McCoy and Perrydale.

The other morning we took the 7 o'clock lightning express, of which Joe Crocker has so long been conductor, and in half an hour dropped off at Perrydale and skipped over the two miles to McCoy. We at once began to interview the villageites and the country folks as they came in. The warehousemen, J. K. Sears and Jas. Tozier, said the past season had been a very poor one in their line, almost no oats, not much wheat and no great amount of hay for storage. But the farmers from all around are now reporting fine crop prospects generally. Mr. Sears erected the white ware house in 1879, the year the railroad was finished to that point. Before the house was built he had 30,000 bushels of wheat piled along the track. In 1886 he built the red warehouse. He says 125,000 bushels was the greatest amount ever stored there any one year. T. J. Graves was in from the country and said that he had seven men at work among his 35 acres of hops and that Wm. Buttrick had charge of the 25 acre patch on the Lucien Fraser place. Miss McCann, the efficient railroad agent said freight traffic toward Portland was light, fat sleep and hog being the most important shipments. The Old Fellows there own the main store and hall and are thrifty generally. They have erected an extra good horse shed. There is a prospect that both Mr. Tozier and Mr. Hamilton will sell their mercantile interests to a man from Portland. Otto Williams drives the mail stage from Salem to McCoy and Perrydale every day and says he does a good business. Postmaster Mackin and Warehouseman John Hill are always on hand. Seeing an old sign of the McCoy Colony Company caused us to ask some real estate questions. It seems that lands had reached the highest around there some fifteen years ago and that some outsiders proposed to colonize the surrounding country but the proposition panned out poorly. After that there was a gradual decline but prices are again on the upgrade the figures ranging from $5 to $15 an acre higher. An interview with H. D. Ott, manager of D. L. Key's stock farm south of town brought out the fact that he has about fifty of the finest Jersey cows and calves in the county and they ship 50 gallons of cream to the Independence creamery every week. There is not in the state a finer herd of Berkshire hogs, he having just received a premium male from Massachusetts. They are feeding thirty for market and at six months old they will average 200 pounds. The train from Portland

That Tired Feeling

Is a Common Spring Trouble.

It's a sign that the blood is deficient in vitality, just as pimples and other eruptions are signs that the blood is impure.

It's a warning, too, which only the hazardous fail to heed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove it, give new life, new courage, strength and animation.

They cleanse the blood and clear the complexion.

Accept no substitute.

"I felt tired all the time and could not sleep. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a while I could sleep well and the tired feeling had gone. This great medicine has also cured me of scrofula." Mrs. C. M. Moor, Glend, Conn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Good Buggies

We are as usual prepared with a fine line of the latest things in the vehicle line, in cushion tire bike wagons, runabouts of all grades, top buggies from cheapest to best, and farm hacks, surreys, etc. We want you to drop in when in Salem and see our stock.

brought the remains of Lieutenant Ryder Davis, who died a few months ago in the Philippines. The family were not expecting them at this time and were scattered, his mother, Mrs. J. A. Finn, being at Newport, his brother Waldo, at the agricultural college and his sister Miss Myrtle Davis, teaching in Salem. They were all hastily called home and it was expected that yesterday he would be laid beside his father in the Bethel cemetery. S. W. Fletcher, who is hopelessly ill, is in charge of a trained nurse at the former E. T. Hatch home. As usual J. D. Kelly, a pioneer of that settlement, was on hand to meet the train and get his mail, but many faces that we used to see there a dozen years ago are now resting under the sod. Miss Lydia Campbell, of Dallas, is teaching the district school while Arle Hampton and Lewis Mackin are teaching at Bethel. Their school will close with an entertainment on the evening of May 18. Their graduates will be Sadie Goraline, Nellie Fletcher Leona Munkers, Carl Stewart, and Leslie Dancer, from the eighth grade; Otto Shields, Ed. Merritt, Walter Domes, Glenn Stewart, and Madge Thomas from the ninth grade; Veda Mulkey and Carrie Domes from the tenth grade. We spent the afternoon in Perrydale which was being treated to a continuous stiff, raw ocean breeze. The date over D. L. Key's store shows that it was erected in 1879 by John McGrew, who was a merchant there for years. The railroad had come along the year before, I. J. White is at the old Perry place now owned by J. M. Wise, who is in Idaho and Ed. Key who lives in the big yellow house, has his farm work well in hand. He and Alex Holmes are partners in buying and shipping live stock. On the old Post farm John McGrew has a stately new home. Just yonder are Enoch Richardson and Ira Townsend, two noble souls, lived for 80 long years, but both they and their wives are sleeping in the grave and so is E. C. Key, who was so prominent a factor in that community. C. P. Zunwalt, whose home was on yonder hill, has long been at rest, and the home of Zach Howe is now in Seattle. Henry Key lives at the old home and across the road is the slightly home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Taylor, whose only daughter, Mrs. La. Frizzell, lives in Eastern Oregon and has a son at Stanford university. Mrs. Key and her daughter, Miss Fannie, live in the best looking home of the county. Elmer Enos is railroad agent and keeps the post office at the depot while Mrs. J. A. Wolfe keeps boarders and feeds the traveling public. Herbert Elliott and Wm. McQueen have charge of Key's flouring mill which runs the year round. They make about thirty-five barrels per day most of it going to Portland. Most of their steam is made by Dallas slabs, wood of which they have bought 75 carloads in the last few months. George Nelson is road supervisor and has graded about 15 of the 20 miles of road in his district. W. A. Key lives in the former Tingle property and clerks in his brothers store and so does Lee Connors son, Frank. Misses Rosa Smith and Vangie Hart have charge of the public school which will close May 19. Fred Hedding has a fine hardware and furniture trade and has a nice empty dwelling. While he is such a poor cook and there are so many good housekeepers waiting for just such a lay out as that it is a pity and almost a shame that things keep on continuing thus. No charge for this advertising, Brother Hedding.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.
How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. If it stains the glass, it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also a convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.
What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery free of charge, and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer, Swamp-Root Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
Do not make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y. on every bottle.
