The Jar of Coughing

Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest rock. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the coughing, and heals the torn membranes.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Items Gleaned From the Itemizer of February, 13, 1887.

The first page was again taken up with a lot of bills introduced at the legislature. A resolution was passed in the house calling for a special election in November to vote on a prohibition amendment. Editorially the Itemizer declared such election unconstitutional, and predicted that such a bill would be vetoed by the governor. A bill was introduced in the house whereby the Dallas council could incur a bonded indebtedness of $2,500 .or the purpose of erecting a town hall.

At Lincoln they were having plenty of skating, and all the wheat hrd been shipped from the warehouse, except 6,000 bushels; L. Frizzell had been down from Crook county, Aaron Tillery, had a black eye; J C Richards welcomed a 10-pound boy.

At Monmouth Chester Coad was running the warehouse; A. A. Bentley lost a horse; revivals were being held; M. E. Nelms and May Johnson were married.

At Oakgrub Sam McElmurry lost six head of cattle on account of the big snow and the school closed until spring.

At Syracuse there had been some thefts of mail; J. L. Stoddard killed a seagull.

At Independence M. L. Pipes, of the Benton Leader was offered a position on the Oregonian; Mr. Lemon and Mr. Garrigus were putting up ice; Pearl Cooper had about recovered from an accident received on a turntable; wheat badly hurt by the cold weather; Miss Maud Cooper got a severe ducking in the river.

At Bethel John Beckett lost a span of horses; range stock was looking bad; G. O. Graves was having a big barn built, Mr. St John doing the work; C. B. Graves was having his old orchard grubbed out, preparatory to having it planted in watermelons, having netted $100 off of half an acre of such a crop the year before.

At Grand Ronde the bridges were all out and they could not get to Sheridan; W. H. Kuykendall drove a band of beef cattle to Portland; Al Southmayd was buying furs.

At Oakdale Mr. Garwood had nearly cut a toe off; Lot Shreve had been sick; more snow and sleighing all the go; lots of fun at the debating society.

At Buena Vista the band went with the skaters down on the lakes; J. A. McClain sold the mail route to Parker to C. W. Franklin; M. M. Porterfield had lost a horse, and more were sick with the same unknown disease; Prof. Henry was teaching a dancing school, and poker sociables were frequent in tke old sheds.

At Ballston C. E. Magers was principal of the school; John Campbell lost a horse and mare, and Mrs. M. Syron three horses; Mrs. Phoebe Miller was very low with lung fever; Grandpa Ball had been very sick; H. Gabel returned from Yakima.

At West Salem Jolly White was made a guard at the penitentiary; Miss Fee was teaching at Brush college; Asa Foreman was going into the stock business in eastern Oregon; numerous accidents among sleighing parties.

At Willamina the mill dam went out; C. C. Linden was the school teacher; about a foot of snow.

At Peedee R. H. Simpson had a mare with blind staggers; C. G. Nelson was about to move to Yaquina; N. Tarter had closed a nine months school; Reuben Hastings wanted a change of roads on the W. D. Mahoney farm; there was a dance at Hannum's.

At Dallas J M Grant was marshal and J. H. Townsend recorder; a ratification meeting was held on account of the passing of the prohibition ammendment; Jesse Owens was found not guilty of a charge of rape preferred by Mrs. G. W. Wilson, of Eola; the estates of W. J. Andrews, Job Conner, T. R. Blair, T. B. Hart and Mary Whiteaker were administered upon; Thos. Stowe, F. A. Link, Chas. Phillips, M. F. White and George McBee were made road supervisors; I. N. Woods was station agent and had been to Portland; John Hughes was at work in his father's shoe store; word was received from Salem that the normal school bill had failed to pass; M. M. Ellis was cashier of the bank, but had been sick; some scrub had been dir ing the W. C. T. U. windows; J. D. Lee introduced a bill for the creation of Lee county near Pendleton; Mrs. Miller died in the 5th, aged 60 years, leaving her husband, Monroe Miller, J. R. Miller, and Nellie, son and daughter; hops were worth from 18 to 22 cents; the bakery and several private citizens were putting up ice; the narrow gauge paid over $1,300 to the county for taxes; a picture of Abel Uglow taken twenty years before, was picked up on the street by Postmaster J. D. Smith; Jas. Bridwell had fourteen head of horses sick with distemper; Dixie people were all up town in sleighs; Ab. Byerley was running logs to his saw mill on the Levens place; eggs were selling for 30 cents a dozen.

L. D. Daniel has just received 200 pieces of the very latest sheet music.

No Time This Week.

Campbell & Hollister have no time this week to get up an ad, but ask the public to look out for their announcement next week. They are getting in a large stock of extra nice merchandise, are renovating the shelving department, and having some papering and painting done. Despite this fact when we were in there Monday they were as busy as bees waiting on customers.

Mrs. George Collins Dead.

After an illness of only a few hours, Mrs. George Collins succumbed Tuesday to an attack of appendicitis. She was taken ill the evening before, and summoned Dr. Byrd, and was soon resting easier, but toward morning the complaint became worse, and death claimed her at 4:30 a. m. Mrs. Collins was born in Thurell, Canada, in 1845, and moved to Oregon in 1867, where she has since resided. She has been one of Salem's most prominent women, and was an active member of the Methodist church. She has been subject to attacks of appendicitis, and her sudden death at this time comes as a shock to the family and many friends.—Salem Journal.

We heard a man say the other morning that the abbreviation for February—Feb.—means Freeze every body, and that man looked frozen in his ulster. It was apparent that he needed the kind of warmth thal stays the warmth that reaches from head to foot, all over the body. We could have told him from personal knowledge that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives permanent warmth, it invigorates the blood and speeds it along through artery and vein, and really fits men and women, boys and girls to enjoy cold weather and resist the attacks of disease. It gives the right kind of warmth, stimulates and strengthens at the same time, and all its benefits are lasting. There may be a suggestion in this for you.

RESOLUTIONS.

Passed by the members of the grange at , Washington, on the death of Newton L. Harris, late of Dallas:

Whereas, the great master of the universe has seen fit to remove from among us our esteemed brother, Newton L. Harris, therefore be it:

Resolved by enterprise grange, No. 85, that we extend to his family our heart felt sympathy in this their hour of bereavment and cause this resolution to be recorded on our minutes; be it further

Resolved, that our charter be draped in morning for 30 days, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent his family and to our county paper for publication.

Colonel Matthews to Leave.

Colonel Matthews and Wm. Chappell will today take charge of the big hotel at Falls City. Mr. Matthews has sold his saloon interests here to D. A. Madison, and will hereafter devote himself to making the Falls City hostelry famous for good grub and entertainment. He has secured the services as chef of Mr. Moss Walker, who has long materially aided in making the Thompson house known as the best eating house on the West Side. This fact alone will guarantee the new proprietors a large business from the traveling men and others who are acquainted with Mr. Walker's ability to put up an excellent feed. Mr. Matthews has a peculiar adaptability for success as a landlord. His large acquaintanceship with traveling men, and his desire to always give the very best possible for the money, insure his success from the start. For sighted business man that he is and always ready to spend his money for the advancement of the town in which he lives, his going to Falls City will prove an acquisition of which its citizens may well feel proud. The price paid for the hotel property was $5,500, and some $2,000 will be immediately spent in improvements of a modern character. The saloon of which Mr. Chappell will have entire charge, will be moved out of the hotel building to a lot further down the main street, and the entire structure used for hotel purposes alone. The new proprietors will cater to the best class of trade in every particular, and expect that in the near future the trade will justify such a move. It is certain that Falls City has a roseate future and a first class hotel will do much toward making it a place where business people and those desiring recreation and health will desire to go.

Senator Loughary Makes Good.

Salem, Or., Feb. 11.—If the Smith bill for two normal schools passes the house, there will be two of the present schools dropped. If it fails—and there is a fight on to make it fail—three schools will be provided for and two years hence another will be eliminated. In either event the next legislature is expected to make appropriations for two schools only. Had President Haines not tioped off the game of the three-school combine, the plans of the triple alliance, Weston, Monmouth and Ashland, would have succeeded, and had Senator Laughary gone into the combine, the bill of Senator Milt Miller, designating schools at Weston and Ashland, would have passed instead of Smith's, which provides for two schools, but does not specify where they shall be located. Senator Laughary's refusal to enter the cabal won friends for him among the men who honestly wanted but two Normals, whereas had he been active in connubiating, these friends would have been aggressive enemies.

Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging-down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription;" it will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

Our Weekly Weather Report.

At great expense we have managed to secure by wireless telegraph from B. S. Pagenhoff a correct and reliable (sometimes) report of what the weather will be in this section for the next 24 hours. The intricate calculations necessary to reliably predict the weather in a given section, and because the wireless has now been made a trust, is the cause of the enormous expense to the Itemizer. If the weather does not always turn out as we predict, lay it to the man in the tower—of Babel.

POINT TO THEM AS GOOD MEN.

And young men and boys are ready to imitate their example in drinking and point to them as good men that drink does not hurt. Sooner or later some of these young men and boys find that they have neither the capacity for strong drink nor the will power of those men by whom they have been influenced, and wake up to the fact that by following their example they have become drunkards. To stop this bad influence the friends of temperence should stand together without regard to party affiliations. The right way to get good laws and to insure good government is for every man to attend the meeting of his party primary and use his influence for the nomination of candidates for office who will pledge themselves to work for the enactment of good laws and for the enforcement of the same, and if your party fails to nominate good men who will enforce the laws, mark their names off the ticket, and if the opposite side have good men on their ticket vote for them and by so doing serve notice on your own party that if they expect to succeed they must put up good men for office. The man who does this is not only working for the enforcement of law but to bring his own party out on higher ground. The day of yellow dog politics is past, and men do not have to vote for bad men simply because they happen to get their name on the ticket. We are fully aware that any effectual temperance work for our day and times must be done along non-partizan lines. Laws will not enforce themselves, and laws to suppress the sale of intoxicating liquors amount to but little unless public sentiment is educated up to where it will enforce the law, and that cannot be done by making prohibition a political issue. Tennessee, Arkansas and Texas are giving object lessons in what temperance people can do along non-partizan lines. More than two-thirds of the counties in these states have local prohibition, and where the people have put good men into office the law is fairly well enforced. We believe the principle of prohibition to be right and what we need as a nation is constitutional prohibition by the United States government to stop the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. Local option is the next best thing to constitutional prohibition. It it the fore-runner of constitutional prohibition.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Normal Graduating Exercises.

The midyear commencement graduation exercises at the state normal school occurred February 12th, when 14 trained teachers coming from nine different counties, received diplomas. This class, with the number who will finish in June, will make the number of graduates for this year 50, as against 46 for last year, which is about an average of the increase in growth at the normal school from year to year. The number of students up to the present time for this year is 243, and the faculty expects that the number by the close of the year will reach 300, which will equal or exceed that of last year. Some tempting offers have come to some of these young men and women to take school positions at once at good salaries, but President Ressler has continually advised them to complete the full work before leaving. The present midyear class consists of the following: Nellie B. Beckett, Ruby E. Shearer, of Multnomah county; Caroline M. Brown, of Columbia county; Minnie Blough, Freda Gist, and Ellen Nelson, of Yamhill county; Lulu E. Keller, of Umatilla county; Ellen Lawrence, of Grant county; Laleh McKee, of Harney county; Dora Neilson, of Wasco county, Mae L. Tracer, of Lane county; Florence Bowden, Milton Force and Isabelle Elliott, of Polk county.

GRANGE MEETING.

Those interested in farm matters are cordially invited to be present at an open meeting of Oak Grove Grange at their hall near Crowley station on Saturday, February 23rd. Dr. Jas. Withycombe and others of the faculty of the agricultural college will be present and give addresses on scientific agricultural subjects. A stereopticon exhibition of insects, etc., and in the evening the program will be interspersed with a few numbers by local talent. Come everybody and his uncles and aunts and help us by your presence to make it a day of profit and entertainment to all. Bring your dinner and stay all day.

W. T. PEARCE.

On Polk's assessment roll, as usual, the Smith's predominate, there being 32 who pay taxes on over $1000.

WHEN a man leaves home in the evening it is because he seeks amusements. The best way to keep him home is to give him the amusement there. Make home a competitor of downtown, the club, the cafe, the theatre and the concert hall. No one thing will furnish so much amusement for so many people, so many times, and so many ways as the EDISON PHONOGRAPH.

Talk about versatility! If you had a brass band on tap and several leading concert hall signers on salary, and two or three funny men to crack jokes, and a beautiful soprano to sing ballads, you would not give the same amount of varied entertainment that the Edison Phonograph gives by simply changing records.

Yon can hear the whole program at my store in this town.
