 President Lee of Albany college will preach at the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning and evening.
 Rev. Willard Elkins, of Strouton, will preach at the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening.
 Believe not ugly things said about candidates until you have proof of them. Vote for no man of bad habits.
 Cornelius Hughes will occupy his present shoe shop until his new one, next to the Lynch blacksmith is completed.
 Democrats, every one of you remember that you cannot vote unless registered before five o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The ladies like Hazelwood ice cream and the men like to please the ladies. It should be your play to buy Hazelwood ice cream at Roys confectionery.
 Randolph Metcalph, advance agent for Faust, has arranged to produce it here, May 17 and will show Capital and Labor next evening. Street parade at noon each day.
 Dr. Hayter has put cement sidewalks around two sides of his home property at a cost of $140 which is about four times what wooden ones would have cost but it is there forever.

The athletic meet here last Saturday was largely attended and the different events hotly contested. The McMinnvillians defeated our boys by only a scratch. When the Dallas lads get a little older and have had more practice, they will come out on top.
 The Teachers annual picnic will be held at Rickreel May 21. The forenoon will be devoted to school exercises and after dinner there will be an address by Prof. Hawley of Salem and ball games. A strong effort is being made to make it an interesting occasion.
 The cantata, Queen Esther, was given here Friday and Saturday evenings before good audiences, the receipts being $144. Nearly all the characters were well sustained and the costumes were quite attractive. About 100 girls took part in a variety of well rendered and pleasing drills and evolutions. The choruses were fine and some of the characters gave evidence of superior talent. Lack of space forbids a more detailed account. Cherrington & Savage, of Salem, kindly loaned a piano for the occasion.

 Bishop Hartzler will preach this evening in the college chapel. On Sunday he will preach morning and evening and will address the Christian association of the college at 3 o'clock. This will complete his tour of the conference and he goes back to his eastern home.
 There is not a better or more complete line of groceries in the county than is carried by T. A. Riggs. His canned goods cannot be beat and his teas and coffees are very fine. Country produce wanted in exchange. His bakery products are fresh and good.
 The Stiles harness shop has been moved partly in the street and a new one will be erected on its site. It was built nearly fifty years ago and has been put to various uses. The old livery stable south of it has been torn down and a larger and better one is being built by R. E. Williams. Next to it L. V. Lynch will put up a new blacksmith, also a shoe shop for Cornelius Hughes. The brick wall of the Kirkpatrick building in the same block are going up. The public scales have been moved from south of the court house to across the street from Wagner's shop.

Find out which candidates will be supported by saloon keepers and their friends and vote for the other man for a more going man will make a trustworthy officer. Of all men a sheriff should be free of bad habits and evil associations. The worst men everywhere drift to saloons.
 Capt. Skinner's new boat to ply between Independence and Salem has been finished and is expected to begin making regular trips next week. Salem merchants are to buy $500 worth of tickets to help the project.
 Doubtless many of the tickets will be given to Polk county people who patronize and merchants.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Scott's Emulsion is the means of life and of the enjoyment of life of thousands of men, women and children.
 To the men Scott's Emulsion gives the flesh and strength so necessary for the cure of consumption and the repairing of body losses from any wasting disease.
 For women Scott's Emulsion does this and more. It is a most sustaining food and tonic for the special trials that women have to bear.
 To children Scott's Emulsion gives food and strength for growth of flesh and bone and blood. For pale girls, for thin and sickly boys Scott's Emulsion is a great help.

Good Health to the Children

Children especially are fond of dainties, and the housekeeper must look carefully to their food.
 As good cake can be made only with good eggs, so also a cake that is healthful as well as dainty must be raised with a pure and perfect baking powder.
 Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in the preparation of the highest quality of food. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, doughnuts, crusts, etc., and what is more important, renders the food wholesome and agreeable to young and old.

Adler's Famous Tailor-Made Suits
 Extra values at $9, $10, $12.50, $13.50, $14, $15, and $18.50

OUR Spring Sack Suits are not of the ordinary character. You see a group of them here. There is a certain nobbiness in these "Adler" clothes that appeals to every stylish man. These are decidedly "young men's clothes" They have dash—you'd admire your own appearance if you wore one.

Dallas Ice Works.
 The building is finished and a set of experts from Portland are installing the machinery. The owners, Marks & Fiddler will soon be distributing the frozen article in our own and neighboring towns. They can turn out about six tons per day, it to be made from pure Canyon creek water. They will keep on storage and for sale a variety of sodas and mineral waters. Independence, Monmouth and Falls City can get it twice a day within less time than an hour of the time it leaves here. As soon as the warm days come all hands will want their drinks cooled with ice.
Pool Your Wool.
 Past experience has shown that it pays best to pool both wool and mohair. Both last year and this our goat men got above the market price by pooling. All sheep men should at once join the wool growers association and enter the pool. Its agents are S. M. Daniel at Monmouth, E. E. Paulson at Independence, H. L. Pen-ton at Dallas, D. L. Keyt at Perrydale, John Hill and J. K. Sears at McCoy, Independence, Monmouth and Falls City. They will furnish sacks free and charge half a cent a pound for handling. Notify nearest agent of the number of fleeces you can deliver him. Newton is ready to buy but advises all to join the pool.
