This is the point which we have figured out to provide for our customers, the makes which time and experience have proven superior. There are so many brands of clothing, hats, shoes and furnishing goods which have a national reputation, that it is not easy to choose the foremost. WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY LAUGHARY'S GROCERY.

Rushing Business.
Sav, can you tell me who wrote that fool song they are singing now-a-days? No? Well, if I catch him I will soak him one. Father worked over time on me this morning. I told you he warned me about falling in love and it has affected a cure. I can recommend the dose he gave me to every fellow that is affected the same as I was, and many of them need it, too. Thirty years of age is my limit now, and you won't hear of any more love business from Willie—the only thing that I will love in the future will be my work. I am going to bury my thoughts of Julia in the advance ages to be set forth as to why you should trade with my boss. In the first place, everybody in this country knows him and has a right to call him by his given name. I can't call him that 'cause it's too familiar, but most everyone does. And I want to tell you that every one who has had a vision shop, the old man included. Why we've got to work to get out our orders. This business is growing so fast that we ain't got time to get acquainted with our families 'cept on Sundays.
