Attempted Postoffice Robbery.
About 9 o'clock Christmas evening, Deputy Postmaster Toner had occasion to go back to the office and he approached the outer door a man scampers away and when he was inside another bounced out of the back window. Striking a light he found a brace and a sharp-edged chisel lying on the floor and an old overcoat hanging against the wall, but no damage had been done. Perhaps within another hour the safe would have been blown open and the contents taken. Marshal Grant was called and began to search for suspicious persons. Two penniless young strangers were arrested at the saloon but were released next morning, there being no evidence against them. The marshal thinks he knows the man

NEW YEAR AT SALEM.
The steel bridge feed yard had a very gratifying patronage during the past year and its proprietor will aim to deserve a still better trade the coming year.

It is never the wrong time to have the picture of yourself and family taken. If you put it off until spring some of them may be under the sod.

One of the certainties is that both you and your loved ones must pass away and it would not be out of place to now talk about where the burial goods should come from. Inquire about the reliability of Coroner Clough.

The George lunch counter people propose to set out better things than ever this year.

Overcoats for both men and boys can now be had at 25 per cent discount at the New York K. cket. Dolls games, books, pictures and dressing cases are going at exactly half price. If you need any of those things go at once.

Not desiring to carry over any winter goods Johnson & Co. the clothing, are making a special reduction that will be sure to take the goods away provided you want anything of the kind. They no longer ask profit on such things. Ready money and more room for spring goods is their great object now.

NEW YEAR AT DALLAS.
The Gaylor footwear emporium continues to be one of the best places in the valley to get shoes, slippers or rubber goods. Everything of high grade and at moderate prices.

You can now get many books at Wilson's drugstore at greatly reduced prices, and some other things intended for the holiday season may be had at cost. All kinds of standard articles in the drug line can be had there cheap as anywhere else in the state. It would pay to pass Wilson's for such things.

Dunn Bros., the grocery men, began the year with a keener ambition than ever to be leaders in their line. They are fast winning additional trade by doing the fair thing.

Consult with Marble Cutter Hawkins if you are thinking of having some cemetery work done. He has a fine stock of marble on hand and never fails to do satisfactory work.

Wm. Faull has had a very satisfactory trade as a hardware merchant and is already figuring on still more. As our population increases his opportunities enlarge and he branches out to grasp them. You will always find Mr. Faull at the head of the procession of enterprising hardwaremen. Always go there for anything in that line.

Newcomers who want substantial furniture at moderate prices are nearly always advised to go to Kerslake's store on Main street.

Remember that you can get a first-class article of flour at the Dallas mill for only $3.50 a barrel delivered anywhere in town.

The Salem stage always connects with the California bound train.

No matter what you want in the millinery line Mrs. Chase can supply it. Trimmed hats and some other things she is disposing of at cost to be sure to make room for spring goods.

Morris the jeweler, has been more than pleased with his holiday trade, and so are those who bought new articles there. He has a big supply of goods that are always reasonable.

As a gun and locksmith Mr. Bissler has no superior. His ammunition is the best made and he does a big business mending things for everybody.

A Stimulus to The Imagination

Sit at your own fireside, trying to figure out what you will give him or her for Christmas and you will find it a tantalizing puzzle. But wander about in the Barr store and your imagination will be wonderfully stimulated. You cannot help finding dozens of delightful things just suited to the purpose. Oats, nuts of handsome, refined, tasty tyfifiers of regard that will honor both he who gives and he who takes. Any number of novel forms and fashions in jewelry, articles of personal adornment, such as rings, pins, brooches, lockets, charms and the like, have been gotten in specially for Christmas, and the new silver and cut glass is equally notable, to say nothing of many other Christmas lines well worth seeing.

Barr's Jewelry Store

Corner State and Liberty Streets, Salem.

Oregonian or Journal.
Either the weekly Oregonian or the semi-weekly Portland Journal can be had together with this paper a whole year for only $2. Intelligent young people would receive educating influences from them, to say nothing of their benefit to older persons. Money paid out for good reading matter is always well spent. Every family should have several good newspapers, especially during the coming long winter evenings. Please tell your neighbors and friends of the above offer.

Miss Hallie Wilson has a music class at Greenwood.

Don't forget the old man with the fish on his back.

For nearly thirty years he has been traveling around the world, and is still traveling, bringing health and comfort wherever he goes.

To the consumptive he brings the strength and flesh he so much needs.

To all weak and sickly children he gives rich and strengthening food.

To thin and pale persons he gives new firm flesh and rich red blood.

Children who first saw the old man with the fish are now grown up and have children of their own.

He stands for Scott's Emulsion of pure cod liver oil—a delightful food and a natural tonic for children, for old folks and for all who need flesh and strength.
