

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

When a man has a bank account his wife often contributes by adding an L to it.

Often what is gospel to one generation is superstition to a later.

There are many people who can't distinguish between loyalty and obsequy.

It is better to have tried and won than never to have tried at all.

You need much patience and perseverance when you cajole a wise man and some wisdom when you cajole a fool.

Alimony may be defined as first paid to the injured.

Buying experience is very much like paying doctor's bills.

Always try to do your best, but not your friends.

It is often hard to be honest, but not necessarily honest to be hard.

It isn't a bad thing to know what not to do—unless you do it.

There is something wrong with a woman who doesn't mind a flirtatious husband—unless he belongs to another woman.

Useful Curious.

I'm making a collection of rare and curious coins. To get a goodly number I've girded up my loins. For heavy foreign pieces I do not care a strain. I make a specialty of those turned out by Uncle Sam.

No coins from foreign countries are what I have in mind. Though curiously minted, and striking of their kind, no brassy Chinese money, square holes and on a string, no Asiatic pieces, that swartly travelers bring.

I do not care for coppers. Dug up from ancient Rome. I want the modest pennies. They turn out nearer home. The coins of ancient Britain. To me do not matter. Nor even Spartan money. Cut out from low grade steel.

The dollars of our daddies. The bank notes crisp and new. The bright and yellow eagles. Will for my purpose do. The common five cent nickel. The quarter that will pass. Or any make or pattern of money in that class.

Had Paid For It.

"You seem to think you know more than your father," said the irritated parent to the flippant young man just out of college.

"Does it annoy you, dad?"

"Annoy me, my impudent young rascal! Of course it does."

"Well, dad, there is another way of looking at it. You can feel that $1,500 a year you have been paying for me hasn't been wholly wasted."

Cautious.

"Come over and see my dog. I have a great pup. He can do all kinds of tricks, and you ought to hear him speak."

"What does he speak?"

"He barks, of course."

"All right, I'll come, then. I only wanted to find out if I was afraid he might speak 'Curfew Must Not Ring Tonight.'"

Useful Accomplishment.

"Yes, he is given to walking the floor in his sleep."

"Can't he break himself of the habit?"

"He doesn't want to. It is the finest thing in the world when he has to walk the floor with his baby at night."

No Ring to Show.

"I hear that Florence is engaged."

"It must be a mistake."

"Why so?"

"She always wears gloves."

Undoubtedly.

"Our minister spoke feelingly this morning about the beauties of poverty."

"Yes. Did he tell you how they are best seen?"

"No. How?"

"From the deck of a stumpy yacht with a powerful and handsome fieldglass."

Must Go Up.

When man sometimes gets caught between the devil and the sea. The only thing for him to do is climb a tree.

Probably.

"She wants a divorce."

"What for?"

"So that she can qualify for another."

An Unsuited Pardon.

Among the stories of that former governor of Texas familiarly known as Sam Houston is more than one amusing tale.

There was a financial agent of the penitentiary who had warmly opposed the election of Governor Houston, but was particularly anxious to retain his own pleasantly lucrative position. Found in receipt of a petition in which the man's years of faithful service and special qualifications for the place were set forth in glowing terms by himself.

The governor sent for him and said gravely, "It appears from this petition that you have been in the penitentiary eight years."

"I have," was the reply.

"And during that time you have performed faithfully every duty that has come in your way to the best of your ability?"

"I have," answered the agent, his courage swiftly rising.

"Then, sir," said the governor, with the air of one conferring a priceless favor, "I pardon you out."

Put Out of Commission.

Abernethy was supposed to influence people by a brusqueness amounting to absolute rudeness. It is related that one day a very volatile lady took her daughter, who was ill, to see him.

"Which of you two wants to consult me?" said Abernethy.

"My daughter," replied the elder woman.

Abernethy then put a question to the girl. Before she had a chance to reply her mother began a long story. Abernethy told her to be quiet and repeated his question to the girl. A second time the woman began a story, and a second time he told her to be quiet. Then she interrupted him a third time. "Put your tongue out," he said to the mother.

"But there's nothing the matter with me," she exclaimed.

"Never mind, put your tongue out," he commanded.

Thoroughly overawed, the woman obeyed.

"Now, keep it out," said Abernethy, and he proceeded to examine the girl—Grand Magazine.

One of Hook's Practical Jokes.

Theodore Hook forged 4,000 letters to 4,000 tradesmen and others requesting them to call on a certain day and hour at the house of a wealthy widow, Mrs. Tottenham, in Berners street, London, against whom he had conceived a grudge.

These people began to arrive soon after daylight. The racket continued until nearly midnight. They came by fifties and hundreds.

There were 100 chimney sweeps, 100 bakers, fifty doctors, fifty dentists, fifty accountants. There were priests to administer extreme unction and Methodist ministers to offer last prayers. There were fifty confectioners with wedding cakes, fifty undertakers with coffins, fifty fishermen with baskets of cod and lobsters. They pushed, quarreled and fought, and the police were called out to prevent a riot. Finally among the hoaxed ones came the governor of the Bank of England, the royal Duke of Gloucester and the lord mayor of London, each lured thither by some cunning pretext. A police investigation followed, but the perpetrator was not detected.

A Wonderful Bowman.

The Romans were very skillful bowmen, although they discarded the weapon in warfare, trusting to the charge and to hand-to-hand fighting. Many of the Roman emperors were famous archers. It is said that Domitian would place boys in the circus at a considerable distance from him and as they held up their bows and the fingers outstretched he would send the arrows between them with such nicety and accuracy of aim that he never inflicted a wound.

The wicked emperor Commodus boasted that he never missed his aim or failed to kill the wild beast that he shot with a single arrow. He would set a shaft in his bow as some wild beast in the circus to die, and your living criminal condemned to die. Just when the furious animal was springing on his prey the emperor would strike it dead at the man's feet. Sometimes 100 lions were let loose at once in order that he, with 100 arrows, might kill them. With arrows the heads of which were semicircular he would sever the necks of ostriches in full flight.

A Talent For Balancing.

The pleasant coffee room of the old Star and Carter at Richmond, which was burned down in 1820, was patronized by England's statesmen, politicians and writers. On Saturday evenings it was regularly visited by a middle aged gentleman of rather broad stature, with gray hair and a large shirt collar which formed a conspicuous feature in his attire. He would dine always alone at a particular corner table, and after dinner it was his habit to lean up before him a pyramid of tumblers and wineglasses, which he topped with a decanter. Occasionally the whole structure would topple over and litter the table with its ruins. Then the middle aged gentleman would rise, pay his bill, including the charge for broken glass, and depart. The waiters knew him well. He was Thomas Babington, Lord Macaulay.

Curious Greetings.

A French journal has been looking into the question of how different races express the compliment "How do you do?" and presents some curious examples. The Koreans, for instance, do not give or imply any offense when they greet each other with the remark, "You do look old." Russians say, "My Allah preserve your beard and cover it with benedictions." Among a tribe of Fiji Islanders the correct form of salutation is to pull one's ear. A Carolinian Islander kisses before his friend, whose foot he grasps and slaps himself vigorously in the face with it. In the Sudan a traveler was addressed by a native chief as "Mighty sun," the said chief finishing up with "Glory to thee, O splendid moon," the remark being accentuated by expectorating in the traveler's right hand.

Greatness.

There is a kind of elevation which does not depend on fortune. It is a certain air which distinguishes us and seems to destine us for great things.

It is a price which we imperceptibly set on ourselves. By this quality we usurp the deference of other men, and it puts us, in general, more above them than birth, dignity or even merit itself. —La Rochefoucauld.

A Big Jump.

There is one recorded performance in ancient Greece which, if it is to be credited, probably no one living could approach—that amazing jump of Phajlus, who, with the aid of weights and a springboard, was said to have cleared fifty-five feet.

SIRES AND SONS.

Secretary Root is the only cabinet member who wears a silk hat down to work every day.

Senator Milton, the new senator from Florida, has a heavy black mustache and long black hair. He looks like a Spaniard, which he isn't.

Zenas Craze, who gave $100,000 to help along Peary's arctic expedition, is one of the (Ladies) papermakers and a brother of United States Senator Craze.

James M. King, aged eighty-two, is one of the oldest residents of Worcester, Mass., and has lived in the same house on Cambridge street for more than seventy years.

Young Willie K. Vanderbilt 3d has so many toys, it is said, that he has to have them insured for $2,500. Many of his toys have been especially made for him. They are richly engraved and finished in gold and silver and insured against all ills save death.

Dr. Thomas Lambert Hilton has just celebrated his hundredth birthday at St. Leonards, England. With the exception of Sir Henry Pitman, Mr. Hilton is the oldest member of the Royal College of Surgeons. He served in India from 1829 to 1846.

The death of General Stephen D. Lee leaves only two surviving lieutenant generals of the Confederate army. They are General A. P. Stewart, ranking lieutenant general of the Confederacy, of Illinois, Miss., and General Simon Bolivar Buckner of Kentucky.

Prince Augustine de Iturbide, grandson of the great liberator of Mexico, heir to a throne, man of the world, educated, widely traveled and a member of the Jesuit order of many European capitals, has forsaken the ways of the fashionable world and joined the third order of St. Francis. In Washington fashionable society Prince Iturbide was widely known for many years.

Church and Clergy.

A recent increase has brought the salary of Rev. Dr. James Henderson of the Dominion Methodist church at Ottawa up to $3,500, making him the highest paid Methodist preacher in Canada.

Methodist Congregational church, in Chicago, founded by Dwight L. Moody when he bought up a defunct church, paying $10,000 cash and giving a mortgage for $12,000, has just canceled the mortgage.

Rev. C. W. Merriam of the Second Congregational church, Greenfield, Mass., is one who thoroughly enjoys his automobile. He has made it a practice of taking members of his congregation out for a ride and has already taken more than a hundred on short tours.

An unusual record is that of the Rev. Felix N. Boff of the Roman Catholic diocese of Cleveland. Recently, upon the death of Bishop Hovstmann, Father Boff became for the sixth time administrator of the diocese. He is seventy-seven years old. Each time that he has taken on his shoulders the affairs of the ecclesiastical jurisdiction it has been because of the death of the bishop.

Pen, Chisel and Brush.

Raphael considered that a meat diet was not good for a painter and therefore lived principally on dried fruits, such as figs and raisins, with bread.

Marion Hill, whose stories of the stage are appearing in the magazines, is a daughter of Barton Hill, who in his time was leading man for Edwin Booth and other great actors.

A Polish author named Strahinsky has written to protest against the Russian censor who altered a sentence in his novel which read "He was the slave of his passions" to "He was the negro of his passions."

Paul Bartlett of New York has been given the contract for the modeling of statuary to complete the decoration of the pediment of the house wing of the capitol in Washington at a fixed cost of $75,000. Of this sum probably $70,000 will be paid to Mr. Bartlett.

The Royal Box.

King Alfonso has pardoned three of the men implicated in the attack on himself and Queen Victoria two years ago.

The Korean crown prince, accompanied by Prince Ito, will, it is reported, shortly leave Japan to tour the United States.

Queen Mand of Norway has innumerable hobbies and recreations. She devotes many hours to sewing, wood carving and bookbinding and in regard to the latter work has turned out some really beautiful specimens of the craft.

It is said that Sandringham House is to be bestowed on Queen Alexandra as a dowry house. English people feel that the gift would be most appropriate, for Sandringham is associated with the queen's whole English life and with the entire lives of her children and grandchildren.

College and School.

Figures show that schoolteachers as a class are long lived.

Since 1901 the public school attendance in Germany shows an increase of 9.1 per cent.

Professor Oswald Redlich of Vienna university has accepted an invitation to lecture at Harvard in the spring of 1910.

There are indications that coeducation will be introduced in the common schools of Berlin in the lowest classes and up to the point where the girls begin to get instruction in domestic science.

A Plot That Failed.

A story of a plot to kidnap Queen Victoria and turn England into a republic is told in Peter Latouche's book, "Anarchy: Its Methods and Experiments." This coup d'etat was planned to take place in 1888, the year of the great dock strike in London, but was frustrated by the success of the strikers and the unexpected sympathy and help shown them by the moneyed classes. This did much to conciliate the masses, on whose help the revolutionists relied.
