LOCAL AND GENERAL.

WHAT WE HAVE LEARNED DURING THE WEEK FROM ALL AVAL-

Able Sources Dished up for Our Numerous Family of Readers in Abbreviated Paragraphs.

For groceries go to Osfield's.

Spectacles and glasses at Piennig's.

M. Hayter, dentist, Wilson building.

Two Dunkard ministers preached in Independence last Sunday.

If interested remember that Pomona grange will meet at Lewisville this evening and tomorrow.

John Emmett, of Monmouth, is in a Portland hospital.

Uriah Beeman and wife have gone to Pendleton, where he has a good position in a hardware store.

See that valuable coupon in the Bee-Hive ad. It will tell you how to get a pretty picture for nothing.

Mr. Helgeson, formerly of Salt Creek, now lives in Lane county, and Mrs. George Berry, of Ballston, has returned from visiting kindred there.

The Independence bank has a capital of $50,000. H. Hirschberg is president, Abram Nelson vice president and C. W. Irvine cashier. The Monmouth bank has a capital of $30,000, and its officers are J. H. Hawley, president, P. L. Campbell, vice president, and Ira C. Powell, cashier.

The road from Brunk's to Salem was never before in so good condition. Grading, gravel and fills instead of small bridges account for it.

SALEM SLIPS.

If you like good things to eat, be sure and patronize the George lunch counter.

Go to G. W. Johnson & Co. for all the things necessary to properly clothe either men or boys. They keep everything you want from foot coverings to headwear. Their prices are the best part of their business, as you find out for yourself by visiting their store and inspecting the figures marking their goods. They only want a fair profit.

You will feel good the balance of the day if you eat your dinner at the Strong restaurant.

The stable at the end of the steel bridge is comfortable, roomy and low priced. It is generally patronized by Polk county people and none of them have yet found cause for complaint. Better go there the next time you are in town.

They are offering bargains in foot-wear and clothing at the New York Racket store. They will also save you money on table linen and napkins. They will supply you useful and serviceable articles suitable for Christmas presents at everyday prices. They are bound to save you money on everything.

Now is the time to have that promised picture taken for your relative or friend, and Tom Cronise is the photographer who can secure your likeness most artistically and true to life. See if he can't. Upstairs over Dalrymple's store.

Go to the hotel Salem when in the city. L. W. Berry, formerly warden at the penitentiary, is proprietor and sets a good table.

The O. K. pharmacy at 333 Commercial street has changed hands. Mr. Ostrander with an experience of 30 years is prepared to compound all prescriptions or household receipts at living prices.

At the grocer and provision house of J. A. Taylor on Court street you can get the highest cash price for your poultry, eggs and butter. He sells things cheap.

Zinn's is the place to get the very finest of dainties. His chocolates and creams will just melt in your mouth. Let him figure with you on Christmas candies, nuts and fruits.

For your Santa Claus has made his headquarters at the Fair Store of O. P. Dabney. Toys for children and nice things for everybody are bristling out everywhere.

DALLAS DOTLERS.

Vanskike & Hughes are now the proprietors of the Pioneer livery stable and solicit the patronage of the riding public. They offer you satisfaction.

Get your shells loaded by Riser, the gun doctor, and luck will perch on your barrel, make your aim true and cause you to bring home much game.

Dunn Bros. have a fine variety of groceries from which to select and their stock of glassware and china is simply unsurpassed within the limits of this county.

You can make no better Christmas presents than of some of the many beautiful articles kept by Mrs. Chase at her millinery emporium in the Collins building.

The proprietors of the meat market on the east side of Main street will make a strong effort to please. They keep meat of every kind and as good as the best.

The new machinery at the Goshen mill produces a superior article of flour and every home in the county should be supplied with it constantly.

THE SILVERSMITH'S CONTRIBUTION TO CHRISTMAS JOLLITY

Old St. Nicholas is just as much of a silversmith as he is a toy builder. Who says that grown folk do not love Christmas remembrances? And what are better calculated to please men or women than the many rich and beautiful trophies of the silversmith's craft scattered all over this store. See those exquisite sterling silver toilet sets, $5 to $40, or those lovely magnificent umbrellas with sterling silver handles $2.25 to $20; or those splendid silver candlesticks of quaint and fanciful design at $3.25 to $10; or those good honest set of solid silver at $6 to $20; or perhaps best of all, those lovely bits of tableware, the embodiment of elegance itself, in sterling silver or triple plate at from 50 cents to $20 a piece. This is the bare skeleton of the picture. Come to the Barr store and drink in the details with your own eyes. Goods we sell are finely engraved free of charge.

BARR'S JEWELRY STORE

Corner State and Liberty streets, Salem. Leaders in Low Prices

Wholesale at Retail

Having three big stores in Marion county and doing an immense business enables us to sell as above. We handle groceries, crockery, granite ware and many other things. Highest cash prices paid for butter, eggs and poultry.

Speer Bros., Salem

STATE STREET

You want, be sure and call for it. Understand.

Examine Faull's cooking ranges and you will pronounce them the very "best what is." His parlor stoves are the best manufactured in the world and he is disposing of them rapidly as the cold weather comes on. There is no better warmer producer than one of those airtight heaters. As to quality and quantity of heavy and shell hardware the stock he carries compares most favorably with that kept by any of the dealers in the larger cities.

You will find elegant presents for either ladies or gentlemen at the jewelry emporium of C. H. Morris, next door to the Uglow brick. Great variety of holiday goods.

They keep fresh up-to-date goods at Dunn's grocery and always sell at fair prices. That is doing a better business than they.

Chas. Baker, proprietor of the Cottage hotel, is figuring on the erection of a 60 room brick hotel on the corner west of it. A well-to-do brother in Kansas has agreed to furnish a part of the necessary funds. As both the present hotels are nearly always full, there is room for a larger and better one.

Under our heading New Today Frank Holman advertised some stock sheep for sale. They soon went and he is still receiving applications. It pays to advertise.

Virgil Massey, a popular college student, has had to give up his studies on account of pressing farm work at his home near Brooks.

Willard Gilbert and wife have moved down from Philomath, and are staying at the Cottage hotel until they can get a residence. He is yard boss at the Dallas saw mill.

J. H. Youkam this week brought up from Coos county 30 young cattle for J. M. Wise at Perrydale.

J. W. Berry, who was warden at the penitentiary under Superintendent Robert Clow, of Dallas, is now proprietor of a hotel in Salem.

W. H. Kimble, of Dallas, has bought the Salem-Silverton mail stage line. The distance is sixteen miles and he is making daily round trips from Silverton.

A Million Voices

Could hardly express the thanks of Homer Hall, of West Point, Ia. Listen why: A severe cold had settled on his lungs, causing a most obstinate cough. Several physicians said he had consumption, but could not help him. When all thought he was doomed he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and writes: "It completely cured me and saved my life. I now weigh 227 lbs." It's positively guaranteed for coughs, colds and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at all druggists.

G. L. Hawkins, in the rear of the Collins building, has on display a number of elegant monuments and tombstones, and is ready to fill all orders in that line.

If you are bothered with rheumatism we probably have a remedy that will probably cure you.

The commission investigating the merits of the great Pennsylvania coal strike are still in session receiving evidence for and against all sides. The outcome will evidently be a compromise of what is asked by the mine owners and the workers. The union miners will not be allowed to force out non union men.

Henry Howe and his son Frank have opened a commission store at Whatcom, Wash., and Sam Elliott is in a Seattle cigar store.

At the agricultural experiment station it has been proven that chopped is better than whole wheat for hogs and that by careful feeding the grain can be made to bring a dollar a bushel in pork. They say that so many farmers sell nearly all their grain at from 50 to 60 cents.

RUTS

The walking sick, what a crowd of them there are! Persons who are thin and weak but not sick enough to go to bed.

"Chronic cases" that's what the doctors call them, which in common English means—long sickness.

To stop the continued loss of flesh they need Scott's Emulsion. For the feeling of weakness they need Scott's Emulsion.

It makes new flesh and gives new life to the weak system.

Scott's Emulsion gets thin and weak persons out of the rut. It makes new, rich blood, strengthens the nerves and gives appetite for ordinary food.

Scott's Emulsion can be taken as long as sickness lasts and do good all the time.

There's new strength and flesh in every dose.

We will be glad to send you a few doses free.

Be sure that this picture in the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion is top.
