

Mr. Chauncey L. Crider, our enterprising grocer, has installed a one horse electric motor for the running of his coffee grinder. It works to perfection.

In Portland Sunday we met Rev. A. W. Teats. He reports the condition of Miss Hattie not much improved, but hopes are held out for her complete recovery. Both Mr. and Mrs. Teats are with her there.

Well Tempered Tools

of all kinds, and for all purposes are always procurable in our store. We have a goodly variety of tools for all trades and occupations, and, in fact, this is a prominent feature in our regular Hardware business. We keep only the better and more serviceable qualities of goods and warrant every article we sell. Everything that a first-class, progressive Hardware store ought to keep is here, at prices that are sure to please.

Building Materials.....

Nails,
Locks, Hinges, Etc.,
Tin,
Pattons' Sun Proof Paint,
Pratt & Lambert's Varnishes,
Bath tub, Lavatories,
Toilets, Sinks,
Bath Brushes,
Shower bath Rings,
Wall Paper,
Furnaces, Etc.

The above are a very few of the many that you will need when you build that new house.

We can sell them to you at the proper price.

Do you know that we sell more building Hardware than any other house in the County? Well it's so

When you finish that house let us furnish your.....

Range,
Carpets,
Linoleums,
Mattings,
Rugs,
China Closets,
Buffets,
Dressers,
Extension Tables,
Dining room Chairs,
Iron Beds,
Mattresses,
Springs and.....

in fact any thing you may want in the Furniture line

Another Shipment of Carpets expected this week.....

GUY BROS. & DALTON
Dallas, Oregon

Saturday's Special

Look in our next issue for our Saturday Special

SATURDAY ONLY

No 'Phone orders accepted.

CHAPMAN'S

Largest Stock on West Side.

DOINGS IN THE TOWN.

Comings and Goings of Citizens of Dallas and their Friends.

M. Hayter, dentist, Wilson building. Umbrellas repaired by Lee Smith. White and mixed sweet pea seed in bulk at Howe's.

L. D. Brown for abstracts. Notary public, typewriting.

1907 National bicycles now in at Lee Smith's cyclery.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dunn, April 15th, a boy.

Horace Webster is now the agent for the Portland Journal.

Ed. Richmond was at Salmon river last week looking for cattle.

General Passenger Agent O'Neill, of the Northern Pacific, was a caller Friday.

Mr. J. W. Corser, of the Dallas hotel, was a business visitor to Dallas Friday, leaving for Black Rock in the afternoon.

Mr. J. C. Shultz will soon have a new foot cement walk in front of his residence on Mill street.

J. K. P. Graves, of Independence, was a business visitor to Dallas Friday, leaving for Black Rock in the afternoon.

Dr. H. L. Toney, dentist, graduate of Ann Arbor, Mich. Office upstairs in Uglow building. Examinations free. Phone 45.

Invitations are out for the wedding of E. Brown and Miss Maud Ferguson at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown on next Sunday.

The Barnes Cash Store people are clearing out broken lines of dress goods at very attractive figures, for instance a fifty cent article for 25 cents and $1.25 goods at 75 cents. Your neighbor will thank you for telling them about it. All they have is good and cheaper than at most other stores.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

Miss Bertha Collins wishes to announce to the ladies of Polk county that she made special selections in her millinery stock this spring and will be able to satisfy the most fastidious as well as those desiring plain head dress. Call at her parlors in the Collins block and you will see some of the prettiest things in that line ever exhibited here.

For some time has been recognized by all that the Stettin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carelessness in preparing prescriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg celebrated his 70th birthday last Tuesday by the home coming of a part of his children. Those who were permitted to eat at the old home were Frank Hoberg, Ella Metzger, Verona Nelson and Eva Millap. Chester Gates and Max Millap were the only grandchildren present. On the same day, at their homes, J. C. Eckman, Elia Wright and Mrs. Frank Stout were each celebrating their birthdays.—McMinnville T. R.

A large stock of fresh onion sets, lawn grass and garden seeds at Howe's.

Howe has the famous White House coffee, try it. Only 40 cents per pound.

Preferred stock canned goods, the best that money can buy at Howe's grocery.

Mrs. Chester Hare, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Grant.

Miss Virginia Chambers has been up from Portland on a visit to her mother and other relatives.

This office is ready to print your horse bills in the latest style, on the best card board, cloth or paper.

Chick time is here.—Lee Smith has the proper food for young chicks. Try it and see them grow and thrive.

Miss Viola Martin is reported quite ill at Jefferson, and her sister, Mrs. J. C. Uglow has gone to attend her.

Roscoe Ballantyne is soon to leave to act as line man for the Pacific States Telephone Co. from Salem to Ashland.

Miss Julia Canfield has arrived here from Vancouver, B. C., to make her home with her brother, C. R. Canfield.

Barney Morrison and wife, of Lincoln county, but old residents of this county, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday.

Save time and trouble by taking the Dallas stage to Salem and make direct connections with the south bound overland. J. J. Filler, proprietor.

A. J. Barnham and family are here from Washington to make their future home. Mr. Barnham is the owner of the W. W. Wash residence on the hill.

For sale—White Leghorn eggs, the best layers in the world, $1 a setting. Leave orders at Howe's grocery.—G. A. Brock.

An opportunity is offered to the right man to learn the jewelry business. Those interested may write or call on Mr. C. H. Higgs, Salem, Oregon.

Mrs. N. L. Butler, Miss Ella Butler and Mr. Frank Snyder went to the city Monday. Mrs. Butler's mother, returned with them.

Riser, the gunsmith, is now prepared for all kinds of bicycle repairs and keeps a supply of new tires. Do not forget that he has the best fishing tackle in the works.

Chief of Police Palmer arrested a couple Friday night for trespassing in the public school grounds. On appearing before Judge Stouffer and promising to conduct themselves in a more becoming manner hereafter, they were released.

Miss Ethel Rowell was married Tuesday to John Perry at Wrangell, Alaska. The groom is in charge of the new cable office there, and an exemplary young man in every respect. Mrs. Perry is the only daughter of Tom Rowell and all her life a resident of Dallas until about a year ago. The itemizer wishes them a pathway through life strewn with thornless roses.

At the session of Willamette Presbytery in Brownsville last week our Rev. D. Julian Becker was elected reporting clerk. Rev. A. M. Williams, of Spring Valley, was not granted a letter of dismissal to the Presbytery of Olympia, nor Rev. S. S. White, of Independence, to the Presbytery at Portland. Rev. Wm. Wardle, of Lebanon, and Elder W. H. Bais, of Dallas, were elected commissioners to the general assembly, which meets in Columbus, Ohio, in June.

Iowa cream separators at Guy Bros.

The billiard and pool rooms now inhabit the Kerslake building.

Walter Vaughn is back from Seattle. He says they are hustlers there.

Dallas is going to celebrate the Fourth and bigger and better than ever.

Mr. H. H. Samuel, of Portland, has been up looking after his farm interests here.

Mrs. Nellie Hayes was taken to a Portland hospital Monday for medical treatment.

Roller skates—Winslow, Richardson, Chicago and Henley roller skates at Lee Smith's cyclery.

Miss Mae Pollock gave a recital last night at the residence of Rev. J. S. Moore in Portland.

Come and enjoy a good chicken dinner at the Dallas hotel next Sunday, the 21st. Only 25 cents.

Miss Lena Stouffer has been up from St. Helens visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. D. P. Stouffer.

Hon. M. M. Partridge, late of Portland, is now the chef at Hotel Dallas. He understands his business.

Hon. M. M. Ellis has been confined to the house for ten days through illness, but is now able to be out again.

Clifford Smart, a ladder in the public school basement Tuesday and sustained a fracture of the left forearm. Dr. Bollman reduced it.

While in Portland the first day of the week we purchased a large perforating machine—the largest and best one on this side of the river and are now fixed up doing anything we wish. First class perforating is required.

Mrs. Patton left Tuesday for the home of her parents near Dallas, where she will visit until Friday, when she will leave for San Francisco to join her husband, who has been in that city for some time.—Salem Statesman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Allen are visiting at the home of Mrs. H. H. Holman. Mr. Allen is an old resident of Dallas, but for several years has lived at The Dallas. He is in very poor health, and thinks a change will be beneficial.

J. C. Morrison, manager of E. C. Horst's big yard near Independence, was in this city yesterday. Mr. Morrison has purchased a large quantity of trellis poles in the vicinity of Brownsville. The high water cost Horst $1200.

A friend writing to Janitor Andrew Trent from British Columbia says, "I see by the itemizer that you have been moving the house. It makes me tired to look at the snow and ice here, and think of you wallowing around in grass knee deep."

Dr. C. A. Mock was formerly installed as president of Dallas college last Thursday evening. A pleasing programme was rendered, consisting of songs by Mr. Dan Browne and Prof. Dunkelberger, and addresses by Bishop Heil, Judge N. L. Butler, Prof. Wastern, of Willamette, Rev. A. A. Winter and Dr. Mock.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas county—ss. Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the city of Toledo, county and state aforesaid, and that said firm will pay $100 for each and every case of catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 10th day of December, 1896. A. D. A. W. GLASSON, Notary Public. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, sent directly to the inflamed and aching surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all druggists. "Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation."

WEBFOOT ROOFING THE BEST ROOFING ON THE MARKET Made by the Northwest Roofing company, Portland. Does not buckle. Guaranteed for 10 years.

L. C. KOSEER Agent for Polk County.

NEW TO-DAY

Advertising under this head 1 cent a word each insertion

WANTED—A good, gentle work horse. F. J. Holman, Dallas.

FOR RENT—80 acres of land to put to spring grain, house, garden and orchard included, on Union farm, Rickard, Oregon—Ida M. Uglow.

STEEL stump puller, cable, blocks and everything complete, for sale. $150 outfit, good as new, can be bought for $35. At Hotel Dallas, Dallas, Oregon.

GIRL wanted to do chamber work at the Dallas hotel.

FOR SALE—Foxhound puppies. Fine stock, natural color, good for hunting. For sale by F. C. Phillips, Wadsworth, Or.

WANTED—10 girls and boys to train horse, dog, cat, etc. on the 15th day of April. Zeh. Weir, No. 2, Dallas.

BURNING seed potatoes for sale by W. H. Kraber, Dallas.

MAMMOTH blackberry plants for sale. Some people call them the Black Logan. The best berry on earth.—W. H. Kraber, Dallas.

SCOTCH Collie pups for sale at $25 each. J. T. Reed, Dallas, No. 1.

GOOD span of mares for sale by Arthur Dimmick, Dallas.

STRICTLY clean red clover seed for sale by Henry Key, Perrydale.

C. I. Ballard, breeder of registered O. I. C. swine, serviceable boars, 24 miles southeast of Dallas. Bell phone 341. Address, Rickard.

FOR SALE—5 cows, 3 giving milk and 2 to be fresh soon—C. E. Wheelock 1 mile west of Mountbush.

FOR SALE—180 acres of land, fine for fruit, grain, stock and dairying.—C. W. Boyle, Dallas.

I HAVE money to loan at all times at the very best rates obtainable.—H. O. Campbell.

MONEY to loan on improved farm property at small rates by Oscar Taylor, Dallas.

MONEY to loan at 6 per cent on farm security.—J. L. Collins, Dallas.

WANTED—Salesmen—Many make $100 to $150 per month, some even more. Stock clean grown on reservation, far from old orchards. Cash advanced weekly. Choice territory. Address Washington Nursery Company, Tappan, Wash.

Iowa cream separators at Guy Bros.

Lowa cream separators at Guy Bros.

If you want the latest styles in Oxford, see Campbell & Hollister.

Mrs. Nellie Hayes is reported dangerously ill at a Portland hospital.

Wm. Eade, representing the Pacific Paper company, and late of England, was a caller yesterday.

Wanted, to rent a good, gentle family driving horse during the next six months. Address box 348, Dallas.

See Big circus ad. When such a big show as this begin to find that Dallas is on the map, we are commencing to go some.

The Norris & Rowe advertising car was in town yesterday. They carry 15 people for this branch of the business alone.

Mrs. Ella J. Metzger has a very choice assortment of hats on display at the store of H. C. Courter, at Falls City and will be glad