What will you give for a Christmas present. There is nothing your dear friends would rather receive than a fine platinum toned picture made by T. J. Cherrington, the Dallas photographer.

THE above picture of the man and fish is the trademark of Scott's Emulsion, and is the synonym for strength and purity. It is sold in almost all the civilized countries of the globe.

If the cod fish became extinct it would be a world-wide calamity, because the oil that comes from its liver surpasses all other fats in nourishing and life-giving properties. Thirty years ago the proprietors of Scott's Emulsion found a way of preparing cod liver oil so that everyone can take it and get the full value of the oil without the objectionable taste. Scott's Emulsion is the best thing in the world for weak, backward children, thin, delicate people, and all conditions of wasting and lost strength.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering. Days of misery, nights of unrest. The distress of urinary troubles. To find relief and cure? No reason why any reader should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Almira A. Jackson, of East Front St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "For twenty years I was doctoring for kidney and liver trouble, but without benefit. Just before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was almost paralyzed. I could hardly stand on my feet because of the numbness and lack of circulation. Had a knife been thrust into my kidneys the pain could not have been more intense. My sleep was disturbed by visions of distorted figures. The kidney secretions were annoyingly irregular, and I was tortured with thirst and always bloated. I used seven boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. The bloating subsided until I weighed 100 pounds less, could sleep like a child and was relieved of the pain and the irregularity of the kidney action. My circulation is good and I feel better in every way."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Jackson will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists; price, 50 cents per box.

DALLAS DOTLETS.

The Stearns drug store has just received a new consignment of Christmas perfumes, and it will be well for you to see their assortment before you make your purchases. They also have in stock a nice lot of bound books that will make good presents, and now is the time to be buying, before just what you want has been sold to someone else. All kinds of toilet articles to delight the recipient may be found there.

Charles Morris has laid in an extra nice stock of Christmas silverware, cut glass and jewelry of all kinds. It is a pleasure to him to show his goods, whether you can buy just now or not. Do not forget to see what he has.

Our morning stage to Salem will connect you with the southbound passenger train.

Mrs. Metzger has had a very good fall trade in winter millinery, but the ladies still find time to buy more. In fact they cannot resist the pretty things she has in stock.

Drop in and see the Black boys, who now run the Dallas bakery. The bread they put out is the best in the land, and their pastry and cakes are simply irresistible.

You cannot get a nicer Christmas present for your wife or daughter than a pair of shoes—the kind that Gaynor wears. Their stock is much the largest in town and the best.

Better take home some of that nice dry popcorn that Tracy Staats has at his confectionery store. There is nothing like it to pass away those long winter evenings.

What nicer present could you make your husband than one of those fine shaving sets that Faulk, the hardware man, has in his show case. Composed of the finest steel, they will last forever and prove a money saver for both you and him. One of those nice carving sets would also be most acceptable to the head of the family. No better goods in the above lines are handled by any firm in the valley. In fact, Mr. Faulk handles only the best of everything.

If one of Gussmith's Rissers home filled shells fail to fire take it back and he will give you two good ones for it, but do not ask him to exchange for shells of any other make.

Do not forget Sam Ray when you want mill stuff of any kind, or cow or chicken feed. He carries a big assortment of everything you can possibly want in that line.

If there is anything you desire in the way of hat trimmings, do not forget that Miss Collins carries a complete assortment of the very best that can be purchased anywhere in the world.

Why not make your departed relative a Christmas present of a nice tombstone? Now is the time to see about such things and George Hawkin is the man for you to interview.

SALEM SLABS.

The old reliable firm of Johnson & Co. is still doing business at the old stand, waiting upon the needs of their many customers who have made that clothing house their buying place for the last twenty years. They are constantly gaining new customers, and when a person has once traded there he is very likely to do so until he dies. This is putting it rather strong, but this house has gained a reputation for holding its customers that has no equal in the Willamette valley.

The courtesy continually shown by the proprietors and clerks at the Barnes Cash store have gained them an enviable notoriety, all over this county. It is a pleasure to buy there, and the superiority of their goods and the cheapness of the price add much to it.

Go to the Yokohama Tea store when you start out to buy your Christmas presents. They have many things which would delight both young and old, and their prices are not prohibitive but rather the reverse.

Oscar Johnson knows the clothing business from A to Izzard and he carries a big assortment of evidence of this fact. His clothing store is noted far and wide as being one of the most up-to-date in the valley. He does not try to make a big profit out of every suit of clothes, but aims to give you your money's worth—full value received for every garment that you buy of him.
