—Philomath Review.

By a score of 22 to 20 the first team of Willamette university won over Pacific college in an interesting game of basket ball Friday night. The Willamette boys were not up to their usual standard, which accounts for the close score. Pacific college was swift and in the game all of the time, and gave Willamette a close run for the victory.

There was a small blaze at the residence of Bert Millap Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Miss Rebecca Gates, niece of Mrs. Millap, was preparing to make tea to serve to a couple of young lady friends, using an alcohol lamp and chafin dish, and when she lit the lamp some alcohol that was spilled outside the lamp caught fire and blazed up high, communicating to a window curtain. The young ladies fought the fire and were successful in extinguishing it after it had consumed the curtain and done a little other damage.

An alarm was given by one of the young ladies and the fire bell was rung, but the fire was extinguished before help arrived.—Lelam Express.
