POLK'S CANDIDATES.

The Portland Journal Names These As Aspiring.

Registration of voters in Polk county is proceeding very slowly. Only about 300 have so far given notice of their intention to vote at the primaries in April. About half are Republicans and half Democrats, with a sprinkling of Independents, Socialists and Prohibitionists. The only man who has filed intention of striving for a nomination in the primaries is J. G. VanOrsdel, of this city, who will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for county judge.

Polk county will not elect a senator this year, the next redistricting placing Polk with Benton county. Senator Johnson of the latter county holding over until 1910.

For representatives from the Eleventh representative district, comprising Polk county, C. L. Hawley, who was defeated in the primaries two years ago by B. H. McCallon, will be a candidate again this year for the Republican nomination. B. F. Jones, of Independence, now joint representative for Lincoln and Polk counties will probably try for reelection.

For county clerk, E. M. Smith will try to succeed himself for a third term. Asa Robinson, of Independence, is mentioned as his opponent for the Democratic ticket.

For assessor Carl Graves, present incumbent, will get the Republican nomination without opposition. He will probably be opposed at the polls by F. E. Myer, Democrat, who formerly held the office two terms. For county treasurer, D. P. Stouffer and H. Holman, both of Dallas, will oppose each other in the primaries for the Republican nomination. Ed C. Dunn, of Dallas, will be one Democratic candidate who has signified his intention of trying for the place.

It is expected that the next two weeks will bring out other candidates for the various county offices, and the campaign will then commence to warm up. There are many independent voters in Polk, who, at election time, have a disquieting effect on candidates.

Mr. Peterson Succumbs.

Mr. A. J. Peterson, who has been ill so long succumbed to the dread destroyer of last Wednesday evening, but notice of his demise did not reach this office until last week's issue had gone to press. He has been afflicted with that dread disease cancer, for many months, but had been able to be up and around until the last few weeks, when it became necessary for him to take to his bed, and since then his death has been but a question of time. Everything possible was done by loving hands to alleviate his suffering, and the best of medical attention was had. He was a kind and obliging neighbor and had the respect of all in the community where he has lived so long, in the Oakdale neighborhood. He was laid to rest in the old cemetery south of town Friday afternoon, Rev. D. Julian Becker acting as the officiating minister and his remains being followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends. Deceased was born in Oland, Sweden, on April 11th, 1847, being at the time of his death 61 years of age. He came to Dallas in 1879 and was married to Miss Louisa Peterson in 1880, by whom he had four children, three of them dying in infancy.

AGAIN TO RUN.

The Dallas Lumber Company Begins Operations.

We have it from good authority that the Dallas Lumber Co. will begin the operation of their big mill across the Leacrole sometime this week. It will be good news to all to once more hear the old familiar whistle calling their large crew to their daily labor, and announcing the fact that employment is being given to scores of our inhabitants who have anxiously awaited the resumption of work for some months. We understand, also, that the Newberg train will soon once more be put in operation and the mill running there on full time.

SHERIDAN LOCAL DERAILED.

Three Dead and Many Injured, Some From Polk.

Tuesday evening on its way up the Sheridan train went onto a broken rail and threw the usually crowded train down an embankment near Forest Grove. J. A. McDonald, a former resident of Dallas, was among those killed. He was a marble cutter by trade and was well known all over the Willamette valley, having worked in almost all its towns, but of late years had made his home at McMinnville. Among the injured were Belden Grant, who was born and raised here, but is now a resident of Portland, traveling for Sig Sichel, tobacconist. Mr. Grant's injuries are not serious. G. B. Tucker, of Butler, had his back sprained. J. E. Brown, J. H. Brown and Mrs. J. Brown, of near Sheridan, were badly cut and bruised. A wrecking train was immediately rushed to the scene of accident and everything possible done for the help of the afflicted. It is a miraculous and fortunate happening that more casualties did not occur.

INDEPENDENCE.

Courtesy West Side.

J. A. Krebs, of Salem, passed through town Saturday enroute home from Portland.

Willard Craven left on yesterday's passenger for a business trip to Portland.

G. H. Irwin, of Portland, was in Independence yesterday looking up chances for hop deals.

State Veterinary Surgeon C. J. Kornek, of Salem, was called here the first of the week on a professional visit.

Otis Welch came up from Newberg Friday and remained over a day or two looking after business interests here.

Jake Brown, who has been very sick for several months, does not appear to improve greatly, but his friends hope for his ultimate recovery.

Miss Merle Shanahan, who is attending the State Normal at Monmouth this winter, is visiting the home folks at Forest Grove during vacation.

Mrs. A. Whitney, of Dallas, was in town the latter part of the week for a visit with Mr. Whitney, who has charge here of Willamette Valley Co. interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, of Lewisville, passed through Independence Friday enroute home from visiting relatives in Portland. Mrs. Lewis reports having had a pleasant trip.

P. M. Kirkland made a considerable shipment yesterday of Oregon grapes to the market in New York.

There is a considerable demand in the eastern market for that product.

Clarence Wagner, at one time editor of the Enterprise, was up from Portland Sunday. Jake Parker, with old time friends. He has a very warm feeling for the old paper and bid the new proprietors a hearty welcome unto their new friends.

Ford Parker was an arrival Sunday from California for a visit with his brother, Jake Parker, who resides across the river in Marion county. Mr. Parker has lived there for the past five years and has been engaged mainly at the carpenter trade.

Ernest Allman, of Airle, was in Independence Monday and took home a part of the household effects of Gus Spelling which he has purchased. Spelling is closing out all his household goods and making preparations to go, probably next week, to Snohomish, Wash., for a visit and probably locate permanently.

Grandpa Mitchell passed quietly away at his residence in Independence yesterday. Grandpa Mitchell had been in failing health for several weeks past, during which time he has been confined to his home. Space and time forbid an extended notice of his death in this issue, but will occur in Friday's paper. Mr. Mitchell has been a member of the local Masonic order for many years, and that order will probably have charge of the funeral services.

A Convention

has been called by the Local Option club of Dallas, to be held in the court house on February 20, 1908, at 2 p. m. Mr. Knodell, of Portland, will be present to assist in the organization. All friends of local option, regardless of party, are requested to be present and participate in the deliberations of the convention.

The Jar of Coughing

Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest rock. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the coughing, and heals the torn membranes.

The Modesty of Women

naturally makes them shrink from the delicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispensed with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicine entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only, sent to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., in one-cent stamps for paper-covers or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. It is sent to the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held strictly confidential. "Favorite Prescription" invigorates and regulates stomach, liver and bowels.

ESTABLISHES A HOSPITAL

Miss Agnes O'Keefe, of Seattle, Falls Long-Felt Want.

During the past week Miss Agnes O'Keefe, late of Seattle, but who has had much experience in Red Cross work all over the continent, has been engaged in the preliminary work of the establishment of a hospital at Falls City for the use of laborers in the many mills and logging camps at that place and at Black Rock. Miss O'Keefe has rented a building and has it about ready for occupancy. The loggers and mill men pay a certain amount each month per capita, and when sick or disabled have the free use of all that a first-class hospital stands for and have the privilege of naming their own physician. Miss O'Keefe thinks that we have just as good physicians and surgeons in this neck 'o' the woods as any where, and deprecates the sending away of our critical cases. She has had so much and varied experience in all kinds of accidents as to be an adept in the giving of first aid services, and is fully capable of taking care of any case until the surgeon arrives. The installation of a hospital will fill a long felt want at Falls City.

The Itemizer has often wondered why Dallas did not have a hospital for the care of its sick and wounded. There are many ideal localities for the establishment of such an institution around here, and we are of the opinion that it is greatly needed. Not a week passes but what someone is sent from this vicinity to a Portland hospital for better care than can be given them at their own home or boarding place. The result is that the Portland hospitals are continually over crowded, and the sick and injured do not really get the care they would under other circumstances. With our two big saw mills in operation and the big scope of country that Dallas could draw from for such an institution, an up to date sanatorium would surely prove a paying investment to its originators. We have everything in our favor for such an institution. We have the most salubrious climate in the world, one in which it is possible for the sick to recuperate as quickly as anywhere. We have in our midst as good a corps of physicians and surgeons as any other locality. Men of experience, who know what to do and how to do it. We would be able to eliminate the many disadvantages of a crowded city hospital—the noise of the streets, the crowded mixture of different diseases and hurts, such as make a continual wear on the nerves of a patient and retard their recovery even with the best of hospital attentions. The Itemizer would like to hear from our practitioners on this subject, and as to what, if anything, stands in the way of Dallas having a first-class hospital. We can think of no argument against such a proposition and believe that in these few words we have not begun to harry outline the advantages. Let us hear from some of our medicals, who can more fully enlarge upon the subject.

Joe Gets Too Previous.

Acting upon the petition, which has been filed with the secretary of state by J. D. Lee, of Portland, for the nomination of presidential elector, Attorney General Crawford today rendered a decision that the petition was void inasmuch as the direct primary law, section 2, excepts presidential electors. It provides for the nomination only of officers to be elected at the next general election. The presidential electors are held in November and the next election is in June the petition would not be legal.
