Why cannot some enterprising resident of this section put in a nursery? It seems to us that it would be a paying investment. OLD DALLASITE DEAD.

Henry Howe Passes Away at Bellingham, Washington.

News reached Dallas yesterday morning of the death at Bellingham, Washington, the night before of Henry Howe, so well known in this midst, and a brother of our respected townsmen Robert and James Howe. Mr. Howe was a native of Indiana, being born in Newtown, November 11, 1832, came to Oregon in 1852, settling near Dallas with his parents, since deceased, and the family have grown up in this vicinity. Deceased was married to Miss Amerira Jenkins at Goldendale, Wash., in 1867, and resided there and at The Dalles for a while; and to them was born Nellie and Frank Howe, who now reside in Bellingham; another brother, Zach Howe, is a resident of Seattle. Mrs. Howe passed away in 1898, at the old family residence which J. G. Van Orsdel now owns, and which Mr. Howe built. Henry Howe was for years identified with our business capacities in a number of ways, and was for some years cashier of the Dallas City bank. He had acquired considerable means and left here well fixed financially. For ten years it was ye editor's pleasure to live as his next door neighbor and in our close intercourse with him we never found one departure from his high standard of what a true gentleman should be. His word was his bond, he was an affectionate husband and father, a true christian, a man among men in every respect. That he has gone to the reward awaiting the good and true is as certain as that the sun will rise tomorrow. May he rest in peace, and the many sincere friends left to mourn him take comfort from the fact that the above assertion is true.

The remains will be brought to Dallas tonight and tomorrow afternoon be laid to rest in the Odd Fellows' cemetery beside his beloved wife, who had passed away before him to the other shore. The funeral services will occur at the Methodist church at 2 p. m.

The cause of his death it has been impossible to learn at this writing.

Monmouth Woman Dies.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Dempster Treadway were held at the family home at Monmouth yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Jeff, of the Salem Unitarian Brethren church officiating. The body was brought to Salem and interred at 3 p. m. in the Lee Mission Cemetery. Mrs. Treadway was 68 years of age and her death is said to be the result of a gradual decline. Her husband died in April, 1907. She is survived by two sons, A. W. and C. Treadway. For several years the family resided in Salem at Trade and Winter streets.—Statesman.

At the home of her sons, near Independence, Oregon, at an early hour Monday morning, November 16, 1908, of complication of affliction, Celinda, widow of the late Dempster Tredway, at the age of 68 years, 2 months, 15 days.

S. Celinda Slack, was born in Jefferson County, New York, September 1st, 1850; was married to Dempster Tredway February 10th, 1864; to this union were born three children, all sons, two of which are still living, the youngest son having died in 1898, and the husband in April, 1907.

The family have resided in Oregon the past few years.

REBEKAHS REMEMBER

Faithful Services of Mrs. H. B. Cosper as Grand Secretary.

The Rebekah meeting at their hall last evening was the occasion of one of those pleasant happenings which serve to draw fraternal bonds closer and assist greatly in the perpetuation of such organizations. The incident was gotten up as a surprise to one of their members and was so in every particular. For eight consecutive years Mrs. H. B. Cosper has served as grand secretary of the Rebekah Assembly. While at times her duties are quite arduous, yet she has faithfully fullfilled them in every respect with honor to herself and to the well being of the order, as is shown by her continued reelection to the same office. Her sisters and brethren here concluded that a nice testimonial from her home lodge would be fitting recognition of the esteem in which she is held personally and a tribute to the value of her services. At the proper time last night Miss Marie Shelton made a neat speech embodying these facts, and Mrs. W. L. Soehren, in behalf of the lodge, presented Mrs. Cosper with a beautiful cut glass fruit dish. The recipient was entirely taken aback by the presentation, but managed to express her feelings sufficiently to reply in a few words of thanks that fully expressed her great appreciation. Ice cream and cake were then served to the large number of members present, and quite a time had in social reunion.

CAMPBELL & HOLLISTER.

Did Not Materialize.

Judge Scott was over from Salem this morning to get our citizens interested in a good roads covention to be held here in the near future, and he called a preliminary meeting for 10 o'clock this morning. No one turned out at the time apointed, and we expect the judge went back home a little disgusted. The truth is, as the Itemizer has said before, that the people of Polk county are taking no particular interest in such a movement. Their reasons for not doing so are good and sufficient unto themselves, at least. The present agitation is, we believe, one instigated by auto manufacturers for a boulevard from Portland down the state, and creation of a road commission at the next legislature. In all likelihood the road would be built on the east side, yet the counties of the west side asked to assist in paying for it. The truth is, Polk is building good, permanent county roads. We are doing it well, economically and without any increase of taxation. Then why should we enter into any state agreement to help build in other counties, increase our taxation, and in a measure let the work slide that our county court has so well begun? We understand that Judge Scott at Independence yesterday perfected arrangements to hold a convention there on December 7th.

Chief Odom fell over a teeter board left sticking through the fence last night and broke 17 legs, as he remarked.

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

LAUGHARY'S GROCERY.

I was reading abont a fellow who was asked what he had had for lunch, and he said: "A piece of baconine, some almost shanghigh bearies, (eggs) a grunt and a cackle, (ham and eggs) a cup of near coffee and some not quite pie." Well, you wont find any near coffee around this shop; that is if we sell it to you for coffee. Our eggs are fresh—no eastern or packed eggs. It is easy for a grocer to give you a good run for your coffee money if he isn't too stingy. Our coffee is better than ever before. It all depends upon how much a grocer is willing to pay for his coffees. You can buy the old Govt. Java or you can buy near Java which comes from Brazil, but whatever we sell you whether it is Java, Mocha and Java or Costa Rica, you may know it is the best grade that can be sold for the money. Loughary has a big coffee trade and that helps to give you fresh roasted coffee any old day you want it, and not the tastless kind which has lost most of its strength. I expect a lot of ladies in the store today to buy their coffee.

WILLIE.

From Willamina.

According to Attorney Charles J. Schnabel, it was a former citizen of Oregon who last Monday shot and killed the clerk of the Supreme Civil Tribunal, as well as wounding the presiding judge at Leipsic, Germany. The man is Wilhelm Grosser, who had been defeated in a contest over a will in that court. Grosser lived at Willamina and employed the local attorney as a legal adviser. The latter says he was a most peculiar man, living in a villa of German architecture and in the style of a fudal lord. Among his other peculiarities, Grosser absolutely refused to come to Portland, fearing to be served with papers concerning dreaded litigation. He left here some months ago and returned to his native land.—Oregonian.
