

SPECIALS

- 1 pound can of Folger's Baking Powder..... 35c
- Flaked Hominny, per pound at..... 5c
- 5-lb. can of Chase & Sanborn's "Special Blend" Coffee at..... $1.15
- Fancy Evaporated Pears, per pound at..... 7c
- Fancy Dried Prunes, per pound at..... 4c

Just received a fresh supply of glucose for fancy candy making.

TINWARE SALE SPECIAL

- 60c Stew Pans for 42c
- 50c Stew Pans for 34c

Crider's Grocery

DALLAS, OREGON

DOINGS IN THE TOWN.

Comings and Goings of Citizens of Dallas and their Friends.

How M. M. Ellis made a business visit to Albany yesterday.

Dr. H. L. Toney and Dr. S. T. Donohoe, dentists, Uglow building.

Cash paid for milk, cream, skunk, fox marten and other furs—Bain & Duns.

Frank Lucas, formerly postmaster, Missouri, is now a leader of a band in Portland.

Hon. J. D. Lee came up from Portland Saturday evening for a visit with his sister, J. E. Smith.

Case Riggs has returned from a visit at Bellington. Frank Gibson has been ill with pneumonia there.

E. Caldwell is reported seriously ill, and his daughter, Mrs. Willard Siefert, is up from Portland at his bedside.

Go and see Lee Willard and his excellent company at Woodman hall on Saturday night. Seats now on sale.

Our night train now pulls out of Portland with four coaches in order to accommodate the rapidly increasing travel.

Some of the handsomest leather shopping bags ever brought to Dallas and everything in postal cards at L. D. Daniels.

The fire department was called to a fire Thursday evening at the residence of W. E. Palmer but their services were not required.

Call at L. D. Daniels' and get your photograph records. Everything in stock that you are liable to call for—nothing missing.

N. M. McDaniel is doing well in the real estate business in the metropolis, having recently acquired some large and valuable holdings.

On exhibition at the goat show was a 6 month old fawn, the property of L. M. Dennis. It attracted much attention and admiring comment.

R. E. Williams, G. N. Cherrington, Conrad Staffin, Mark Hayter and E. C. Kirkpatrick attended the 15th annual meeting in the metropolis Saturday.

Lee Willard and his eastern company of some fifteen actors at Woodman hall on Saturday night in the comedy, "The Country Squire." Seats now on sale.

Prof. J. B. Harner delivered a very interesting lecture at the Presbyterian church, last Sunday evening, on "The Mediterranean," which he visited recently.

J. W. Rushton, who some 20 years ago used to drive the stage between here and Salem, is now engaged in the lathing business in Portland. His wife died last fall.

The Rickreall orchestra will give a dance at the Woodman hall tomorrow night, with Blaine Southwick and Horace Webster as floor managers and Steffy brothers as callers.

Mr. G. P. Conley has been in Portland and Salem to have his teeth treated. He was in yesterday to pay up his 35th consecutive year as a subscriber of the Renzler. Who can beat it?

Mr. J. H. Moore, the rustling proprietor of the Dallas feed store, went down to Bridwell Friday morning to buy a couple of carloads of hay. He says it is not to be obtained in this vicinity.

I make and repair umbrellas and have new ones for sale. You can depend on my makes being solid of construction and to wear well. Electric flash lights on sale.—C. Rieker, the gunsmith.

Eltan Conaway, who was raised in Dallas, is now engaged with his brother-in-law, Mr. Neider, in the engraving business in Portland, and are doing a good business. They made most of the half tone cuts for the Portland Journal's fine edition lately.

Don't conflict Dr. Lowe with self-styled opticians peddling glasses from house to house. Dr. Lowe has been coming to Dallas for over 16 years and can only be consulted in his hotel office. He has no agents, all persons claiming to be are frauds. See him at Hotel Gay January 27th and 28th.

So much money is thrown away in buying useless Christmas presents. A certificate of mining stock in a good company will be appreciated and may bring wealth to the owner. Send a portion of your Christmas money to the Lee Comstock Mining company, P. O. box 258, Rhyolite, Nevada, and buy a block of stock at 15 cents a share.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local remedies, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $100 for any case they fail to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75 cents. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Fiske, the best printer.

W. H. H. Stewart has changed his address from Buell to Sheridan.

Ralph Butler has been under the weather several days with a gripe.

Mr. D. T. Hodges has ordered his Itinerary changed from Butler to Dallas.

Sheriff Grant was at Black Rock and Falls City yesterday on official business.

Mrs. Lydia Ford is reported as seriously ill at the home of her son-in-law, Walter Sears.

The Heninger has just put in some new faces of job type and has some special nice stock for personal cards.

Mr. Ben Masters, the genial manager of the big mills business at Black Rock, was here to attend the Woodmen meeting Tuesday.

C. L. Starr was over from Salem Saturday and Sunday to spend the week end at Dallas and Falls City on business and pleasure.

Miss Elizabeth Young gave a leap year party at her home, Saturday night, in honor of Miss Lina Babitt, who will soon depart for her Nebraska home.

Dallas and Newberg played a game of basketball on skates at the rink last night before a large audience.

Course Dallas got away with it—28 to 8.

D. A. Madison and E. C. Kirkpatrick leave today for Toledo to appear before the railroad commission there in an investigation before that body brought by Hon. B. F. Jones regarding the C. & E. railroad.

August Koenigman, of Pioneer, had quite a serious accident Sunday evening. While splitting kindling wood he cut his left wrist so as to sever an artery and several nerves. It is to be hoped he will not be left in a crippled condition.

Barryman Frank Hildman reports a number of his rabbits lately. The fat bottles are taken from the place where left for cut-throats, and some times recovered empty in an alley or other out of the way place. The thief is very liable to get caught.

A prisoner in the city cooler got on the rampage the other day and battered the door of his cell. Chief Hildman says he is going to get a ball and chain and those who refuse to work on the streets can stand on Main street and be admired by the passing throng.

August Koenigman, of Pioneer, had quite a serious accident Sunday evening. While splitting kindling wood he cut his left wrist so as to sever an artery and several nerves. It is to be hoped he will not be left in a crippled condition.

Barryman Frank Hildman reports a number of his rabbits lately. The fat bottles are taken from the place where left for cut-throats, and some times recovered empty in an alley or other out of the way place. The thief is very liable to get caught.

A prisoner in the city cooler got on the rampage the other day and battered the door of his cell. Chief Hildman says he is going to get a ball and chain and those who refuse to work on the streets can stand on Main street and be admired by the passing throng.

August Koenigman, of Pioneer, had quite a serious accident Sunday evening. While splitting kindling wood he cut his left wrist so as to sever an artery and several nerves. It is to be hoped he will not be left in a crippled condition.

Barryman Frank Hildman reports a number of his rabbits lately. The fat bottles are taken from the place where left for cut-throats, and some times recovered empty in an alley or other out of the way place. The thief is very liable to get caught.

A prisoner in the city cooler got on the rampage the other day and battered the door of his cell. Chief Hildman says he is going to get a ball and chain and those who refuse to work on the streets can stand on Main street and be admired by the passing throng.

August Koenigman, of Pioneer, had quite a serious accident Sunday evening. While splitting kindling wood he cut his left wrist so as to sever an artery and several nerves. It is to be hoped he will not be left in a crippled condition.

Barryman Frank Hildman reports a number of his rabbits lately. The fat bottles are taken from the place where left for cut-throats, and some times recovered empty in an alley or other out of the way place. The thief is very liable to get caught.

A prisoner in the city cooler got on the rampage the other day and battered the door of his cell. Chief Hildman says he is going to get a ball and chain and those who refuse to work on the streets can stand on Main street and be admired by the passing throng.

August Koenigman, of Pioneer, had quite a serious accident Sunday evening. While splitting kindling wood he cut his left wrist so as to sever an artery and several nerves. It is to be hoped he will not be left in a crippled condition.

Barryman Frank Hildman reports a number of his rabbits lately. The fat bottles are taken from the place where left for cut-throats, and some times recovered empty in an alley or other out of the way place. The thief is very liable to get caught.

A prisoner in the city cooler got on the rampage the other day and battered the door of his cell. Chief Hildman says he is going to get a ball and chain and those who refuse to work on the streets can stand on Main street and be admired by the passing throng.

August Koenigman, of Pioneer, had quite a serious accident Sunday evening. While splitting kindling wood he cut his left wrist so as to sever an artery and several nerves. It is to be hoped he will not be left in a crippled condition.

Barryman Frank Hildman reports a number of his rabbits lately. The fat bottles are taken from the place where left for cut-throats, and some times recovered empty in an alley or other out of the way place. The thief is very liable to get caught.

A prisoner in the city cooler got on the rampage the other day and battered the door of his cell. Chief Hildman says he is going to get a ball and chain and those who refuse to work on the streets can stand on Main street and be admired by the passing throng.

August Koenigman, of Pioneer, had quite a serious accident Sunday evening. While splitting kindling wood he cut his left wrist so as to sever an artery and several nerves. It is to be hoped he will not be left in a crippled condition.

Barryman Frank Hildman reports a number of his rabbits lately. The fat bottles are taken from the place where left for cut-throats, and some times recovered empty in an alley or other out of the way place. The thief is very liable to get caught.

A prisoner in the city cooler got on the rampage the other day and battered the door of his cell. Chief Hildman says he is going to get a ball and chain and those who refuse to work on the streets can stand on Main street and be admired by the passing throng.

August Koenigman, of Pioneer, had quite a serious accident Sunday evening. While splitting kindling wood he cut his left wrist so as to sever an artery and several nerves. It is to be hoped he will not be left in a crippled condition.

Barryman Frank Hildman reports a number of his rabbits lately. The fat bottles are taken from the place where left for cut-throats, and some times recovered empty in an alley or other out of the way place. The thief is very liable to get caught.

A prisoner in the city cooler got on the rampage the other day and battered the door of his cell. Chief Hildman says he is going to get a ball and chain and those who refuse to work on the streets can stand on Main street and be admired by the passing throng.

August Koenigman, of Pioneer, had quite a serious accident Sunday evening. While splitting kindling wood he cut his left wrist so as to sever an artery and several nerves. It is to be hoped he will not be left in a crippled condition.

Barryman Frank Hildman reports a number of his rabbits lately. The fat bottles are taken from the place where left for cut-throats, and some times recovered empty in an alley or other out of the way place. The thief is very liable to get caught.

A prisoner in the city cooler got on the rampage the other day and battered the door of his cell. Chief Hildman says he is going to get a ball and chain and those who refuse to work on the streets can stand on Main street and be admired by the passing throng.

August Koenigman, of Pioneer, had quite a serious accident Sunday evening. While splitting kindling wood he cut his left wrist so as to sever an artery and several nerves. It is to be hoped he will not be left in a crippled condition.

Barryman Frank Hildman reports a number of his rabbits lately. The fat bottles are taken from the place where left for cut-throats, and some times recovered empty in an alley or other out of the way place. The thief is very liable to get caught.

Probate Court.

Estate of A. J. Byers deceased—final account heard and approved; administrator discharged.

Estate of F. M. McElfresh—same order.

Guardianship of Myrtle Withrow and Harold H. Withrow, minors—Mary H. Withrow appointed guardian.

Estate of Joseph Saver, deceased—final account approved and administrator discharged.

Estate of David Peters, deceased—report of sale of real estate filed, and set for hearing February 4th, at 10 o'clock a. m.

In the matter of the estate of Wm. Miller, deceased; bond filed and approved, and Frank Quenpel, Fabian Quenpel and Daniel Robinson were made appraisers.

Our county jail is now empty.

THE MAN WHO SWEARS BY THE FISH BRAND SLICKER is the man who has tried to get the same service out of someone else make

Clean, Light, Durable Guaranteed Waterproof and sold everywhere at 53.00

Wheat 80 Cents

Is the price we will pay for wheat at our mill.

Dallas Flouring Mills SWEENEY BROS., Proprietors.

NEW T-DAY Advertising under this head 1 cent a word each insertion

FOR RENT—A good home and barn on six acres near Dallas will be Ed. F. Good, Mutual phone 1225.

WANTED—Two houses and lots in Dallas. Must be close in. Apply at once to Henry Brown.

FOR SALE—A good home and barn on six acres near Dallas will be Ed. F. Good, Mutual phone 1225.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed executor of the estate of L. S. Perkins, deceased.

Executrix Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that up to February 5, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., I will receive bids to be opened at the Probate Court of Polk County, Oregon, for the construction of a road to be not less than two inches wide and not more than six inches deep, and also 20 cords of body fir wood, old growth. All bids to be delivered at the court house not later than September 1, 1908.

Wood Bids Wanted.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed by the court of Polk County, Oregon, administrator of the estate of Martha Fuchs, deceased.

Administrator's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed by the court of Polk County, Oregon, guardian of the person and estate of Mabel Smith, minor.

Guardian's Sale of Real Property at Private Sale.

In the county court of the state of Oregon for Marion county.

Guardian's Sale of Real Property at Private Sale.

In the county court of the state of Oregon for Marion county.

Guardian's Sale of Real Property at Private Sale.

Will Butz Dead.

Will Butz succumbed Friday morning to the creeping paralysis which has had him in its clutches for the last six months, and for the relief of which all medical skill seemed unavailable.

Death came gently and he passed away as one would go to sleep. Mr. Butz had been a resident of Dallas some seven years, and was greatly esteemed by all who knew him for his many noble and manly qualities.

Especially will he be missed by the members of the Le Creole club, where he was a regular visitor until illness kept him at home. His brother, H. S. Butz, left Saturday with the remains for the old home in Sturgis, Michigan, where he will be laid to rest by the side of his parents. Mr. Butz was 36 years of age and was born in St. Joe county, Michigan, in 1871.

He lived in that state until 1901, when he came to Oregon, where he stayed with his brother until the time of his death. He was the youngest of the five children of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Butz, of Michigan.

Mr. Kearns, manager of our electric light plant, and B. M. Adkins, of Independence, were Portland visitors today.

B. M. Goy left Tuesday to attend the hardwaremen's convention in Portland. He was accompanied by Almona Newton and his excellent eastern companions to the Woodman hall on Saturday night, January 24th, for one night only, when he will present the beautiful old fashioned comedy, "The Country Squire." Mr. Willard has been in Dallas before and our theatre-going folk know that they will witness a first-class performance. The Country Squire is said to be an intensely interesting comedy. It is written by James A. Kent and collaborated in by Mr. Willard, and we are promised something out of the ordinary. Woodman hall will no doubt be packed to capacity. Reserved seats now on sale at Belt & Cherrington's.

Arthur Starr has purchased of W. C. Brown the property where A. H. Harris now resides.

Mrs. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

Mr. Lee Willard

and his excellent eastern companions to the Woodman hall on Saturday night, January 24th, for one night only, when he will present the beautiful old fashioned comedy, "The Country Squire." Mr. Willard has been in Dallas before and our theatre-going folk know that they will witness a first-class performance. The Country Squire is said to be an intensely interesting comedy. It is written by James A. Kent and collaborated in by Mr. Willard, and we are promised something out of the ordinary. Woodman hall will no doubt be packed to capacity. Reserved seats now on sale at Belt & Cherrington's.

Arthur Starr has purchased of W. C. Brown the property where A. H. Harris now resides.

Mrs. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.

Mr. George Gates, who has been ill so long, has been taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

In the February number of Every body's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon cracked high finance, the magazine is crisscrossed with interesting, forcible narrative and a well-shere of romance and humor.