THE SUPERIOR.

It is superior in principle and test-ed capacity for feeding any and all kinds of material to be threshed by a separator, either loose or bound. taking off the knives, which will require two or three minutes, it is as well adapted to threshing loose stuff as it is for sheaves. I am ready to test its capacity and quality of work in competition with any other appliance for the same purpose. The contestant must set a first class threshing outlit within 6 or 8 miles of Dal-Los, and have ecough material for half a day or more of test. They are to show their best capacity, quality and quantity of work and the amount power and time required. Then I will set the Superior on the same out-fit and test my $120 feeder against $120 cash to be placed in the hands of someone agreed upon. The said cash is to be paid to me if I am successful in the contest, but if I fail then the other party is to get back his money and my feeder. The contest is to be over the quality and quantity and the time and power required. Each of us is to choose a judge and they t select the third judge. The Superior's capact, in average length of straw is about 7,200 sheaves an hour. It does its work without chogging or unnatural reacting, retarding granding sound from the cylinder, thus proving it to be light on the power, and giv-ing greater assurance of thr shing and cleaning without waste. To introduce the Soperior into the market I offer it to anyone who has a good machine and a season's threshing engaged, with or without pay for one harvest's threshing. If not sold before close of the season, it could then be purchased. Price made known on ap plication to Thomas Elliott, Clay Street, Dallas, Oregon.
