State Oratorical Contest.

It will occur in Dallas this Friday evening. Seven colleges and a univer sity will send orators to take from our orator the $100 in cash prizes. Wil tney take more than two prizes? No Eli Perkins about this. The orators here will be the very best from their colleges and big delegations will come to cheer their favorites. The maids from Monmouth, Albanys athletics and admirers and the quakers from Newberg would alone capture the big audience. As we have no room large agh for all who will wish to attend it will be important to go early. Because of the big expense the regular four children, Mrs E G. Stinit, Mrs. social to Friday evening may end state prices, 50 and 35 cents, will be Ida Woodward, Vincent and Martha The following literary programme will excel a week Thompson, five grand children and necessary; but as it will excel a week of 25 cent attractions, the church is two great grand children. of 25 cent attractions, the church is sure to be crowded. An $8 Youth's Suit for $5

HOW'S THAT? Well it's this way: Some remnant pieces of cloth at the woolen mill, not enough for a shipment, yet sufficient to make a few suits, were made up into youths' suits, sizes 14 to 19, and we now put them on sale at $5 and $7.50, lines that are regularly worth $8 and $10. Our stock of youths suits comprises black clays and unfinished worsteds, blue serges and cheviots, and light, medium and dark patterns in Salemmade cassimers, cheviots and tweeds. They are the kind that does not fade out and look shabby after a few weeks use, and they are put together for boys' wear, too-you know what that means. We have a full assortment of childrens' suits, ages 3 to 16, in all patterns and prices.

Several shipments of mens' suits

We are now better prepared than ever for the suit seekers of Salem and surrounding country. One feature in our suits we would empha size: They are not cut with a bucksaw, in other words they are cut to fit. Then, too, if you are especially a , or vice versa, ve have suits especially adapted to your build. Slim suits for long, have rellows, and stout suits for short, stocky men. Then if you have any other peculiarities in your physical construction, we have our own tailors, an equipment not possessed by any other clothing dealers in this entire section of Oregon. These facts together with the values we give and the eptodateness of our wares, explain why we lead in the clothing
