Wyman, 20 years old, employed as a waitress in the Point Bellanca pavilion, at Tacoma, had gone to an upstairs room, in the pavilion, recently, she was found dead by a girl friend, Miss Wyman, is believed to have been seized by a fainting spell and in falling, struck a couch in the room, breaking her neck. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Lena Moseman, of Independence, Ore., a brother and two sisters.

O'Bryan Will Grow Brewing Barley.

Charles O'Brien, a farmer, who resides northwest of Independence, will experiment at the coming season with a new variety of barley which he got through the Salem Brewing Co., of Salem. This barley is intended for brewing purposes. Its yield is said to be higher than most other varieties. It is stated by parties near Salem who have grown it that it will yield from 40 to 70 bushels to the acre. Brewing barley has a higher or market value than the common feed variety, so that the growing of brewing kinds gives much promise. This variety was evolved from Minkianke, expressly for Mr. O'Brien at a cost of four cents a pound. It will be watched with considerable interest by the people of this section.

GOOD NEWS.
Many Dallas Readers Have Heard and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the laudations of the kidney pills in Dallas are glad to learn that profit relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is but no more, thanks to Don's Kidney Pills. Reliable people are telling the good news of their experience with the old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. Sarah Burritt, living in Independence, Ore., says: "We used Don's Kidney Pills in our family and found them to be an excellent remedy for kidney complaint. My husband was suffering from lame back and received but little benefit from the roughest but little benefit from the roughest. My son was also annoyed by a weakness of the kidneys. In both instances Don's Kidney Pills cured the trouble and when I had a bearing-down sensation in my hips and a tired, languid feeling I decided to try Don's Kidney Pills. They proved just as satisfactory as my case and I am glad to see an opportunity to recommend them."

Sheepmen Should Organize.
J. H. Mulkey was in town, Monday from his farm north of Monmouth. Mr. Mulkey runs sheep and goats on his farm and heretofore has derived a splendid revenue from them. The recent fall in the price of wool and mohair will affect the wool growers of Polk county very seriously. Recent quotations are 10 1/2 cents for wool and 18 cents for mohair. It will be observed that this cut is less than one-half what wool formerly sold at. What the growers are going to do to meet this situation is not yet determined, but in all probability, according to Mr. Mulkey, this fall in price will result in a thorough organization of the wool and mohair growers of the Wil-

Change of Venue Granted.

Attorneys McCain and Vinton, who are representing A. J. Hembree, who is charged with the murder of his wife at Sandlake, made a motion for a change of venue, claiming that the defendant was unable to obtain a fair trial in this county. Articles published in the Headlight, with the fact that a number of the citizens had signed a protest against Governor Chamberlain paroling Hembree for the murder of his daughter, were made special point, to show that the people of this county had made up their minds in the case and that Hembree could not get a fair trial. District Attorney McNary, who was ready to try the case at this term of the circuit court, did not oppose the change of venue very strongly, as there would be great difficulty in obtaining a jury in Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Henry, of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work." He says: "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Expectorant and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by Stearns Drug Co.

How do You Like This?
There is a great variety of republicans in this great old state of Oregon, since the primary law came into vogue. There are the real old-fashioned kind, which vote the ticket because it represents a principle. But this kind seems to be growing scarcer each succeeding election. There are the near kind, which are almost persuaded to vote the ticket. And then again there are those (republicans so-called) with populist tendencies, and the demagogic kind, which forget there are principles at stake and vote for the individual interest of the party. The latter kind are growing very numerous. They are the kind who say they believe somewhat in socialism, but if they could realize their own minds they would really see that they are anarchists, not socialists. For, as we understand the broad definition of the two terms, socialism and anarchy; socialism means the highest type of government by the governed, while anarchy means no government, but chaos.—Sumner American, republican.

Wants More of it.
The people of Oregon have finally come to their senses politically, and have stepped out boldly for independence from ring rule, with statement N. 1. There are other things, they can take the lead in, and we hope they will. For instance, take the initiative in abolishing the electoral college and the U. S. senate, have only the house of representatives. Men who represent the people and not corporations. The electoral college is a useless appendage to the country. It joggles with the popular vote of the people, and we want instead to be free from all such useless bonds. Take the initiative, all such things for the good of the country.—Mt. Scott News.
