they are very juicy take a piece of stiff brown paper about two inches long, roll it around so it is like a little tube and insert in the center of the pie, and the steam goes through it like a little chimney. This prevents the juice from running out.
How to Make Rice Cakes.
Beat two eggs until light; add one part of milk and two cupfuls of cold boiled rice, one tablespoonful of salt and one cupful of flour in which is mixed two level teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Beat thoroughly and bake on a hot griddle.
How to Clean Greasy Matting.
When grease has been spilled on matting, cover the spot thickly with powdered chalk and moisten it by sprinkling a few drops of benzine on it. When this has evaporated, brush off the chalk, and the spot will have disappeared.
How to Make Swiss Sandwiches.
Mix equal parts of grated Swiss cheese and chopped English walnut meats. Season slightly with salt and pepper and spread upon thinly sliced buttered bread. Cut into any shape desired.
How to Fry Doughnuts.
When baked spots appear on doughnuts, drop a slice of raw potato into the fat and let it while the next relay is frying and repeat.
How to Wash Gilt Crockery.
Crockery ornamented with gilt bands or figures should be washed quickly and drained dry, never wiped, even with a soft cloth.
How to Keep Cake Moist.
A slice of fresh bread or an apple in the cake box is good to keep it moist.

Poorly?
"For two years I suffered terribly from dyspepsia, with great depression, and was always feeling poorly. I then tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and in one week I was a new man."—John McDonald, Philadelphia, Pa.
Don't forget that it's "Ayer's" Sarsaparilla that will make you strong and hopeful. Don't waste your time and money by trying some other kind. Use the old, tested, tried, and true Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.
Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and you will be satisfied.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE
Some Rare Table Furnishings.
Dinner tables are not quite completely set without conversation plates. The loveliest set in rich colored, hand painted royal Vienna plates, some with portraits of great beauties, others with romantic scenes artistically rendered, with gold borders around the rims. Among the pretty things seen in rich glassware is a mayonnaise set. This consists of a salad bowl of rich cut glass with a sterling silver ladle. Some sets come in three pieces, showing the bowl, handle and plate to set the bowl on. These sets are a valuable addition to the housewife's cupboard.
It is particularly noticeable in the china shops that the old fashioned white china with gilt is becoming popular. These sets are almost duplicates of the old fashioned "tea sets" of our grandmothers' early days and come in the old fashioned shapes, made of fine, clear ware. Of course this ware is costly, and therefore the woman who has retained as a family heirloom her grandmother's set is fortunate.
A Hat Cupboard.
Large hats occupy a large amount of space if they are to be properly taken care of, and in small flats or small houses it is usually a consideration to economize space as much as possible. Therefore a suggestion for a hat cupboard and washstand combined may be useful. The arrangement can be easily carried out, and the most ordinary washstand will suit the purpose. As to the arrangement beneath the washstand which is to serve the use of a hatbox, all that is necessary is a shelf or two—say one shelf at the foot of the washstand legs and another midway between that and the washstand drawer. These two shelves will "take" large brimmed hats comfortably without crushing them. They must be protected from dust by shutting the cupboard in with flowered chintz curtains, which at the same time beautify the furniture. It is a pretty idea to paint the washstand with floral grays similar to those on the chin.

Bachelor Girl's Trunk.
A combination trunk and writing desk has been devised by a New York woman. Necessity was truly the mother of this invention, the combination being a diminutive hall room, a limited number and a "lachelor" woman's need for a convenient and capacious drawer. This design not only gives two large drawers, but at the same time does not decrease the amount of trunk room and leaves it easily accessible. The photograph shows an old trunk, now used as a writing table. It can be made ready for traveling in less than a minute's time. It was stated some time ago that a man was the inventor, but Laura E. Buckingham is the patentee, and in justice to her this statement is made.

TRUNK USED AS WRITING TABLE
Round Pincushions.
Among the many charming devices for pincushions none is more attractive than the round ones, covered with some plain, soft silk, with a puff of the silk around the side. Over the top and bottom is laced across the puff either a faintly embroidered round piece of white linen or of lace. One of the prettiest is made with lace covers crocheted in a pattern that reminds one of the Irish lace patterns. The thread used for the purpose is No. 100. The soft puff of silk puffs out between the lacings, which are made at every broad scallop. When linen is used, the edges are scalloped and buttonhole stitched, and eyelets are worked in each broad scallop for the ribbon or silk cord. Sometimes no cover is used for the bottom, the top being laced and tacked at the base of the puff and giving the same effect on the top.

CARE OF LAMPS.
How They Should Be Handled to Insure Good Lights.
Much has been said and written concerning the best lamp chimneys and burners to use in order to have good lights, but neither one is so important as to keep the burners clean. Many lamps give a dull, feeble light or have been set aside as dangerous because they are not properly cared for in this respect and the dust has accumulated in the small air tube at the side of the wick. The remedy is so simple that there is no excuse for this condition of affairs.
New lamp chimneys are toughened and made more durable by putting them in water and heating it gradually until it is boiling hot. When they have boiled five minutes, set them off the stove and allow them to cool in the water. In addition to the daily filling of the lamps and cleaning of the chimneys, the burners should be boiled once a week in water containing enough washing powder to make a good suds. This will remove the oil and leave them bright and clean. Polish with dry fannel.
Use none but the best oil, and the lamp should be kept full to insure a good light. Keep the reflector, if it has one, brightly polished. Do not cut the wick, but trim it just above the tube and rub off the charred portion with a match.
How to Make Codfish Salad.
This is a nice fall or winter salad. Pull off in narrow strips a pound of old fashioned salt codfish. Soak overnight in cold or lukewarm water. In the morning squeeze out all the water by putting fish in a thin cloth. Put into a saucepan and cover with cold water and let it boil gently for twenty minutes. Then drain and again squeeze dry. Toss about with a silver fork until pieces are separated, put into a salad bowl with equal quantity of boiled potatoes, hard boiled eggs and, if you like them, a few minced anchovies and a chopped dill pickle. Mix with mayonnaise and garnish the dish with shredded lettuce and chopped celery.

How to Fry Cauliflower.
Soak the cauliflower, head downward, in cold salted water, then cook until tender in boiling salted water; separate flowerets, sprinkle with paprika and lemon juice and let stand several hours. Dry the flowerets on a cloth, roll each piece in a beaten egg, then in breadcrumbs and repeat this process until all the parts are well covered. Fry in deep fat, smoking hot, and drain on soft paper. Serve on a folded napkin. Pass with them tomato sauce.
Boiling Meat.
Don't boil meat at a gallop. Boil five minutes; then cook it at a temperature of 100 degrees F.
To Sweeten Rancid Butter.
Melt the butter and skim it; then put into it a piece of well toasted but not burned bread. In a few moments the butter will lose its offensive taste and smell, which the toast has absorbed.

Cities and Their Population.
There are in the world 270 cities having more than 100,000 inhabitants each, 35 having more than 500,000 and 12 with a population of more than 1,000,000.

"IMPOSSIBLE," for you to enjoy motherhood," says the doctor. Sometimes he qualifies the statement, and says: "Impossible without an operation." Yet both these "impossibles" have been made possible by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Many times the hindrances to motherhood are to be found in womanly diseases or weaknesses, which are perfectly and permanently cured by "Favorite Prescription."
This medicine for women cures irregularity and dries debilitating humors. It relieves inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.
"I wish to add my testimony to hundreds of others as to the value of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I was a nervous, sickly, and nearly every ailment a woman could have, I took many a bottle of 'patent medicines' without effect. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and ten months afterward I gave birth to a healthy boy. All Physicians and stated as a fact that I never could bear a child. But the baby and myself were strong, and I got along splendidly—thanks to your medicine."
The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 3008 large pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Children and Newspapers.
In a recent article in a current magazine there is a protest against the newspaper reading child. "It is a deplorable fact that of late years a number of excellent magazines for children have been discontinued," says the writer, who goes on to show that the vogue of the newspaper has shortened the term of childhood and made it impossible to maintain juvenile periodicals.
It is impossible to prevent a boy or a girl from learning the facts of life. They come, prematurely perhaps, in a hundred different ways outside the columns of the newspaper. Much premature knowledge is gathered at school. The streets, the theaters, the public conveyances, all furnish sights and scenes that reveal much to be of real use to each other and to the world. It is to be regretted that the accounts of crimes and murders must be printed, these are actualities that cannot be ignored. The child that is old enough to read about what is happening in the world is old enough to begin to understand something of the many sided phases of humanity. The ephemeral contents of the daily paper present much that is instructive. Indeed, in some schools the lessons in current events are as important as any on the list of regular studies. Contemporary history, rightly read, is not less instructive than that which deals with ancient and medieval times.
Instead of forbidding children to read newspapers, parents should choose the best journals and teach their children to read about matters of general interest. Critics may sound the alarm, but it is vain to prevent the newspaper reading child from existing. Since he has been evolved, it is well to respect his existence and to supply him with the best intellectual food for his twentieth century mind.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

MRS. HUGH REID GRIFFIN.
President of the Society of American Women in London.
American women living in London found with regret a few years ago that as time passed they were less and less in touch with each other and with the work and thought of their sisters in the United States, and so in the year 1890, at the suggestion of Mrs. Hugh Reid Griffin, Mrs. De Friese and a few others, the Society of American Women in London was planned and organized. It is the ambition of this society, as it is stated in its constitution, "to bring together women who are engaged in literary, artistic, scientific and philanthropic pursuits, with a view of rendering them helpful to each other and useful to society." The society has three rooms at Empire style, handsomely decorated in Empire style, which are always at the disposal of members, and also a large banquet hall, in which they hold their monthly luncheons.

The president, Mrs. Hugh Reid Griffin, is the only daughter of Mrs. Wells Beach of Waterbury, Conn., formerly of Chicago. She has lived twenty-two years in England and is the regent of the English chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She is a serious, earnest worker and has never missed a meeting of the society since its birth. The president of a club of thinking women who wish to be of real use to each other and to the world must be a patient master workman, and the secret of Mrs. Griffin's success is that she understands this fact.—Mrs. Stephen Craue in Woman's Home Companion.

Nothing raises the price of a blessing like its removal, whereas it is its continuance which should have cost us its value.—Hannah Moore.
