MISS LYDIA MUSCOTT LEADS.
Votes are Piling up Rapidly for the Contestants.

The second week of the Piano contest is nearly as exciting as the first one, with not so many votes recorded, but good earnest work being done just the same.

A number of new subscriptions have come, renewals are being made by the score, lots of job work is in, and the contestants and their friends are saving every coupon to be found in the Itenizer.

While Miss Muscott and Miss Loncke are considerably in the lead, yet a few hours honest work will enable any of the others to catch up with them and many of them in fields as yet entirely unworked. Do not hold your ballots, but send them in every Tuesday, together with check or money order for the amount of cash received. Please slip the coupons neatly to the size marked as that will greatly facilitate counting.

This week finds a new contestant in the race, Miss Maud Conley, of Dallas, and we predict that she will be heard from before the contest is over. The race is not always to the swift.

MRS. WAGNER DEAD.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wagner, who resided here so many years, passed away at North Bend Saturday night, as a result of an operation for the removal of gall stones, from which she has been seriously ill for some time. It was hoped for a time that the operation was entirely successful, but the shock proved too severe for her already debilitated system and she died.

Three of her sons, Will, Fred and Henry were with her and one daughter, Mrs. Clara Reid. Theodore Wagner returned to his home in Prineville after the operation was performed. Mrs. Wagner would have been 67 years old tomorrow. She was born in Berlin, Germany, coming to this country when she was 17 years of age. She lived in Wisconsin and Kansas until coming here 17 years ago. She was a member of the Methodist church here, a lady well known for her many excellent qualities, and it is with great regret that the majority of our readers will hear that Grandma Wagner has passed to the great beyond, she was buried at Marshfield, according to her own request.
