Local buyers are offering 30 cents for good mohair and it is certain that the 40,000lb pool will sell at a still better figure. Nothing can be lost by waiting for the post sale on the 10th of April.

Our second shipment of summer wash goods has arrived and we claim the best line ever brought to town. See our new waists at The Bee-Hive store.

THE VOTE FOR QUEEN

Of the Woodman carnival is not very large for the four days beginning last Saturday ending Wednesday evening, but it has developed the fact that there are rather strong contestants in the field for the coveted honor than those nominated by the several societies. There is talk of still others being put forward by their friends and next week's count may witness an entire change in the leading women. The Rebekah's candidate, Miss Laura Brown, is in the lead on the first count, with Miss Maggie Pomeroy as a close second, and who, by the way, was not consulted in the matter. Her friends hope she will continue in the race, now that she has such a good start. The ladies of Dallas circle will see to it that Mrs. Cherrington and Mrs. Tatom keep well to the front in the matter of votes, and rumor has it that the educational center will throw its votes lively next week for Mrs. Mary Meador. The normal concluded not to put up a candidate of their own, but to endorse her. It is said that Independence has an ideal queen whom they desire to place on the throne.

Here is the list of candidates: Miss Laura Brown, 30; Miss Maggie Pomeroy, 34; Mrs. G. N. Cherrington, 21; Mrs. Anna Dunn, 20; Mrs. May Meador, 7; Mrs. V. P. Fiske, 5; Miss May Aldridge, 5; Miss Ethel Poling, 3; Miss Edith Honck, 1.

The contest for page has not materially developed, but some energetic boys will soon find out what a snip is offered them during the Carnival and go to rindling votes for themselves. Any boy under 12 can be in the race. Watch this vote change next week:

Harry Madison, 24; Maurice Dalton, 2; Herman Hawkins, 1; W. H. Hatton, 1; W. H. Hatton, 1; Wm. Faull, hardware; The Oregon Woodman; C. H. Morris, jeweler; New York Racket store; Guy Brothers, hardware; L. D. Daniel, wall paper; Dunn Grocery company; H. J. Osfield, groceries; Brown's confectionery; F. H. Muscott, confectionery; Walter Williams, confectionery; The Itemizer; F. J. Chapman, furniture.

Three City Elections. On Monday, April 6th, there will be beside the regular election of city officers two other propositions submitted to the voters. One is for or against making payment for and bringing action to condemn the necessary real property, water courses and water and riparian rights and rights of way for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating a water system for the benefit of the city of Dallas against its inhabitants. The other is for or against issuing or disposing of $15,000 interest bearing gold bonds to pay for waterworks and other expenses necessary to secure them. Those matters were voted upon and the city council authorized to secure the construction of city waterworks, but they have thought it best to make some revisions and again submit the whole proposition to popular vote.

Another Pioneer Gone. In 1830 Dr. Nathaniel Hanson came from New York and settled on the place where Andrew Siefert lives and he practiced medicine all over this country. In 1854, he, his brother, Phineas, E. Y. Hallock and Mr. Tuttle erected what has since been known as Hallock's mill. He moved to Bethel and opened a private school among his pupils being ex-Governor Woods and Dr. Rowland. In 1860, he, Professor John Hall, George Hall and L. L. Rowland established Christian college at Bethel. Six years later the school was moved to Monmouth and has become the state normal school. His first wife died in 1857 and five years later he married Miss Lydia Ann Jones, of Bethel. He died last week at the home of his son, Nat, in Baker City, aged 83 years. A younger son, George, was killed during the Philippine war.

Citizens Ticket Nominated. A goodly number of representative citizens of Dallas met at the city hall last night, and with Wm. Grant as chairman and Dan. Stouffer as clerk, nominated without opposition the following ticket: Mayor, J. C. Hayter; auditor, D. P. Stouffer; marshal, J. M. Grant; councilman, first ward, V. Fuller; second ward, W. G. Vassall; third ward, A. B. Muir.

Come this way for old papers for house cleaning and other purposes. Perry Conner, Thomas Woolly and Wm. Yeoman, of Ballston, have each paid $2 for this paper and the Oregonian during the next year.

Thirty ewes with 31 lambs, 12 ewes without lambs, a Hancock disc gang and three tons of good sheat hay for sale by Barton Z. Riggs on the John L. Riggs farm near Ballston.

L. Dies' patent kid shoes with French heels are among the new arrivals at the Bee-Hive store.

H. C. Eskin and wife have enlarged and improved their home.

The sheriff has collected about $65,000 of last year's tax and is still being busy in issuing receipts for tax money deposited in different banks.

COUNTY SEAT MURMURINGS.

The Dallas flouring mill products are equal to the best. Try the hard wheat flour. Everything delivered anywhere in town. Order from the mill.

Judges of good things to eat pronounce Dunn's groceries at the top of the ladder in quality and they cost no more than inferior stuff. It pays to buy the best.

The Wilson drug store ranks among the best in the valley. Manager Staffin sticks close to business and is all ways on the watchout for a real and desirable thing in that line. All well known patent medicines may be had there and all physician's prescriptions are filled with fresh, pure drugs. Oils, paints and varnishes.

The stage will bring any small article from Salem for a dime.

Remedies for all kinds of stock ailments may be had at Ulry's feed store. If you have a sick horse or cure he probably has what will effect a cure. Bran, shorts, hay and flour.

The best place to get a livery team is the stable opposite the postoffice. No one ever yet heard a patron of that place grumble at unfair treatment.

All anglers are glad when the time for trout fishing comes. Mr. Riser on Mill street can supply every want of fisherman as well as of hunters. He needs things.

Judging from the many complimentary things that are being said by the ladies who have recently visited the millinery store of Mrs. Chase she must have an extra attractive spring display.

Perhaps the largest and best assortment of grass and garden seeds in the county is at Faull's hardware store where all sorts of garden and farming implements may also be had. Ask Mr. Faull to suggest the best things along each line. Remember that his tinner, Mr. Nies, can make whatever you want made out of tin or sheet iron.

On wedding and birthday occasions one is often at a loss about getting some appropriate present. Jeweler Morris makes a specialty of providing such articles.

It is getting time to lay aside your heavy footwear until next fall. Maybe you have nothing lighter to take its place. At Gaynor's shoe store they are prepared to meet every want of the kind.

Stock feed of all sorts for sale by A. C. Dimick at the Dallas bridge. Best hay in the market, also oats, bran and chop will be delivered anywhere in town.

Whatever vegetables or fruits can be had in this market will always be found at the Dunn grocery. Farmers can nearly always there dispose of their surplus produce.

SALEM POINTERS.

Spring styles of suits and overcoats may now be had at the old reliable Johnson clothing house. In style, fit and make you can find nothing better, nor will you grumble at the price. Their light top coats please all who see them. Hats that cannot be beat, hosiery in variety and underwear for everybody. Remember the firm name G. W. Johnson & Co.

The new, dry goods department at the New York Racket store is now open and the buying public will be delighted with the attractiveness and cheapness of the goods. Many who have heretofore bought all such things elsewhere will now be sure to patronize Mr. Barnes. New lines, new ribbons and new embroideries.

Schramm's feed yard at the steel bridge catches nearly all Polk county people because of its convenience and the fact that horses are so well treated there.

Many prominent business men at ways take their noon meal at the George lunch counter.

If you want the best pictures to be had in the city, go to the gallery over the Dalrymple store, where Tom Cronin will do his level best to please you and your friends.

Highest price paid at the Capital soap works for bed ticks, goat skins, grease and tallow. They make choice soap and will give you a bargain in exchange for the above things.

The class of people that eat at the Strong restaurant is evidence of its superiority as an eating house.

Many people from across the river who buy all their medicine in Salem get it at the O. K. Pharmacy, which is nearest to the steel bridge feed yard where most of them stop.

OTATORICAL CONTEST.

The local prohibition association oratorical contest will be held in the college chapel Friday evening, April 3rd. The seating will be rearranged to accommodate the largest possible audience, for the admission this year is only 15 cents. Six students will contest for the gold medal and $5 each given. The winner of this contest with 5 other local college winners will contest on May 1st for state championship. This state contest will give $100 for first 3 places and college life and delegations will be very evident on May 1st. At this local contest Dallas will hear orations given by the best orators of the school.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP.

When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a tea spoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed then in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by Wilson Drug Co.

DECLARATION CONTEST.

On the evenings of April 15th, 16th and 17th there will be public school contests for a $10 medal given by C. L. Starr and one of $5 given by the school. There are to be four contestants from each of the seven rooms, they having been chosen because of their excellent scholarship. The first two nights are to select a speaker from each room and on the last night the seven best ones have another trial to show which two deserve the medals. Alice Grant and Freda Lanner, who won the medals last year, will be barred from this contest. The speakers from the different rooms are as follows: Room 1, Ma sel Poling, Vera Wagner, Hattie Gill and Jack Eakin; room 2, Nellie Shaw, Lonisa Rasmussen, Herman Hawkins, Ralph Whitless; room 3, Alice Coulter, Leone Williams, Norma Holman, Leah McDaniel; room 4, Hattie Covert, Homer Dashiell, Wayne Greenwood, Wilis Reynolds; room 6, Alberta Hart, Cordie Goehc, Clarence Reynolds, Minnie Lanner; room 7, Earl Burk, the Cook, Fay Farley, Alice Fuller; room 8, Mary Becker, Elsie Dashiell, Eula Phillips and Earl Shelton.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The Dallas-Willamette game at Salem last Friday night was won by Willamette by the score of 5 to 21. The game in our gymnasium with Willamette will give the score a different aspect, this evening.

The local contest in the chapel April 3rd will be an interesting and instructive affair, as the contestants are each doing his or her best to secure first place.

The Dallas-Chemawa game Saturday night was a victory for our team. The score was 17 to 10, yet the fighting method of the Indians seriously injured, for a few days, one of our guards. The score went against their grain and Indian fashion they played to kill. However some of the management regretted the fooling done by their own members.

Mohair Growers Warning.

Some buyers having their own interests more in view than those of goatmen are trying to persuade the latter to keep their wool out of the pool. Their object is to break up the pool and then pick up scattered lots at their own price. By the pool arrangement and active competition among buyers who are anxious for big lots our mohair is sure to bring the highest possible price. Those who allow themselves to be persuaded to keep out of the pool will be apt to regret it. Remember that the pool sale will occur in Dallas, Friday, April 10th. H. L. FENTON, secretary Mohair association.

Sunday School Convention.

There will be a quarterly Sunday school convention at Lewisville next Sunday. At 10:30 there will be a general review of the lessons and then before noon Mrs. Rose Smith will illustrate a primary lesson on the blackboard. After a good basket dinner Rev. T. P. Haynes will speak about the qualifications of a good teacher and M. M. Jones will tell the story of Sunday school conventions. Rev. Lindsey will treat of the Bible in before noon.
