ONE NIGHT TREATMENT

Soak the hands on retiring in a strong, hot, creamy lather of Cuticura Soap. Dry and anoint freely with Cuticura Dry and anoint freely with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure and purest of emollients. Wear, during the night, old, loose kid gloves, or bandage lightly in old, soft cotton or linen. For red, rough and chapped hands, dry, fissured, itching, feverish palms, with brittle, shapeless nails and painful finger ends, this treatment is simply wonderful, fre-quently curing in a single application. In no other way have Cuticura Soap and Ointment demonstrated their aston-ishing curative properties more effec-tually than in the treatment of the hands, especially when tortured with hands, especially when contured with stching, burning and scaly eczema. Complete local and constitutional treatment for every humour of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, may now be had for one dollar. Bathe may now be had for one dollar. Bathe freely with hot water and Cuticura Sonp, to cleanse the surface of crusts and seales, and soften the thickened cutiele. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflam-mation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take the Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool and cleanse the blood. This treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning and scaly humours, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure of torturing, disfiguring humours from infancy to age, when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

It is many years since the United States government has bothered with the nuking of roads. Years ago, when Henry Clay lived, he was a great friend of good roads. Through his intervention the government built the national road from Cumberland, Md., almost to St. Louis.

Since then the building of railroads has caused wagon roads to receive less attention. Their day, however, is coming, thanks to the automobile and the rural mail delivery system. The trouble is that while many communities desire good roads few know how to build smartly or even neatly. They have acquired the art of dress, but not the still more subtle art of dressing. Puritanism dies hard in what has been termed our "great mediocracy." Even if money is abundant there is a rooted feeling that "true plety" can only be expressed by dowdiness. Dowdyism is a disease and a drady one. It has its chief seat in the head (inside and out-side) and in the neck, and is also the feeling that "true piety" can only be result of our too faithful fondness for old and shabby clothes.

To escape it one must avoid the Scylla of an untidily, unfashionably dressed head and the Charybdis of a badly arranged neck. A smart woman has all her gowns made at home, and yet she is never a dowdy. And why? Because she knows how to put them on. Her hair is well done, her neck smartly swathed, and her veils, gloves, shoes and boots are always fresh and per fect of their kind. Dowdies are born, not made An undue humility has much to answer for. The typical "woman of no importance" soon goes to pieces on the rock of dowdyism. A few gowns, but many accessories, are an antidote to this dread disease.

ULCERS sores, and this resemblance often proves fatal. Valuable time is lost in fruitless efforts to heal the sore with washes and salves, because the germs of Cancer that are multiplying in the blood and the new Cancer cells which are constantly develop-ing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains sunce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, sickening cancerous sore begins its destructive work. No ulcer or sore can exist with-out some predisposing internal cause that has poisoned the blood, and the open discharging ulcer, or the fester-ing sore on the lip, check or other part of the body will continue to spread and eat deeper into the flesh unless the blood is purified and the Caucer germs or morbid matter eliminated from the circulation.

Cancer germs or morbid matter eliminated from the circulation

S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all decaying effete matter. It has great antidotal and purifying properties that soon destroy the germs and poisons and restore the blood to its natural condition. AN OBJECT LESSON ROAD [The good and bad side by side.]

o I. E. Conner, the above-named defendant: IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF made only nine feet wide. The road

road tax not only the particular duty

The National Good Roads association favors the building of roads under the direction of practical engineers and men trained in the science of roadbuilding.

The association contends that the appropriation for the building of reads should be as great as that for the development of rivers and harbors. Many of our citizens obtain no advantage from the rivers and harbors, while they are compelled to use roads all the time-roads, too, the association states, that are mud in winter and dust in summer. The association favors the building of a national thoroughfare across the country at the expense of the government, with the understanding that the lateral roadways be built at the expense of the state. The township high school, the rural mail delivery system and the automobile are looked upon by the association as the most potent factors in the gaining of good roads. Children must have good roads or they cannot go to school: good roads must be built for the mail carriers or Uncle Sam won't let them deliver the mail: automobile owners must have good roads or they will get after the legislators. If the legislators are got after, then good roads are sure to come.
