If you want to be fully informed on how to vote intelligently on the amendments for the primaries, then you will receive from the secretary of state a pamphlet containing all the amendments.

City politics are not as yet warming up to any considerable extent. As a consequence in the second ward Joe Brown and George Myer will scrap it out for U. S. Grant's seat. Amos Holman will probably run in the first ward but the third has as yet no candidate. It is the off year in city politics.

As will be noticed elsewhere the electric light people will heretofore collect their bills at the office. The itemizer opposed that way of collecting in the case of the water works, believing that Dallas had not acquired the population to make such a step necessary for the good of all concerned, and have seen no reason to change our opinion.

The Willamette Valley people are making extension changes in their city office by the addition of new counters and shelving for the carrying of more electric stock and the transaction of the office business. They will then have one of the neatest offices in the city, capable of attending to all the office business of the three towns of Monmouth, Independence and Dallas.

This week has seen unwonted activity in the political line, with a number of new aspirants for official fame. The tickets of the two old parties are now about filled up, with the exception of school superintendent on the democratic ticket and sheriff on the republican, and it is more than likely that no one will be found early enough to run against the present aspirants.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bowman, of Cleon, Eastern Oregon, are down on a visit with his mother, Mrs. Henry Black, of this city, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Berry, of near Baleson. Mr. Bowman will return soon, but Mrs. Bowman will spend the summer here.

POLITICS UP TO DATE.

GETS FIRST GAME OF SERIES AT PORTLAND.

The first game of the series to decide the championship of the two basketball associations of Oregon was won last night by Dallas, when she met the Multnomah club team and defeated them by a score of 18 to 16. Our boys were the champions of one section of the league and the Multnomahs the champions of the other. By defeating the Multnomahs last night on their own floor they surely have gained the championship of the state, as the game here next Saturday night on their own floor will be a walk over.

A large crowd was present at the game last night, and it was nobody's fault that it was decided to play in the first half in Portland's favor, but in the last half with some of his unusual plays and in the last minute saved the game for Dallas.

LIBRARY ENTERTAINMENT.

A Delightful Program Has Been Arranged for this Benefit to be Given on March 27th.

Active interest is being manifested in the lecture-recital, "Echoes From Dixieland," by Mrs. Sylvia W. McLeize, the well known dialect reader and impersonator, who will appear under the auspices of the Library Association at the Colosseum skating rink, on Friday evening, March 27th. As an interpreter of plantation folk lore, Mrs. McLeize is second to none; her conception of the negro is perfect; her impersonations are inimitable. Hers is no ordinary reading; it reproduces the indelible charm of the negro cadence, its melody, its quaintness, its touch of the grotesque, and its underlying tone of pathos, and her work is characterized by a complete naturalness and absence of exaggeration. Those who attend this entertainment on the 27th, have a rare treat in store for them. Mrs. Leulah Caldwell, a well-known singer of Portland, will sing a program of Southern music which will harmonize well with the spirit of the evening. Messrs. Korlasko and White have generously donated the use of the skating rink for the occasion, and a big crowd is expected to be present. The Public Library is a popular cause with everyone. Admission for adults, 25c. Children, 15c. A skating session will follow the entertainment.

Candidates' Column

I hereby announce my candidacy for county

School Superintendent

of Polk County, subject to the republican primaries, April 17.

H. C. SEYMOUR

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for

REPRESENTATIVE

on the democratic ticket to be voted for at the primary election on April 17.

If elected I shall support the people's choice for United States Senator in Congress without individual preference.

WAYNE D. HENRY

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the democratic nomination for the office of

COUNTY TREASURER

of Polk County, subject to the republican primaries, April 17, 1908.

If elected, I promise a faithful performance of the duties of the office and a painstaking regard for the welfare of the people's money.

EDD C. DUNN

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for the office of

COUNTY JUDGE

of Polk County, subject to the vote of the republicans. My platform is Good Roads.

C. O. HOLMAN,
Bridgport Precinct.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the democratic nomination for the office of

COUNTY CLERK

of Polk County, Oregon, subject to the will of the voters at the primary election on April 17, 1908.

FRED S. CROWLEY,
Falls City, Oregon

We are authorized to announce the name of

J. E. SIBLEY
as a candidate for the office of

subject to the will of the voters at the democratic primaries. Mr. Sibley assures us that if elected he will devote his attention to the improvement of the county roads.

J. C. VANORSDEL
Candidate for

of Polk County, Oregon, on the Democratic ticket, to be voted for at the primary on the 17th of April, 1908, will submit the following platform:

First—I will advocate good roads and a fair distribution of the road tax. It is not just to collect taxes from the outlying districts, and not give the tax payer his share of the road work to make it more convenient for him to reach market.

Second—No waste of public money; strictest economy consistent with a good administration of county affairs; a square deal, and good treatment for everyone.

Third—I will try, if nominated and elected, to work in harmony with the county commissioners so far as I think is for the good of the people.

Fourth—Should the voters of this county decide that I am the proper person to fill the office of county judge, I will give to the management of the business of the county, the same energetic and careful attention that I have given my own business.

Fifth—I believe in the direct primary. I think this is one of the agencies in the hands of the elector to bring the government nearer to the people, and take it out of the "boss rule" giving us "government of the people, by the people and for the people."

I will say in conclusion that I serve the people of this county from 1898 to 1902 as sheriff, and you can look into my record, and if found wanting, you can turn me down the same as you should any man who was unfaithful in his trust.

J. G. VAN ORSDEL.

WOLVES OF FRANCE.

A Picture of Their Ferocity in the Eighteenth Century.

"The ferocious wolf," said a nature student, "is the most perfect expression of enmity, blood-thirst and hate. His jaws are the most terrible of weapons. His slashing bite can break the leg of a buffalo, and the noise of it when at work in a sheepfold resembles nothing so much as the incessant cracking of a heavy sledge." He took down a book.

"Here is what the wolves of France were like," he said. "This is a letter from the famous Duchess of Orleans, dated at Marly, Feb. 9, 1749:

"I pack of wolves commit fearful ravages. They have devoured the postman of Alencon and his horse. Two of the tenants attacked a tradesman near Mous, one springing at his throat in response to his shrieks, two dragged him by the neck to his help. One drew his sword and ran a wolf through the body, on which it turned and seized his new assailant by the throat. His comrade came up and beat the first wolf, but before it had killed the man, Mousch's other wolf had seized the second dragon from behind and dragged him down. Finally when effective help arrived both the wolves and one wolf were found dead. The other had got away as for the tradesman, his leg was so pitilessly torn that it had to be amputated above the knee."—Cincinnati Enquirer

MONMOUTH.

Many strange faces on our streets.

A. N. Halleck is reported as greatly improved.

The sound of the saw and hammer are heard.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Halleck are out from Nye Creek on a visit.

Tomatoes and sweet corn ought to be in demand this fall at the cannery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fogel, of Independence, were Monmouth visitors Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. H. Flower, of Falls City, spent Saturday and Sunday in Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Robertson were doing business in Independence on Wednesday.

The equinoctial storm is on in great style, the groundhog is out and good weather near.

Several loads of lumber passing through every day, slawboost arriving by carload almost daily.

Farmers are improving the time by plowing and sowing. Quite a number are planting out small fruits for canning purposes.

A large and appreciative audience was in attendance at the normal chapel on Friday evening to listen to the oratorical contest. All did credit to the institutions represented. Eugene claiming the distinction of first place, being declared the winner.

There was a double tragedy at Monmouth Monday morning that caused some stir in the usually quiet town of Monmouth, when Uncle Newman went to the well for water and discovered two bodies in the well, an investigation followed and it is thought to be a murder and suicide. One of the parties had evidently attempted to escape, followed closely by the other, when passing the well the one had made a mistake and fell; the other following too close could not save himself and went in; both miserably perished. When discovered the bodies were still warm, but life had fled. Thus A. N. Halleck's cat and his enemy, the unknown, had finished their race, whether intentional or not will probably never be known.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

The new postal department ruling makes it necessary for us, on April 1st, to drop from our subscription list all who are over one year in arrears. The amount then due, from each delinquent, will be placed in proper hands for collection. We hate to be arbitrary in the matter, but have no choice—it is either do this or be excluded from the mail. All you have to do is to pay up to date, and then we are allowed to give you credit for another year.

Young Men's Clothes
Ederheimer, Stein & Co. - Makers

THERE'S a genteel atmosphere about an Ederheimer-Stein suit that makes it the choice of most young fellows. The makers know how to combine style, smart patterns and expert tailoring in a way to get effects entirely new, original and exclusive. You'll say so yourself when you try one on.

You'll like the invisible stripe effects, mist grays and browns. Sizes up to 38.
