Scottish Rite Masons.
It is their custom to meet and have a good time on Thursday before Easter. Last Thursday evening there gathered at our Masonic lodge A. J. Richardson and wife, of Buena Vista, Dr. Butler and wife, Dr. Locke and wife, Joe Hirschberg, Miss Huff, and Mrs. Habbitt, of Independence, J. V. B. Butler and wife, of Monmouth, Prof Metzger and wife, Dr. Hayter and wife, C. F. Bell and wife, E. C. Kirkpatrick and wife, W. R. Craven, Oscar Hayter, Miss Fuller, R. E. Williams, Miss Simonten. After a general social hour they repaired to Hotel Gail, where a generous spread awaited them and in connection with it there was a mixture of wit, humor and wisdom. Oscar Hayter served as toast master and there were responses by Mrs. Dr. Butler, Prof. Metzger and J. B. V. Butler.
Fuller's new livery stable east of the city hall is a good place to leave your team while in town. He will treat you right and feed your horses well.
The mohair pool to be sold here next Friday is expected to aggregate 40,000 pounds. Last year it brought 38 cents, but hardly so much is expected this time. Our goats wool stands second to none in the land.
G. E. Payne is to have a public sale near Buell next Tuesday.
