UGLOW CLOTHING HOUSE DALLAS OREGON

The Dallas college second team defeated the basketball team from Chemawa Saturday night, on the local gymnasium floor, by a score of 20 to 14. The two teams were very evenly matched, the game being close and exciting throughout. Rice played the best game for Dallas. The Indians are gentlemanly players, and their referee, Teabo, was fair and impartial.

The basketball game Saturday night between Dallas and Newberg at the rink was good and especially the last half of it. The Dallas boys were winners in the game, by a score of 13 to 20, but the home team is not discouraged and with a month of practise with a coach will be able to keep the best of them busy. Mr. Brown, one of the visiting team, is an expert skater every Saturday and Wednesday night and after the game gave a fine exhibition in fancy skating. A large crowd was present and many favorable comments were heard concerning the management of the rink and of the music furnished by the Rowland orchestra—Newberg Enterprise.

Be sure and see the moving pictures every Saturday and Wednesday night at the Colosseum.

The Dallas college champions will meet the last team from Muscatine, Iowa, on the local court on Thursday, March 6th. The Muscatine players have been making a tour of the United States, and have won nearly every game played. We think our players are invincible, and the best game of the season is looked for when the two teams meet at the gymnasium.

It will only be a few years until the vicinity of Dallas will be a regular paradise, with red apples, pears, peaches, prunes, cherries, berries, vines and walnuts. Many in bearing now, and coming into bearing all the time, with the berries, fruits and nuts. Where can any one find a better, prettier or more healthful place to live on earth?

The basketball game with Dallas College and the events connected with it reflect very little credit upon the institutions involved. Dallas College should be able to play in Corvallis without such hoodlumism as was displayed by both sides last night. However, neither Dallas nor O. A. C. are to be considered as wholly responsible for the disgraceful conduct at the armory or at the train. Athletic events between the colleges attract followers from the rougher elements in the college towns whose bad conduct is ascribed to the colleges concerned. In most cases such clashes are begun by town hoodlums and the hotter-headed in the student body join in. Every good student of O. A. C. regrets that any of their number should so far forget the honor of the college as to join in hoodlum attacks on a visiting delegation. In justice to the student body of O. A. C. it must be said that no such disgraceful conduct has occurred except where the delegation has come from Dallas College.—O. A. C. Bureau.

George Gorkhe is up from Portland. Roy Finesth came down from Eugene for an over Sunday visit with his parents here.

Prof. Wm Caldwell, Rosco Ballantyne and Miss Edith Yates attended the Faderewski concert in Portland Monday night.

C. N. McArthur, formerly of this county, has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for representative from the seventeenth district consisting of Clackamas and Multnomah counties.

H. G. Campbell has bought of Mrs. Hallock what is known as the Whitwood farm of 150 acres near the Oakdale school house, which he will sub-divide to suit the purchaser. This is one of the finest tracts of fruit land in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muscott have shipped their household goods back to Dallas and will hereafter reside here, he having again entered the employ of the Dallas City railroad. Their many friends are rejoiced to hear of their return to this city.

The parties defendant in the gallon house trial, Victor Gross and W. A. Butler, appeared before Justice Holman Tuesday afternoon and after preliminary hearing were bound over for appearance in circuit court under $200 bond each. The other cases against Emmitt and A. Flynn were dismissed, as they had retired from the business some time ago.

Saturday night being the time set for the organization committee of the Polk county Woodmen to meet with Ballston camp the members prepared a nice oyster supper and invited their families out to have a good time. The ladies came and brought baskets full of good things to eat, but the visiting committee made themselves conspicuous by their absence, but Ballston choppers do not have to depend on outside help to have a good time, so after some speeches by the members for the good of the order, and some songs and recitations by the young folks all present partook of a bountiful supper, after which to the music of Edwards Bros.' orchestra a social dance was enjoyed until near midnight, when they departed for their homes, all saying that those who did not attend missed the time of their lives.

ODD FELLOWS

Have Organized New Lodge at Monmouth.

Normal lodge, No. 204, was instituted on last Saturday night at Monmouth with a fine charter list by Deputy Grand Master C. L. Hawley, of McCoy. There were delegations from Salem, Independence and Dallas in attendance. The two former lodges doing the work. There were fifteen candidates initiated and the following officers were elected to look after the destiny of the new order for the coming year: Noble Grand, Ira Powell; vice grand, C. H. Newman, secretary, P. E. Chase; treasurer, Jas. Ralick.

Those attending from Dallas were: Horatio Morrison, E. M. Smith, R. H. Hill, H. Rudik, Fonso Manston, George Richmond; C. G. Coad, F. R. Rich.

Fiske, the best printer.

HEN FRUIT IS LOWER

Ma was kicking about the price of eggs and saying that eggs go up when the hens lay down, but, honest, don't you think it's a blooming shame for a couple hundred hens to stand around and do nothing with eggs at 21 cents a dozen? Why, our hens stand up by the fence and cackle and make faces at every one who goes by and just seem to glory in their shame. Well, every dog has his day, and the hens are having theirs, but I want to tell you there's no laying down or laying up anything on this job but a fierce appetite. It's lucky we have so many tempting things, at U. S. Langhary's, to satisfy your craving for good things to eat and drink. Everything is fresh and pure and we certainly sell the finest butter in this man's town. Now, don't we?
