The democratic central committee met in Dallas last Saturday and chose J. W. Kirkland, of Independence, as their chairman and he to choose his own secretary. After calm and deliberate exchange of opinions it was thought best to make no general canvass, but to put our party and its candidates forward on their merits as already known. Everybody knows that the masses are dissatisfied with the way the republicans have been running state affairs and now they will be given a chance to change the political complexion of things by sending Butler and Simpson to the legislature. The people know the sets of candidates and the democrats are perfectly willing that they shall make selections on the known merits of the individuals. Mr. Kirkland has had considerable political experience and will use all honorable means to advance the interests of his party.

Grandma Byerley Cons. In 1852 Martin Byerley crossed the plains with his wife and five children and she died at Elora that fall. A few years later he married a sister of John and Pleasant Orchard then living on Salt Creek. Some fifteen years ago he died at Newport and since then she has lived with her brother, Pleasant Orchard at Ballston. She had been an invalid for sometime and died there last Saturday and was laid to rest beside loved ones in the Salt Creek cemetery. The five children referred to above are Mrs. L. A. Johnson, Mrs. John Vernon, near Rickreall, Ab. at Dallas, Henry near Perrydale and Jeff of Newport.

"My Family Doctor," Blue Island, Illinois, Jan. 14, '02. Messrs Ely Bros.—I have used your Cream Balm in my family for 9 years and it has become my family doctor for colds in the head. I use it freely on my children. It is a Godsend to children, as they are troubled more or less. Yours respectfully, J. Kimball. Judge for yourself! A trial size can be had for the small sum of 10 cents. Supplied by druggists or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York. Full size, 50 cents.

Brown's Creamery. At the former Racket store building on Mill street John G. Brown is arranging machinery and other conveniences to at once begin making butter on a large scale. He expects to very soon handle the milk of at least 75 cows and will gradually more than double that amount. He has employed a practical butter maker recently from the east. Most of his output will be shipped away. He will stop running his milk wagon, but will have milk, cream, butter, milk, ice, cream for sale at the dairy. As so many people around town have cows he thinks the public will have no trouble in getting all the milk they want. Mr. Yates may increase his dairy herd and again deliver milk on a larger scale than for some time.

SALEM TRADE WANTS.

Hundreds of the best fitting and longest wearing suits ever seen in Polk county were bought at the Johnson clothing house in the capital city. Every garment they sell to people across the river proves to be an advertisement for them. All the representations ever made of that store prove to be true. Trade at Johnson's and you will never get bit.

The steam laundry on Liberty street has the reputation of always giving complete satisfaction to its patrons. They use the most modern machinery and employ none but skilled help.

Everything you buy at the Barnes Racket store is ready to wear or use, and you will find all of it to give as much satisfaction as similar goods that cost much more at other places. They are now receiving a large stock of attractive spring goods.

The chief business of Dr. Keeler at the steel bridge feed yard is to treat and cure sick animals. By long experience he has become very successful in such cases.

Tableware and kitchenware in great profusion at the Yokohama Tea store. No lady can go there without seeing several things she wants. Notice the glittering fine polished glassware.

Take lunch with George Bros. and you will advise your friends to do like wise.

Stockton's store has such a great variety of dry goods and clothing that they are daily making special offerings which attract ladies there. The quality, appearance and price of the articles are all trade winners. His chief clerk has been pronounced the most popular sales lady in the city and all his salesmen take pride in pleasing their customers.

The ladies from all over Polk county are specially invited to visit Mrs. Fennell's furnishing goods store next to the Barr jewelry establishment. They will be sure to see there several things they want.

The German spraying compound at Muth's soap factory will make all kinds of fruit and hop pests turn up their toes. Now is the time to buy and use it.

TRADE IN DALLAS.

C. H. Morris, the jeweler, has as great a variety in his line as can be found in any town of the size. In the matter of time pieces or eye glasses he can meet any demand.

New tailor made suits in the Gib-style just arrived at The Bee Hive.

While east Mr. Wiseman bought a big invoice of goods which are now on display and ready for sale. Drop in and see his new hardware offerings.

All reasonable groceries may now be had at Dunn's grocery. In canned goods they have the latest and best of everything offered by the wholesale trade. Prices never high.

New black dress goods at prices from 25 cents to $2 a yard; also colored dress goods, special values at $1, $1.25, $1.50.—The Bee Hive.

Everything needed by any fisherman can be had at Rissler's gun store. If his hooks won't tempt the trout they are beyond temptation. Mr. Rissler mends things.

Every lady that visits Miss Hallock's millinery emporium is surprised to find such elegant things in a country store. She caters to the best trade in the county.

New ties 25, 35 and 65 cents each. New veiling, chemise dots, 29c a yard at The Bee Hive.

You will make no mistake in going to Mr. Lynch for good blacksmithing.

Load after load of cow feed, horse feed and chicken feed go out from Ullery's store every day. See what he has to keep poultry in good condition and make hens lay.

Ladies who desire to look well themselves and to make their children attractive should go to the furnishing goods store of Mrs. Chace, who has many pretty things.

All who have used Dallas made flour pronounce it as good as any they ever got in this state or any other.

Mr. Kerslake, the Main street furniture dealer, sells lots of goods both new and second hand. He will exchange new furniture for old.

The general merchandise establishment of Brown & Ellis is in all respects up to date. They keep close watch of the markets and as fast as new things suitable for this market come out they get them. Their spring goods for ladies and children are exceedingly attractive.

Dockett's livery teams get little rest but they are so well fed and groomed that they keep in good condition and can almost fly over the roads.

J. J. Fiddler's daily stage does a big package business between here and Salem. He will get whatever you want.

It is a general recognized fact that Gaynor's footwear emporium is the very best place in the county seat to get any and all sorts of shoes, and the prices are moderate.

The freshest egg, the choicest butter, the most appetizing breakfast dishes and everything for dinner you can always get at the Dunn grocery.

Clothing for everybody. Greatest line ever shown now in stock at prices very reasonable.—The Bee Hive.

Faull the hardware man has again stocked up and is ready for all orders in his line. He knows exactly what this trade demands and makes it his business to be ever ready to supply it. Everything for gardening or farming as well as all kind of building supplies. The goods will strike you as of high quality and you won't grumble at the prices.

Death Of Mrs. Simonton.

Mrs. Melinda, wife of James Simonton, died at the home of her son Willis, in Dallas April 19th, aged 58 years. They were married in Pennsylvania in 1861 and came west fourteen years ago, their home during all the intervening time being near Rickreall. She had been a member of the Presbyterian church for 33 years and was a charter member of that church in Dallas. Many sorrowing friends who had learned to love the deceased gathered at the church Monday to hear Pastor Wardle pay a well deserved tribute to her memory. She was of a kindly and genial spirit and her kind of Christianity was most worthy of emulation. Besides the bereaved husband six sons and seven daughters are left to mourn her loss.

AIRLIE.

Farmers are getting in a few days plowing between showers.

Art Miller, of Kings Valley, bought a yearling colt of Mc D Turner.

As the warm weather approaches agents of all kinds are getting more numerous.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Taylor will soon be out after an attack of typhoid fever.

Woven wire fence is beginning to make itself known here, W. W. Smith having just received forty or fifty rods.

A. E. Lewis is erecting a nice new house on the lot near his butcher shop.

Henry Tarter and wife, Bura Tarter and A. J. Sebring will leave for Idaho this week.

Mrs. Hubbard, of Suver, a trained nurse, has been waiting on Ed Taylor at the expense of the Woodman and Odd Fellows, he being a member of both orders.

Ed Patras has six or eight men making staves on Cricket Bevens' place.

Ed Patras lost several hundred to-mato plants last week. The presence of Jack Frost has a chilling effect on some early garden truck.

Some of our milk cows being bent on eating something green, chased Tommy Hooker through the field a few days ago and eat up a new $10 coat.

Mrs. J. W. Wilson has been quite sick.

D. Simpson, candidate for county clerk, was shaking hands with his many friends here Sunday evening.

Tracy Staats, deputy assessor, was doing this vicinity last week.
