> The double chin is a hard thing to remove by home treatment, but it can certainly be modified by persistent daily application of the following treatment: Grasp as much of the chin as can be held between the thumb and foretinger and twist until it slips out. Do this many times on both sides of the chin. One can form the habit of doing it when reading. Placing the hands on the cheeks, let the thumbs meet under the chin, and draw them backward, pressing hard and flattening the chin. One must not press against the windpipe, but only against the under part of the jaw. Last of all, clasp the hands upon the forehead and bend the head slowly forward, resisting it all the time with the hands. Bend till the chin rests on the chest. When this motion is first used, a painful sensation will be felt in the cords of the neck. This is only because unused muscles are being exercised and will soon pass away. Relax thoroughly after each motion. Do it four or five times, then go to something else, and come back to it. Five minutes dally given to these three motions will begin to show results in six weeks. Quay Hopes to Strike the Coal Trust For Campaign Funds.

Senator Hanna baving failed with his Civic federation annex to adjust the coal strike and President Roosevelt having pocketed the report of Com sioner of Labor Wright, which was heralded as giving the inside facts about the coal trust, so that it would seem that the president is not anxious to put up any more labor on the overworked attorney general, the coal strike is still in full blast. But now comes Brother Quay, who is stated to be very pleased to undertake what Hanna and Roosevelt have failed to accomplish, and, being such a noted trust hunter, be may accomplish it. Brother Quay, like his enemy Hanna, bunts the trusts to their lair to fry the fat out of them, and it may be cheaper for the coal trust to stop the strike than to "put up" for the Penn-sylvania campaign fund.
