Our editorial supplement will be discontinued until after election, as we need more advertising space.

J. A. Buchanan, formerly principal of our public school, has been nominated for senator by Douglas county republicans.

Candidates will be charged for advertising just the same as any other advertising—50 cents an inch, with the exception of where half tones are run, then the price is $1 an inch. This price is for four insertions.

The Nordby-Craven Investment Co. has filed articles of incorporation with J. W. Nordby, Anna Craven and N. D. Simons as representatives. They have capitalized at $5000, and will do business in real estate in Portland.

Quite a number of republican committeemen met here yesterday and held a meeting in the afternoon in the court house. As to what was the nature of the business transacted we were unable to find out.

There are some who seem to have a queer idea of the duties of our night watch. He is employed by and paid for by our business men to protect their property from fire, robbery and other disasters, not to chase drunken men or boys all over town.

Hon. C. L. Hawley, republican candidate for representative, was a caller yesterday. Mr. Hawley says the death knell has been sounded to the old methods of legislative transactions, and that we may hereafter look for legal legislation.

Mr. J. F. Johnson has secured the contract for building a 10-foot cement walk and curb around the Collins building from the postoffice to where the postoffice was formerly located. Judge Collins also contemplates a cement walk around his residence property.
