MARRIED IN PORTLAND.

Hon. Frank Fawc and Miss Esther Savagh United.

As noticed last week, Hon. Frank Fawc, of Oak Grove, and Miss Esther Savagh, of Dallas, were married in Portland, Wednesday, June 20th. The ceremony took place at the home of Rev. A.
A. Winter, he tying the nuptial knot.
Only a few friends and relatives were present to witness the event, and they at once started on a tour of British Columbia, where they will spend their

Is Your Hair Sick?

That's too bad! We had noticed it was looking pretty thin and rough of late, but naturally did not like to speak of it. By the way, Ayer's Hair Vigor is a coming out, grows faster, keeps soft and smooth. Ayer's makes it strong and healthy.

ROBERTINE
Sallowness Transformed
to Dusky Beauty
A dark skin becomes fascinating when delicately soft, underpinned with the radiant glow which indicates a healthy, active skin. Robertine keeps the skin refined in quality, keeps pores free from clogging waste and stimulates the tiny capillaries to contribute the color which charms in blonde and brunette alike. Robertine is a certain protection against tan, sunburn and freckles if applied before exposure to sun or wind.
Spreads like an imperceptible sheen of grease over skin surface, forming a shield stimulating and preserving a delicate, lustrous beauty.

honeymoon.
The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Knave, of this city, where her childhood has been spent. That Mr. Fawc has secured a principle in the real estate market is beyond question, as his wife is beautiful, intelligent, refined, in fact a lady in every sense of the word.

Mr. Fawc is a wealthy and progressive farmer whose intellectual facilities have already been recognized by the people of Polk county, they having sent him to represent them in the legislative chambers in 1905, he probably being the youngest representative that our county ever sent. He performed his work well while there, and yet has many years of further honors ahead of him.

The Itemizer but voices the desire of their many friends in this county when it wishes them a long and happy married life. They will reside on Mr. Fawc's farm on Salt Creek, where he has lately taken up his abode since leaving Oak-grove.

SUMMER EXCURSION.
Special Rates and Train Service to Newport for Season of 1907 via Corvallis & Eastern Railroad.

Hotels, resorts and attractions at Newport are now open for the season, and indications all point to this famous "Oregon Coast Resort" being more popular this season than ever before.

A decided innovation, bound to be a source of great satisfaction to visitors and add greatly to the popularity of this first coming only "Oregon Coast Resort," will be the opening on July 3rd of the Newport theatre, for the summer season by a high class stock company, made up of some of the best stock actors on the coast, to include various members of the well known Baker Theatre Stock company of Portland. A series of the best stock plays available will be produced during the season with frequent change of bill.

About July 1st there will be opened to the public one of the largest and best equipped skating rinks in the Northwest, containing 12,000 square feet of floor space. The rink will be kept open continuously day and evening except during bad weather.

These two attractions will divide honors with visitors in filling a long list wanting some place to while away the evenings after the close of outdoor attractions.

This company, as well as the Southern Pacific company and Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, have on sale season tickets to Newport from all points in Oregon at greatly reduced rates. These tickets can be purchased daily and are good for return until October 1st 1907.

In addition to season tickets, this company and Southern Pacific company have placed on sale at reduced rates popular week-end three day tickets, good from Saturday to Monday, for the benefit of those who cannot advantageously are season tickets, but who desire to make frequent short interval trips to the beach during the summer.

This company will also, commencing Sunday, June 16, provide special Sunday excursion trains from Albany to Newport and return, and have on sale one day excursion tickets at reduced rates for this train.

Passengers holding season tickets or three day tickets, can travel going or returning on Sunday excursion trains.
For information relative to rates, trains, etc., see tariffs on file at stations for public inspection, or refer to any agent of Corvallis and Eastern R. R. company, Southern Pacific company or Oregon Railroad & Navigation company.
GEO. F. NEVINS,
General Passenger Agent.

Take the Postmaster's Word for it.
Mr. F. M. Hamilton, postmaster at Cheerlyvale, Ind., keeps also a stock of general merchandise and patent medicines. He says: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is candled here in its line. It never fails to give satisfaction and we could hardly afford to be without it." For sale by Alas, Too True.

There is practically no such thing as gratitude on the part of the public for any moral service rendered by a newspaper. The same is true of a favor done an individual by a newspaper. To the average citizen the news paper is as impersonal as a railroad corporation and the attitude of the public is often to use it but to treat it if you can. Every editor has had good citizens urge him to attack this or that evil, and probably within a week after he has been thought and won, the same man for some purely personal or business reason would stop his paper and his advertisement.

Largest Cherry Orchard.
Probably the largest cherry orchard in the Willamette Valley is that of S. P.
Kimball. It is located on the Oak grove road, in the county of Polk, Oregon, and consists of about 87 acres.
Mr. Kimball is the manager of the Salem Mutual Canning company and has 40 acres of cherry orchards.
He has purchased an adjoining tract of 47 acres from E. Schindler, which he will also put into cherries. He paid $50 an acre for the land which is considered remarkably cheap, for it is especially adapted to the growing of cherries.

FREE LIBRARY NOTES.
The reading room will be open to the public from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. on the Fourth, but no books will be loaned or received.

Among the many favors recently extended to the library is a gift of $2.50 given by Mr. James Howe. The money was given to the library and the books also his hearty words of commendation for the library.
A Webster's International Unabridged dictionary has been ordered from the library. It is a book very much needed and we greatly appreciate Mr.
Howe's kindness in giving us so valuable a book.

Total numbers of calls made at the library during June 1, 1907. Number of books loaned 571, of which number 494 were fiction, 12 non fiction, 155 children's books. Number of new borrowers cards issued during the month, 29.

Spangle-Young.
A very pretty June wedding took place at the Evangelical church at Dayton on Wednesday, June 20th, at high noon, when Cora E. Spangle was united in marriage to Walter L. Young, of Portland, by Rev. M. B. Young, of Dallas, father of the groom. The bride, a young lady who is loved and respected by all her acquaintances, was daintily attired in white silk and carried a boquet of white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lena Spangle.
The groom, who is a street car conductor in Portland, and the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Young, of Dallas, is a young man of very excellent character.

He was attended by August Riser, of Dallas. Only immediate relatives and friends were present to witness the ceremony. Immediately after the congratulatory wedding dinner was served at the Hotel McCall. Mr. and Mrs.
Young left on the 4:25 train for Portland where they will be at home to their friends at 728 Kearney street.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

EDITOR ITEMIZER:
Sir: Believing that some of your readers might be interested in reading a few lines from us, prompts us to send this letter to you. We left Monmouth on May 5, 1907, and on the 10th we landed at Posterville, in the extreme eastern part of the San Joaquin valley, 275 miles southeast of San Francisco.
Posterville is a thriving town of over 3,000 population, and is situated at the foot hills of the Sierra Nevada mountains and near the Tule river, one branch of which flows through the city dividing it into North and South Posterville.

The town is situated upon a level tract of land to the east of the foot hills of the Sierras, while to the west lies the plains covered with grain and alfalfa ranches, with here and there a large stock ranch. On the north, south and east are to be seen some of the finest orange and lemon groves to be found in the state, and there is a well known fact that California boasts some of the finest to be found anywhere.
The land upon which these groves are located cost, in many instances, from $100 to $150 an acre. These groves, which are from 6 or 7 years old, are ready for $1,000 to $1,500 an acre.
These figures seem high to a person unfamiliar with the business, but I am informed by persons who ought to know, that a person, with the proper amount of energy and prudence, can buy a grove of bearing trees, without a dollar in money to start with, and in four or five years, pay for it, besides supporting his family. Of course this means lots of hard work for the person so situated, but it can be done, and then, the person will have a fine home the balance of his days.

I have a friend who came to this place five years ago from Iowa, without a dollar. He was induced to buy a 20 acre grove on time, and he expects to pay the last payment of the original purchase price, which was $20,000, the coming fall. He has done this in addition to supporting and educating his children. This is what can be done, but they do not all do it by any means.

Maybe you think it isn't hot, gee whiz, it just boils and fumes, the mercury knocking against the top of the thermometer trying to get out, and if the thing was not closed, I have no idea where the mercury would go to. I reckon it would go to the top of Mt. Whiteman, and maybe even higher. It is so hot here that ice will boil here before it melts.

It is getting to hot to write, so I will quit and go and try to cool off of a little.

A Double Wedding
Occured at the Baptist parsonage Monday, July 1st, at 2:30 o'clock, Rev.
C. H. Davis officiating. The contracting parties were Mr. Chester Erickson and Miss Florence Turner, Mr. Wm.
Munson and Miss Bessie McTimmonds, all popular young people of Falls City.

ELECTRICAL DISPLAY.
Dallas Streets to be Lighted With 150 Incandescents.

For the first time in its history Dallas streets will be lighted with incandescents of the latest type. They are now being placed in position and will be used during the nights of the 3rd and 4th. Main street for three blocks, and two blocks on Mill and Court have had wires hung along the center, about the height of the telephone poles and 150 16-candle power lights will be hung thereon at a distance of some ten feet apart. Manager Kearns assures me that this will give a very effective illumination. Banker R. E.
Williams suggests that every store and residence give their aid in helping out the brilliant effect, and burn their lights on the nights of the 3rd and 4th from 8 to 12 o'clock. Turn on all your lights in your place of business and at your residence, and let our town's first illumination be a grand success. There is plenty of juice. All we have to do is to use it.

Parson-Tarter.
A quiet wedding took place recently at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Parson, five miles east of Albany, when their daughter, Stella, was united in marriage to Herman Tarter, of Portland. Rev. McDaniel, of the Methodist church of Albany, officiating.
The beautiful ring service being used.
On account of the prolonged illness of the bride's father, immediate relatives and natives were present. Following the marriage ceremony a bounteous wedding dinner was served. Miss Parson is a prominent member of the 1906 class at O. A. C., and during the past year has been a popular teacher at Council, Idaho. Mr. Tarter is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Tarter, of Corvallis, a graduate of O. A. C., and is employed as analytical chemist for the Woodward-Clarke Drug Company. The Tarter family resided at Lewisville, where Mr.
N. Tarter was for many years a well known school teacher.

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases, having it in the house you can escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by Stafrin Drug Co.
