IN WINTER QUARTERS.
Tongues of Fire Leave Tent For Kirkpatrick Building.

Doing to increasing disturbances the great abode named have considered it a good plan to abandon their large tent in the northeastern part of Dallas and return to their winter quarters in the Kirkpatrick building on Mill street.
This was brought about by actions of our town hoodlums lately, culminating in last night's riot, the collapse of their tent of worship by reason of ropes being cut. Warrants were sworn out before Judge Brown for some of the riot-leaders. In one case the young man received a light fine and his jail sentence was held over him on promise of good behavior in the future. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the best of case, in which it was charged that obscene and profane language was used to one of the preachers, the "culprit" got sent free, because the prosecuting witness found it against his religious creed to repeat the language used even to his attorney, and as a consequence the case had to be dismissed. It is better that these religious services be held where they are now, as our efficient marshal can now have the whole matter more thoroughly under his control and not have to neglect his duties in town to go out several blocks to their place of worship. Mr. Harris informs us that further interference with the Tongues of Fire will be allowed, and that the congregation of strong men of their place of worship will not be tolerated. In this step he is upheld by all decent citizens. While we may not be in sympathy with the method of these people in serving God, yet, as American citizens they are entitled, as long as they conduct themselves in a seemly manner, to do so without molestation of any sort.
The congregating of an outside crowd to mock and ridicule is not in accordance with law and order, and it is ended forthwith and instantly.

I have opened an office on North Main street and will be pleased to list either city or farm property. Deals in Portland real estate a specialty.

port last Thursday to the bedside of her father who is quite ill.

Wallie Brown's threshing after being laid up on account of the recent rain is now running full blast.

Wm. Holsington who is employed at the Brown ax handle camp near Lewis-ville had the misfortune to cut of two of his right-foot last Tuesday.

Clyde Turner and Everett Hildbrand and families who have been sojourning at the coast for two weeks returned last Tuesday. They reported having a good time and plenty of fish.

Albert Newbill took a photograph of our up-to-date depot last Sunday for the benefit of the railroad commissioners who will try and assist our citizens in their fight for a suitable depot at this place.

Hank Ray, son of Jas. and Mrs. Ray, was laid to rest in the English cemetery last Monday. Hank was over come by the ravages of disease last Sunday after a lingering illness of nearly four years.
His father, John Ray, was a well known Rev. Burns, of Kings Valley and a crowd of relatives and friends paid a last tribute to the departed.

For Over Sixty Years.
An old and well tried remedy. Mrs.
Winslow's Soothing Syrup for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for all diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste.
Sold by druggists in every part of the world. 25 cents a bottle. Its value is proved by the fact that it has cured Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind. Guaranteed under the Food and Drug Act, June 30, 1906. Serial Number 1008.

GRANDMA SYRON DEAD.
Mrs. Sarah E. Syron, who has been at the Salem sanatorium for treatment for brain trouble during the last few months, died there Tuesday, and the remains were brought home to Dallas for burial. She was laid to rest in the old Fellows cemetery yesterday afternoon, Rev. D. M. Metzger officiating.

Mrs. Syron was a native of Iowa and about 25 years ago when herself and husband, Uncle Dan Syron, moved to Dallas and have resided here ever since. Besides her husband, she leaves four children to mourn her loss, they being Charles, Marion, Frank, and Miss Della Syron. She also leaves three brothers, Jack Morrison, of Rock Creek, and two others whose residence is unknown.

Mrs. Syron was a lady well known and esteemed in Dallas for her many excellent qualities, and her death and subsequent illness is a cause of great regret to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. The afflicted relatives have the sincere sympathy of all in this their hour of great affliction.

UNITED IN WEDLOCK.
Miss Mae Ruddick becomes the Bride of Archibald J. Bonham.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ruddick on last evening, Archibald J. Bonham, of Julian Becker, Mr. Archibald Bonham and Miss Mae Ruddick were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. with rose and sweet peas, and the bride looked most dainty, gowned in some exquisite texture suitable to the occasion.
After the ceremony a large and opulent table was served, and the young couple were showered with congratulations by the guests. The bride and groom were accompanied by a large party of friends. Many useful and costly presents were given them on which to begin their wedded life.

The bride is well known to all Dallas people as an accomplished young lady of many virtues, and Mr. Bonham will find that in the marriage market he has secured a pearl beyond price. The groom is a young man of sterling qualities, by profession a school teacher—in which his position is well sustained by experience—and can be expected to make his mark in the world. The Itemizer extends them its most sincere congratulations on this auspicious occasion.

The guests present were:
Mr. and Mrs. B. Muir, Mr. and Mrs. John Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. M.
Ballantyne, Mrs. M. M. Dungan, Mrs. C. L. Barnes, Mrs. J. G.
VanOrsdel, Pauline VanOrsdel, Clark VanOrsdel, Mr. James Sweeney, Mrs.
Ethel Hadley, Mrs. Connelly, Miss Florence Palmer, Mr. N. Palmer, Miss Olive Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Parrish, Miss Edwards, Mrs. Jessie Wiseman, Rev.
D. Julian Becker.

Two prominent weddings are on tapis for the near future.
