SOME MERCHANTS ARE SLEEPING

And are really unconscious of the amount of trade that is drifting away to small surrounding villages. We, at least, intend to show enough push and energy to regain what others have so carelessly allowed to stray away. We believe in getting up and hustling and bringing back to Dallas what rightfully belongs to her. By this method we believe we help every merchant and every business man within her boundaries.

If sleep you must,
Sleep you may,
But we keep on
Traveling just the same.

In the case of Charles Blanchard, charged originally with assault with intent to commit rape on the person of Wilma Lee, a young girl near Independence, the grand jury, while returning an indictment yesterday, materially reduced the charge, for the members were not convinced that there was any intention to commit rape, and therefore the charge simply stands "assault and battery," which removes it from the ranks of a felony technically, and makes it merely a jail matter. Probably with this in mind, Blanchard yesterday entered a plea of "guilty" and will come up for sentence tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.—Salem Statesman.

Jack McDonald Dead.

Baldy Gilner phoned us last evening that Jack McDonald had passed away that afternoon at the Belvedere hotel of erysipelas, which developed from a carbuncle on his neck with which he had been afflicted for the last week. Mrs. McDonald desired some Woodman to take charge of the remains, and Mr. W. V. Fuller, an old friend of the deceased, went down this morning for that purpose. Jack will be laid to rest by the Woodmen of Beaverton camp tomorrow, he having lately purchased a home there, and transferred his membership from Dallas camp. Mr. McDonald was not even expecting to be sick, as the first of the week he summoned Art. Hayes to come down, and make a trip to Southern Oregon on some land deal. The poison got into his blood and it did not take long for it to do its work and make way with one of God's noblemen. Mr. McDonald was 44 years of age, and child, who are terribly afflicted with their great sorrow. His father lies in our cemetery, dying about a year ago. Jack carried $1000 in the Woodman.

B. M. Guy	Jos. R. Sibley
Artificer	D. V. Harris
Bugler	Carl Williams

The arms and amunition arrived last Tuesday night and now the boys are happy, they having their first drill with them last night. The guns are what is known as the improved Springfield of thirty caliber, and of the model of 1903. They are something like the old Krag, but slightly altered, and would weigh, we suppose, about the same. There are seventy guns, and with them came belts and the new sword bayonet, which is a wicked looking thing, something like an immense dagger. They are now used principally for ornament, and to give the men enough to carry. Some 400 rounds of amunition also came. Everything is now here, except probably a third of the uniforms which are expected daily. Large and convenient lockers have been provided for each man in the basement of the Woodman hall, and in these they will also keep their guns together with their uniforms until racks are provided. It is quite a sight to watch the stuff on hand which the government has provided for the proper training of her state militia. All the uniforms are of the best make, of good and serviceable cloth—no shoddy stuff there. There is a complete line of tents and equippage, tin cups, plates, knives and forks, cooking utensils, canteens, haversacks, etc. In fact we take it that our men are pretty well provided for, and they can have no kick coming.

This afternoon Major C. C. Hammond, of Eugene, commanding the battalion to which company H. belongs, will arrive to examine the commissioned officers as to their qualifications.

A rifle range has been procured on the Boise place, about one and a half miles from town, and on Sunday, July 26th, the boys will have their first target practice.

Mr. Bennett has resigned as second lieutenant, owing to his weight and years disqualifying him for the position, and has accepted the appointment of quartermaster sargeant, a position that he has filled before, and for which he is particularly well qualified.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured.

with local applications as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free. F. J. Cheney & Co., props., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, price 75 cents. Take Halls Family Pills for constipation.

SMITHFIELD.

Mr. Amos Jones is visiting his parents.

Hay baling will soon begin around Smithfield.

Sam Smith's children are recovering at last from mumps.

Cherry picking has been in style for a few weeks among the ladies.

Mr. Reed and Miss Myrth went to McMinnville Sunday, returning Monday.

Mr. Jack Lynn visited at the Fisher home Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. J. Myer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myer was down on their farm where Grandpa Townsend lives, Sunday.

Mary Townsend fell and hurt her neck quite badly while washing the kitchen ceiling but is alright again.

Hot weather once more. Haying is in order in our pleasant little community, there being about two hundred acres of hay.

Mrs. Nan Sparks and little son, Leon, has been visiting her nephew, James Reed, returning to Sheridan the fourth to be a short time with Mrs. Joe Ridgeway a sister of Mr. Reed, and from there she will join her daughter in Portland to accompany her to the sound for a few weeks.

NORTH DALLAS.

Mrs. Geo. Wilson, of Idaho, is home for a few days visit with her mother, Mrs. Sneed.

Mr. Canfield who has been here for several weeks returned to his home on Salmon River.

Mrs. Frank Brown and son, of Portland, were visitors at the home of Henry Brown and wife.

Claude Conlee has purchased a hay baler and expects to start it soon as possible after these showers.

Mrs. Vick and daughter, of Falls City, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Ebbe, the first of the week.

Mr. Lee writes it was 104 in the shade last Saturday at Pendleton. That certainly beats Dallas a line or two.

Mrs. Herbert Lee and sons spent several days last week in Pioneer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Koenaman.

Mrs. Anne Hinshaw is planing on building a new house on her property here as soon as she can get the lumber hauled.

The weather man can not please us all for while these showers are fine for the gardens they are not so nice on the hay that is cut.

Mrs. Peterson and son, of Michigan, are here, the guests of her brother-in-law Jake Hanson. She expects to locate here if she finds a place to suit her.

The Eastern Star held their last session Tuesday evening until after vacation. They had good things both to eat and drink.

The little child of Rannie Riggs is rapidly recovering from a severe sick spell.

Miss Edna Scott went to Albany this morning for a few days' visit with friends.

Our Falls City correspondence went astray this week, although it was mailed from there at the usual time.
