 John Junkey returned home Monday from a visit with his mother who resides at Foster, Ore.

J. L. Ford and wife were arrivals Saturday from Hoquiam, Wash., and expect to make their future home.

A. Moore and Claude Kurre departed Wednesday for the coast over Nesqueam way on a week or ten days' fishing trip.

W. J. May is harvesting his first crop of clover. The crop is being cut rather early with the expectation that the second crop will produce a good seed crop.

Recent arrivals from North Dakota are Hugh May and family also the family of Robert May and Thomas Lawrence who are stopping for the present at the home of J. W. May, their brother, south of town. Robert has not arrived yet as he is accompanying the stock and household goods. The families arrived at Salem the first of the week and come here with the expectation of locating permanently.

While Jack Grandall, the barber employed by Dee Taylor, was riding a horse on the street Tuesday evening, he lost control and in turning the corner at Hanna & Irvine's the horse came in contact with a horse and buggy driven by Misses Grace and Kate Jones. Miss Kate was thrown from the buggy but escaped injury. Crosslin was thrown from his horse and was pretty badly shaken up. One of the hind wheels of the buggy was demolished but it is fortunate that none of the parties received serious injuries under the circumstances.

Mr. Daniel U. Cochrane and Miss Louise Moolery were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at Corvallis, Ore., Wednesday, June 5, Rev. Blake officiating. The ceremony took place at 12 o'clock in the presence of about fifty invited guests, following which dinner was served. Mr. Cochrane has numerous acquaintances in Independence and vicinity. Miss Moolery has long resided at Corvallis and is a popular young lady of that place. The young couple departed Wednesday for McMinnville and came to Independence the following day to make their future home.

Mr. Mahalia A. Sloan died at the family home about two miles west of McMinnville Tuesday morning. Death was caused from appendicitis and she had not been ill very long. She was 65 years of age. She was a native of Missouri but in early years removed to southeastern Nebraska and was united in marriage to Mr. Sloan at Brownsville, Mo. The family came to Oregon in 1900, since which time they have resided in the vicinity of McMinnville. Besides the husband there are left to mourn her loss three sons and three daughters, they being C. W., W. A. and Fred Sloan, Mrs. Moll Simmons of Nebraska, Mrs. Cora Brooks and Mrs. Lala Ritchey residing in this vicinity. All were present at the funeral services excepting the daughter in Nebraska, who was unable to be present.

Committees for the Independence Driving Club have been industriously at work the past few days and have met with great encouragement from the business interests of the town in their effort to pull off their annual two days race meet on June 28-29. Liberal subscriptions have been made for purses to be hung up for the meet and the horse men of the valley and other parts of Oregon are invited to bring their horses for entrance into the races. Following is the programme:

STATUS OF SALOONS.
 If the decisions of two Indiana judges are to become precedents in other cases throughout the country, it will behoove retail dealers to be very careful to observe strictly all laws for the regulation of the saloon business. Indiana, carrying out to its full extent the doctrine of these decisions would involve a suppression of the saloon business altogether. Judge Artman, of Lebanon, Indiana, held not long ago that the liquor traffic was not "inherently wrong and illegal," and that therefore "the board of county commissioners had no right to license saloons." Judge Christian, of Noblesville, in the same state, in a later decision, took an even more radical position, holding that the saloon, being evil in itself, is a nuisance, and therefore the law in Indiana authorizing the issuance of licenses governing the sale of intoxicants is unconstitutional." He rests his opinion upon the theory that the saloon "is inherently bad, and is destructive of the public morals, the public safety, the public peace and the public health, and is therefore a public nuisance." These are not contentions from the declamations of prohibitionists or temperance advocates, but from the decisions of judges on the bench, men occupying similar positions to our circuit court judges. Judges of higher courts may not agree with this doctrine, and again they may. At any rate, it is evident that not only the great majority of people, but the courts, that see so much of the evil and costly consequences of drink-ones, are becoming weary and intolerant of saloons that do not strictly observe the law, at least, such as are habitually habit-ones of the vicious and criminal elements of society, especially men who consort with fallen women, should be banished from this city and in the light of these decisions it is not unreasonable to suppose that the courts would sustain such action, even on testimony that would convict a man of a specific crime. There has been a great improvement in this city, in the matter of dives of the vicious and criminal class during the past two years, but there work for the dive killer yet. They deserve no tolerance or mercy, and revenue from them is about the worst kind of tainted money. Moreover, as we have suggested before, knowledge that saloonkeepers of this kind are either associated with better ones for this purpose or not, are anxious to elect any man of whatever party to a city office, should impel all the rest of the voters of the city to go against the man. Let candidates for a municipal office be taught that an alliance with this element of our citizenry means defeat. If the saloonkeepers will read these decisions, as above stated, and realize that public sentiment is rapidly turning in the same direction, they will be satisfied to be allowed to pursue their business without attempting to dictate who shall be elected to office.
 Ross Winslow is now county surveyor. John Van Orsdell having tendered his resignation.

OLD SORES FED AND BY IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

Whenever a sore refuses to heal it is because the blood is not pure and healthy, as it should be, but is infected with poisonous germs or some old blood taint which has corrupted and polluted the circulation. Those most usually afflicted with old sores are persons who have reached or passed middle life. The vitality of the blood and strength of the system have naturally begun to decline, and the poisonous germs which have accumulated because of sluggish and inactive condition of the system, or some hereditary taint which has hitherto been held in check, now force an outlet on the face, arms, legs or other part of the body. The place grows red and angry, festers and oozes into the surrounding tissue until it becomes a chronic and stubborn ulcer, fed and kept open by the impurities with which the blood is saturated. Nothing is more trying and disagreeable than a stubborn, non-healing sore. The very fact that it resists ordinary remedies and treatments is good reason for suspicion. The same germ-producing cancerous ulcers is back of every old sore, and especially is this true if the trouble is an inherited one. Washes, salves, nor indeed anything else, applied directly to the sore, can do any permanent good; neither will removing the sore with caustic plasters or the surgeon's knife make a lasting cure. If every particle of the diseased flesh were taken away another sore would come, because the trouble is in the blood, and the BLOOD CANNOT BE CUT AWAY. The cure must come by a thorough cleansing of the blood. In S. S. S. will be found a remedy for sores and ulcers of every kind. It is an unequalled blood purifier—one that goes directly into the circulation and promptly cleanses it of all poisons and taints. It gets down to the very bottom of the trouble and forces out every trace of impurity and makes a complete and lasting cure. S. S. S. changes the quality of the blood so that instead of feeding the diseased parts with impurities, it nourishes the irritated, inflamed flesh with healthy blood. Then the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, all pain and inflammation leaves, the place scabs over, and when S. S. S. has purified the blood the sore is permanently cured. S. S. S. is for sale at all first class drug stores. Write for our special book on sores and ulcers and any other medical advice you desire. We make no charge for the book or advice.
