The thermometors recorded 100 degrees on Main street Tuesday afternoon. Maybe you think it was not hot in this shop. At 6 o'clock it was still 100, but an ocean breeze came up and at 6:30 it was 74.

The Dallas Hotel, under its present management, is fast gaining the enviable reputation among local folk and the traveling public, as the place where the best meals in all Oregon are served. Come in Sunday and we will "show you."

For some time it has been recognized by all that the Stafrin drug store was forging far ahead in the matter of popularity and patronage. In fact this store has long enjoyed the major portion of the trade tributary to this city. Their courtesy to all, carefullness in preparing perscriptions, excellent goods and fair prices, have aided materially in bringing this about.

Manager Soehren has this week imposed fines on several for running their irrigation ditches after the hours laid down, saying such action is liable to cause a shortage of the supply. Opinion is divided as to this being so. Anyhow the council should look up the matter, and if we can have longer hours see that we get them.

SAM THURSTON DEAD.

Passes Away in Arizona on July 30th.

Samuel Thurston, noted throughout Oregon a few years ago as a football player, died in Arizona July 30th, of consumption, aged about 28. Thurston was formerly a student of the State Agricultural college, but when football was abolished at that institution he went with Ray Goodrich and Willie Scott to the state university where he became a star student. He was a member of the famous University of Oregon team which defeated Berkeley several years ago. His remains will be brought for interment to his home in the northern part of Benton county. He has been in Arizona for two years on account of failing health.

Dunbar Case Dismissed.

J. K. Sears and the state of Oregon upon relation of J. H. McNary, district attorney of the Third judicial district, substituted for J. K. Sears, of McCoy, respondents, versus F. I. Dunbar, appellant; appeal from circuit court of Marion county, Wm. Galloway, judge; dismissed the case against F. I. Dunbar, charged with retaining $100,000 money belonging to the state of Oregon as secretary of state. The defense held that the substitution of the state for J. K. Sears as respondent, was the commencement of a new suit. In his opinion, that court did not lose jurisdiction of the case by the substitution. The foregoing was a ruling of the Supreme court yesterday.
