Steele-Kerr Wedding.

daughter of Mrs. Mary Kerr was married to Edward Steele by Rev. r. C. Thompson. While Velena Fuque played the wedding march the young couple advanced and stood unattended, under a bell trimmed with orange flowers and calla lillies, in a lovely bower of lice and flowers. The room was tastefully decorated with rose, long sprays of Oregon grape and ferns The bride was attired in white mouse line de soie, trimmed with satin rib bon and valenciennes lace and carried a boquet of bridal roses. The groom impressive ceremony and congratulations the thirty four guests partock of a delicious dinner. The happy Partland and The Dalles, where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will be at home to their friends on a farm near Suver There was a long list of beautiful and useful presents which will give them a fine start at housekeeping.
