LOCAL AND GENERAL.

WHAT WE HAVE LEARNED DURING THE WEEK FROM ALL AVAL-

Able Sources Dished up for Our Numerous Family of Readers in Abreasted Paragraphs.

For groceries go to O-field's.

M. Hayter, dentist, Wilson building. When you want either fir or oak grub wood see T. A. Riggs about it.

Mrs. Mary C. Gagan is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Morrison, of Eugene.

A Champion binder at a ridiculous low price at Guy Bros. A snap if you are quick.

W. H. Roy and his brother Charlie and their families are off in the Fish Lake country.

Evan Evans of Parker has leased John Hastings 420 acre farm at Allie for five years.

Nex Dale and wife have been up Sheridan, visiting his mother and brother Homer.

Those desiring to furnish us wood on subscription will please bring this soon as they can.

The Antioch Sunday school will have appropriate childrens day exercises next Sunday.

Thanks to J. B. Nunn for some fine Logan berries. He cannot near fill the demand for them.

Vine Pearce who was raised in the Eola hills has been made deputy sheriff of Yamhill county.

C. F. Hobart who used to have a sawmill and traction railroad here has just sold out at Netarts and gone to California.

President Poling and family are now in their old eastern home and are already longing for the cool Pacific coast breezes.

Miss Millie Doughty who is a teacher in the Ashland normal school is spending the summer with her mother in Monmouth.

August magazines at Meiers. All the late popular magazines and books can be had there. Subscriptions taken for any periodical.

Eight hands are now working at the Dallas foundry. Many new hop stoves are going out and they have about forty hop presses ready for sale.

We sold several stoves last week at special prices. The coming week will see us moving. You had better get a range of us at once and save money — Guy Bros.

C. H. McArthur, of Rickreall, has been to Baker City, where his father, Judge McArthur, founded a newspaper in 1870 and was circuit judge for several years.

The prune crop around here will be very slim. It is probable that the output of H. S. Butz, J. B. Nunn and H. G. Campbell will be dried at the plant of E. H. Hibbard.

Claud Lynch has returned from Salem where he was in a hospital having his amputated foot cared for. He is getting along nicely and don't feel half as bad as some folks imagine.

A dozen saloon keepers were arrested in Salem last Monday for keeping their drams open on Sunday. A state law positively says that all saloons shall remain closed on that day.

The recently elected Sunday school officers at Antioch are W. H. Mack, superintendent; Allen Towne, assistant; Alice Mack, secretary, and Katie Towne, organist with Dolly Guthrie as assistant.

An unknown man was seen to jump from the steel bridge at Salena and drowned before he could be rescued Monday. After 24 hours it was discovered to be J. A. Rota, a well known Salem furniture dealer.

Miss Britie McDevitt who is a trained nurse in Portland has been among her Dallas friends and to her Mrs. W. P. Greasy of South Bend, Wash. Her sisters Lorene and Pearl Uglow have gone home with her.

CONTINUE

Those who are gaining flesh and strength by regular treatment with

should continue the treatment in hot weather; smaller dose and a little cool milk with it will do away with any objection which is attached to fatty products during the heated season.

Sold for free sample, SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409-415 Pearl Street, New York. 25c. and 50c. all druggists.

COUNTY COURT.

PROBATE.

Chas. E. F. J. Judge.

Report of sale of real property of the McMillan estate was set for hearing Jan. 22.

Chas. Black, Harry Gaylor and Ed Dunn have gone to their claims up on the Yamhill river.

People are already flocking to the coast and the mountains. Many from Dallas and vicinity will go later on.

One Champion binder left and must be sold at once on account of room. Your own price and terms at Guy Bros.

Wm. Garbutt and J. A. Covert and their cream to Falls City and that of Mr. Arndt and Nachtingal goes to Portland.

After many weeks of drought it became raining yesterday morning. It will do some good, though most vegetation is beyond help.

Mark Embree and his grandson, Arthur, have gone to Newport to camp and feast on clams and rock oyster until hop picking.

Attorney Hart and Merchant Riggs have been attending court at Toledo, where the chitlin bark case of Riggs vs. Hall was compromised.

The two year old child of Oliver Dennis and wife, of Oskalee, was operated on for strangulated hernia in a Latham hospital last week.

Thos. Osborn, a brother of Mrs. Cecelia Hughes, of Dallas, and Rev. J. W. Osborn, of Independence, died recently at Red Bluff, Cal.

Chas. McDevitt, H. C. Eskin, H. E. Kizer, George Haasgood, Harry and Claude Dunn have gone to look after their mining interests over in the Cascade mountains.

Wm. Dodson, of Salmon river has brought suit for divorce from his wife who was a Miss Harris and Ralph, son of Judge B. M. Smith, of Portland, has separated from his wife.

Mrs. Anna Coad is visiting in Portland, and Miss Ethel Rowell and Claudia Coad are spending a couple of weeks with their aunt, Mrs. J. B. Stump, near Monmouth.

Mrs. Pearl Shaw, Mrs. Pauline Will and Mrs. Georgia Chapman are going to camp near the Hallock mill, and F. J. Chapman will again go to try the merits of the hot springs in Union county.

Commissioners Riggs and Riddell have spent two days this week looking after road matters in the south part of the county. Nobody doubts that they will aim to do what is best for all concerned.

W. I. Bryan says that though not pleased with the national democratic platform he will support Mr. Parker. He says that by and by he and his friends will try to make the democratic party more subservient to the interests of the common people.

H. L. Fenton, Frank Gilliam, his wife and his mother have gone to B-Knap Springs, where the boys will hunt and the ladies otherwise enjoy themselves for a season.

In the meantime Mrs. Fenton and Carl will spend a month at Newport.

The Chautauqua association has opened a two weeks session at Gladstone. Over 1000 persons are already camping there and the attendance is expected to be larger than ever before.

Beside being healthful and restful the occasion offers many educational advantages.

There were six applicants for the courthouse janitorship, just vacated by Mill Woods. Andrew Trent from East Tennessee, who was a soldier in the Philippines for two years, was given the position and the indications are that he will fill the position to the satisfaction of everybody.

The laws of Washington forbid saloons being open on Sunday. The saloon men of Vancouver monkeyed with the law, were arrested, pleaded guilty, was fined $50 in the district court. A few doses of such medicine will cause those who are mainly instrumental in making drunks to fear and observe the Sunday liquor laws.

Kirkpatrick's fine new brick building is about completed. The Huh Clothing company has moved into it and are getting everything fixed up in fine shape. Their first new show case, that of most heretofore, has been found in and in connection with Taylor Dunn will welcome everybody and sell them the very best of goods at moderate prices.

The finishing touches are being made on the addition to the Cottage hotel. There is a wide porch the full length of the house and a veranda above it with a strong iron railing and the rooms are large and airy. The office in the northwest corner is commodious and well arranged. The owner W. C. Brown and the proprietor, J. S. Talbot have cause to be proud of their hotel.

The Lewis & Clark fair commission are aiming to collect a complete exhibit of Oregon products, they propose to pay half the exhibit in each county. As Mrs. Wolfe is already collecting a competitive exhibit for this lecturing and as the county court are desisting her in the expense it is not probable that the county would make an additional outlay of one-half the expense of a general exhibit. But it is advised that citizens generally should liberally supply said commission with such things as they may call for.

The National democratic convention at St. Louis, was long drawn out and replete with exciting scenes and situations. Shrewd and brilliant minds repeatedly clashed in one interest and another, unity and harmony being impossible. The financial plank was left out of their platform but as soon as Mr. Parker was nominated he proclaimed himself a gold standard man. At first many thought it unwise but now all agree that it was the proper thing. His running mate is Senator Davis, of West Virginia. Both are grand good men and very few democrats will vote against them.

SOME SALEM SHOTS.

Gilliam & Johnson, livermen, describe the patronage of all Polk county people.

And so should everybody from across the river take lunch at the George restaurant.

The best summer clothing for men and boys is to be found at the Johnson establishment near the Capital National bank. George Johnson has been buying for the firm for many years and knows what is best for his customers. The quality, the fit, the style and the service of every garment is guaranteed to be satisfactory.

The New Idea dress patterns are the best now to be had and you can get any one of a great variety for only 10 cents. For a nickel you can get the New Idea Magazine at the New York Booklet store. It is handsomely illustrated with colored plates and has many features that will greatly please the ladies.

Fuchs' bakery north of the courthouse must be a good one judging from the amount of things sold. The proprietor learned his trade perfectly and the public are now getting the benefit of it.

Mrs. Metzger's busy season lasts the year through for ladies and their children are constantly needing the furnishing goods she carries. See her variety of fancy adornments.

The Fuller livery barn has no superior in the county. He keeps his rigs and teams in such order that his patrons are always pleased with what they get there.

At the marble works of G. L. Hawkins may be found something with which to mark the resting places of your loved ones.

What you order by the Salem stage any morning you will get that evening.

There is room for great deception in buying when as you must trust greatly to the honor of the merchant. The Gagners have never learned to misrepresent footwear.

Now that nearly everybody is getting to using ice many inquiries are being made about means of storing it and tools to be used in connection with it. Hardwareman Faulk has ordered a supply of such things and will soon have what you may want. Hop house men are having much pipping done there.

The plumbers and tinner Vaughn & Weaver have all the orders they can fill. See them about your guttering and roofing. If your pump is out of order they can soon make it as good as new.

Horse medicine and poultry remedies for sale at Castle's feed store. He has chopped grains that are the very thing for little chicks. His meat mixed with their feed will make your hens thrifty.
