Great variety of canned goods of the best quality. Highest grades of teas and coffees. Great variety of table wares. Produce wanted in exchange.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: The medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cents. Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York, will mail it.

DALLAS DILETTES.

Martin & Blodgett have all kinds of lumber for sale at a low price at their yard near the city park. Joe Blodgett will show you the goods. They beat going to a mill for it.

Many consider Cal Hutton the best blacksmith in town. When it comes to shoeing a horse or repairing a plow he is hard to beat, and at general blacksmithing he is not slow.

You would have to go out of the county to get better furniture bargains than you can get at Kerslake's, where all sorts of new goods are constantly arriving.

A variety of saws and all kinds of cutting tools at Kiser's gun store. New sunshades on sale or old ones covered or repaired. Have him sharpen your saws and other cutting tools. Ammunition headquarters.

Plumbing of all kinds including sewerage connections done by Vaughn & Weaver, who knows all about that business. Talk to them about installing your bath tub.

West, the livery stable man, is proving a success here because he understands his business and sticks close to it. Such men are almost sure to please patrons.

As a jeweler C. H. Morris has few equals and no superiors in these parts. His repairing always stands the test of time. If your clock is contrary he will make it new.

Castle's feed store opposite the Stike business shop is headquarters for everything needed by stock or poultry. He has remedies for all the ailments to which they are subject.

The stage to Salem connects with the eleven o'clock train going south.

At the Hawkins marble shop near the depot are many fine monuments in process of preparation to adorn the sleeping places of loved ones.

You will miss it by not going to the Wilson drug store for what you need in that line. Their patent medicines are only such as have borne the test of repeated trials, and they keep only the very best drugs for common ailments and prescriptions. Their patent ink and stationery are of the good kinds. They have the very purest liquors for medicinal purposes.

The new barber shop opposite the Methodist church, is neat, cool and comfortable. Give Mr. Davis a trial at your hair or beard and you will feel inclined to go there again.

The Gaynors deal in nothing but footwear but are at the top of the ladder in that business. If they cannot suit you in shoes you will have to send to Portland.

The ladies and childrens' furnish goods emporium of Mrs. Metzger near the post-office, is a very popular place with the ladies all around because she keeps so much they want.

Frank Fuchs, the Mill street baker, is doing a slashing good business because he has them. A better baker never struck this town. More bakery products than ever before are now being used in Dallas.

The very next time you have occasion to use a livery team go to Fuller's barn next to the city hall. We are sure that you will be pleased with both team and buggy.

It pays to buy granite ware instead of tin because the former lasts so much longer. See the attractive array of such things at Paul's. And too it pays to buy a first-class stove or range and he has them. Very low priced tools seldom gives satisfaction. He handles the better kind. B-pipe and wire for everything.

Preaching at college chapel by Prof. Whitley next Sunday morning and evening.

Persons who have work by which college students can earn their board or money for part of their expenses will confer a great favor by giving notice to Prof. C. T. Whitley at north end of railroad street.

WANTED—A young or middle aged woman from the country to learn the printer's trade. Must be without encumbrances and fairly educated. I want good wages to the right party. Address Oregon Woodman, Dallas.

Low Rates to California.

The Triennial Conclave Knights Templar will be held at San Francisco September 5th to 9th, and the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be held at the same point Sept. 19th to 25th. For these occasions the Southern Pacific Co. will place in effect the extremely low rate of one and one third fare for the round trip, not to exceed $25, the rate from Portland. Those who are planning a trip to California should take note of these rates.

TRADE IN SALEM.

You cannot do better than to go to the George Lunch counter when you get hungry.

Straw and crash hats for half price and one half off on hammocks at the New York Racket Store, where the ladies can get any September pattern for 10 cents. Good hop pickers gloves very cheap. The very best shoes you can get for the money. They have everything for the whole family.

Have you seen Johnson's serge hats and knee pants suits for boys. Go and see what they will do for you in the way of shirts. Their mens shoes are of top notch quality and cheap enough. Hats to please everybody and the same in neckwear. All light weight goods at your own price to make room for fall and winter wear.

Sixteen Years Ago.

From the Itiner of August 19th 1888 we note that J. J. Daly and Warren Truitt were then practicing law here, that Jasper Miller was a druggist, that Eugene Hayter had bought C. G. Coad's stock of goods, that Charlie Gibbons and Jimmie Lawton were barbers, that Wm. Savage was president and M. M. Ellis cashier of the Dallas bank, Dave Burns was then running a livery stable and so was L. D. Mulkey, T. C. Bell was principal of the LaCreole academy and Miss Pauline Maddox the music teacher. Z. F. Vaughn was selling jewelry, and Andrew McDaniel was running the warehouse. Nathan Comer of Salt Creek had just died and Mrs. Crystal was preparing to move to California. L. W. McAdams was teaching at Ballston and Elder Messick was preaching at Independence.

Baptist Church Notes.

Pastor Green will preach at Bridgeport next Sunday morning and at Liberty at 3 o'clock. Rev. J. B. Thompson filling his pulpit here. Their prayer meetings are largely attended and their Sunday school attendance runs up to nearly 100. The church is to be repaired and repainted and a large shed will be erected for wood and to shelter teams during the rainy season. The chapel car Immanuel now in California will be here in October for a ten days meeting. The congregation are figuring on buying the South Methodist church if it can be had low enough and selling their property for a business location, they having already had offers. The noise of the evening train has proved very annoying to their services and they wish a more quiet location.

Mrs. Dan Syron and daughter with Charlie Syron and family are visiting the Morrises on Rock Creek.
