

INQUISITIVE CLARENCE

PINKIE PRIM

"What you doing?" asked her Maw. The answer came a-tripping; "Cleaning sidewalk, Maw, to keep Dear Grandpa from a-slipping."

Grandpa Prim heard her remark, And offered her a quarter. ("Still at that," - (beneath his breath.) "Perhaps I hadn't order.")

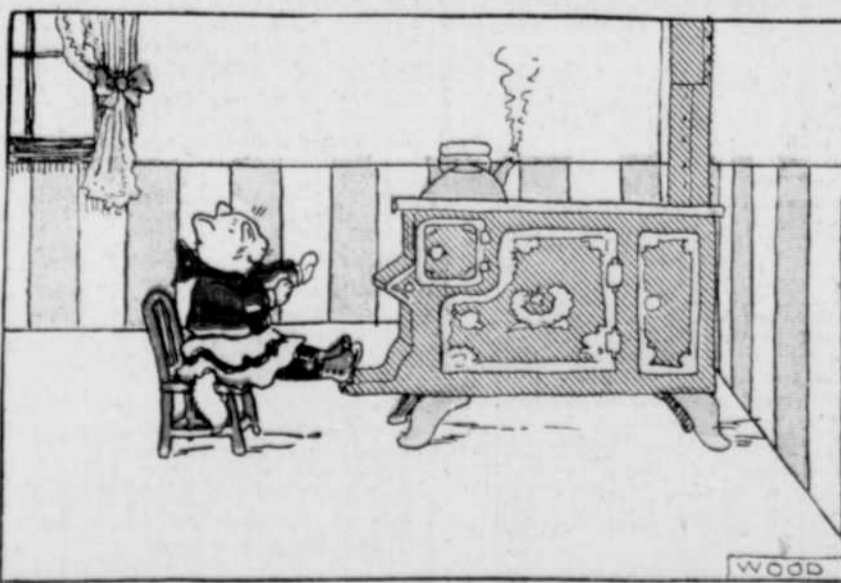

"I'm not working for reward," - The answer Pinkie gave him. - Grandpa couldn't understand; No, not at all, to save him!

Mama understood, though, well. (And so will many others, Who have little girls who try To always help their mothers.)

Ashes Pinkie sprinkled then; And with the task completed, Soon before the kitchen stove, Miss Pinkie Prim was seated.

Rubbers, leggins, both removed; (Her Uncle's gifts, - he's wealthy, -) Picture of health, Pinkie proved That exercise IS healthy!

ON G
S
ALL
Ca

Collections

I can do your cheap as any...
the line warn...
Bring me your...
the rest...
L. I.

We are agents...
Book company...
and who get out...
manufactured...
thing of the kin...
samples and give...
concern. Do not...
of the kind.

***
Sp

Nov
you
bra
Top

The
sted
that alway
one n

Full
Pu
ha
an