A bill has been introduced into the legislature making the city recorder and marshal of Dallas appointive by the mayor. The matter is being widely discussed the almost unanimous sentiment being against it. The people prefer to decide those things themselves instead of putting so much power into the hands of any one man. There is too much of a tendency for a few persons to control everything. Trusts and the like are wrong in principle and almost invariably are oppressive. No one man power for Dallas.

The Y. M. C. A. Bible Study Institute held here last Sunday was an enormous success in every sense of the word. Although the number of delegates present was only about half that were expected. The Peak Sisters, supposed to be from Alaska, covered themselves all over with glory at the city hall Wednesday evening. They proved to be ten local old maids, ugly as sin but sharp as tacks. They were dressed outlandishly fine and all their movements were unlike anything you ever saw before. The sisters present thought it was the funniest concern they ever saw and the saints could not help smiling and saying amen. They repeated the dose before a delighted audience at Falls City last night.

People Believe in It. It has been cynically said that anything can be sold by advertising many days. This is not so. Many medicines have been advertised but only one—Perry Davis' Painkiller—has stood the test of sixty years use. To day its popularity is greater than ever and is based not upon what anybody says but upon what the remedy does. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis.

"SAVED MY LIFE"

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label on the wrapper of every bottle of Scott's Emulsion is yours.

THE Bee-Hive Store

DALLAS - OREGON

DALLAS BUSINESS.

The Salem store does a big traffic business and is always ready to fill orders.

Gaynor's exclusive shoe store knows the needs and desires of this community and is always prepared to meet them. Everything of the very best quality and at fair prices.

No matter what you may want in the drugstore line it can be found at Wilson's. New things are continually being displayed in their show windows. The most popular medicines always in stock. Good books of many kinds and a great variety of writing material.

Do not order cemetery work from any outsider until after you have had a talk with G. L. Hawkins, the Dallas marble cutter. He can please you.

When you want to know anything about firearms or ammunition go to Bissler's gun store. His opinion is worth more than that of anybody else in the county.

Every train brings new goods to Fawcett's hardware store to replace what he is continually selling out. The place is not so much noted for cheapness as for high grade goods. As soon as anything becomes second grade he discards it for something better. See his granite ware and compare the old kind with the new. His axes are hard to beat.

Sam Ray's feed store is the place to get everything for your horses, cows and poultry. He has stuff to make hens lay. No better flour in the market than he carries.

Fuchs's bakery turns out such good bread and pastry that many families who never before used bakers' goods are now regular patrons of his shop. Have you tried his cream bread.

Go to the Morris jewelry store and you will always find him waiting on customers, cleaning clocks or watches or mending articles of jewelry. He gives satisfaction.

The Mill street feed store firm of Houser & Hughes are building up a nice trade by treating people right. Bran, shorts and hay in any quantity desired.

When you want a livery team you want a good one, and you prefer to deal with an accommodating liveryman. Then go to the stable just east of the city hall.

SALEM SUGGESTIONS.

Whoever buys on credit helps to pay bad debts. As the Barnes cash store trusts nobody, it makes no bad debts. Light expenses, big volume of trade and no losses enable them to undersell any regular store. Their goods and prices will bear close inspection and comparison.

Johnsons, the clothiers, have long been and continue to be leaders in their line. Their experience for years has convinced them that toward the close of a season it is best to sell off very close even if they make not a cent. Everything is going at a big discount and many articles at half price. All winter goods are included in their clearance sale.

Many legislators say that the meals at the George lunch counter are good enough for them.

Coming, Coming. Dr. H. Bancroft, eye and nerve specialist, of the Bancroft Optical company, of Salem, will be at the Cottage hotel in Dallas for six days, beginning January 20.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Ab-solutely Harmless.

The fault of giving children medicine containing injurious substances, is sometimes more disastrous than the disease from which they are suffering. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by Wilson Drug Co.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25 cents.

Minister to Leave. Rev. Green, pastor of the Baptist church will leave with his family next Tuesday for his old Alabama home, being called there by the serious illness of his aged mother. He has a call to a church near his father's home and may or may not accept it. His resignation was placed before the church last Sunday and next Sunday they will either accept it or give him an indefinite leave of absence. His stay of fifteen months among us has been both pleasant and successful. About forty new names have been added, all departments of church work are prospering and the pastor's salary has been promptly paid. The church is not at all inclined to give up so good and faithful a leader.

For Sale in Any Quantity. A general nursery stock of fruit, ornamental evergreen trees, blooming shrubbery, bush roses, climbing roses, clematis and wisteria vines of all colors, berry vines the red and black Logan's specialty.
