

PLEASE LEAVE IT DOWN

MAJOR OZONE

THE WIND IS RAGING OUTSIDE

Subscription (It's worth it)

PHONES: 88

Patronize One

In addition to the babies, Taft has had a him.

After all Uncle Joe C your tariff revision as sucking dove.

They say strikes are a ity. But we could do w at this period.

Great is publicity. It can elect a president fr of what it used to cost.

The restaurants are r revisions, likewise, with ing bread and butter fr

The ministers who v often get texts from s should know that oft furnishes the text of the

One chancellor may the emperor of Germat it takes baby jumpers, r ing bottles to quiet the na.

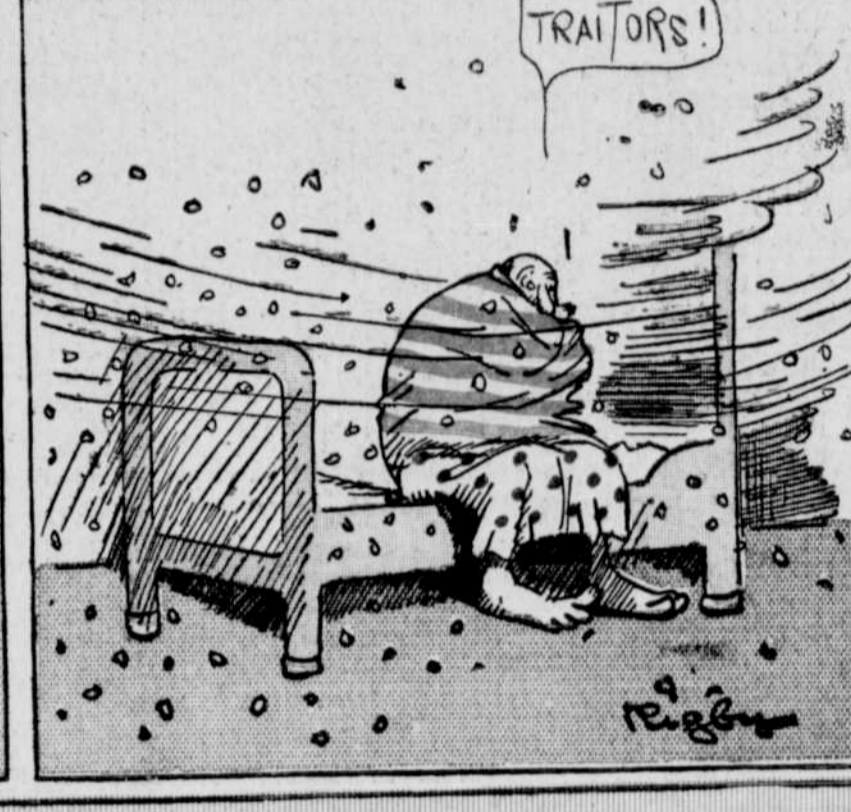

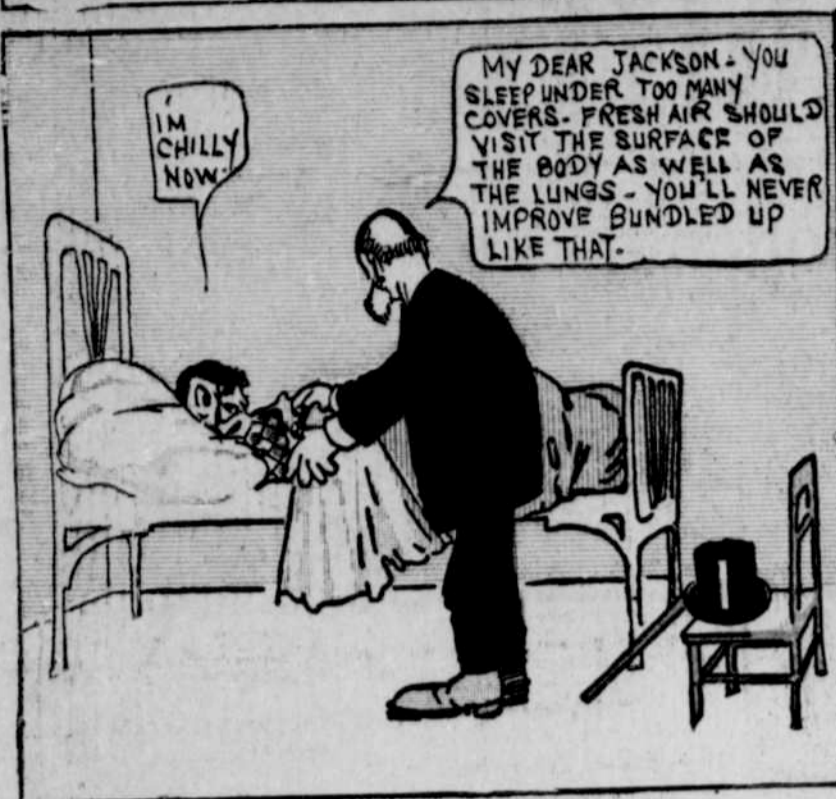

The record being mac ket ball team is cert proud of, not only the but the state at large name of The Oregon, t tising the entire secte b-ys have played sever won all of them by goo fact six of them were y played with what were crack teams too. Our ing news this week is altitude of the Montana affected them. It was a might prove a serious h outlook now is that our b ly beat the record of the on their trip last year, l number of games played e the end of next week the plied with our new book las will begin to assum place on the map. Here' they keep up their lick.

Our city council has l levy at 10 mills for the Last year when it was mills the Itemizer took that it was not sufficient provements contemplated, have the same objection the 10-mill one. Results that our forecast of last y rect. The city official's hampered in their improv all year by lack of suffi and much that was conten ply had to be left undone. he desire of the Itemizer vocate a high tax, being t sious of paying such on o than any one else. but as tain improvements have ed, necessary to the grow city, we would not hold th this juncture. If it couk mbury to build the inters would be possible to final 20 more blocks of macada next year. Under a 10-mil will be impossible, and just ber will have to be fixed ti money sufficient to pay street intersection will cos in the neighborhood of $3 one can see that the fixing o would take a bunch of mont are notes against the city e next year, totaling a co amount, that must be taken are promises to pay and mu After this is done and the ru penses of the city paid, wh small item in themselves, th going to be much, if any, n for further improvement of o We would have liked to so made at the limit of 10 mill special water tax of 1 7-10 at brary tax of 1 mill added No library tax was levied l but $200 was given to al The putting of the tax as we would have given our harass fiers a little leeway in finan ters and obviated to a great e troubles of the past year.

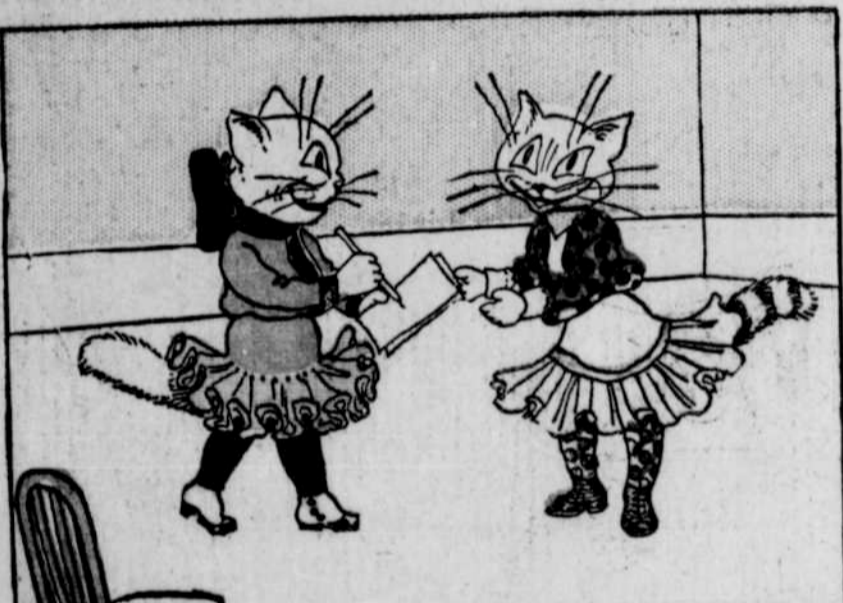

Jas. Elliott, of Bellevue, h Chester Gardner and family o port.

Chas. Ward, and family, o are here to spend Christmas tives.

Our basket ball team is still antly proceeding on its east Since our last issue they hav games at Spokane and Amcor ning by good margins. Their l was played Monday night at A where the altitude did not effe Tuesday and Wednesday they to seeing the National Park on lowstone, and tonight will play ings, Mont. Friday night they so play there, Saturday going t dan, Wyoming, and then back ings for a third game. Our w ter failed to arrive before going

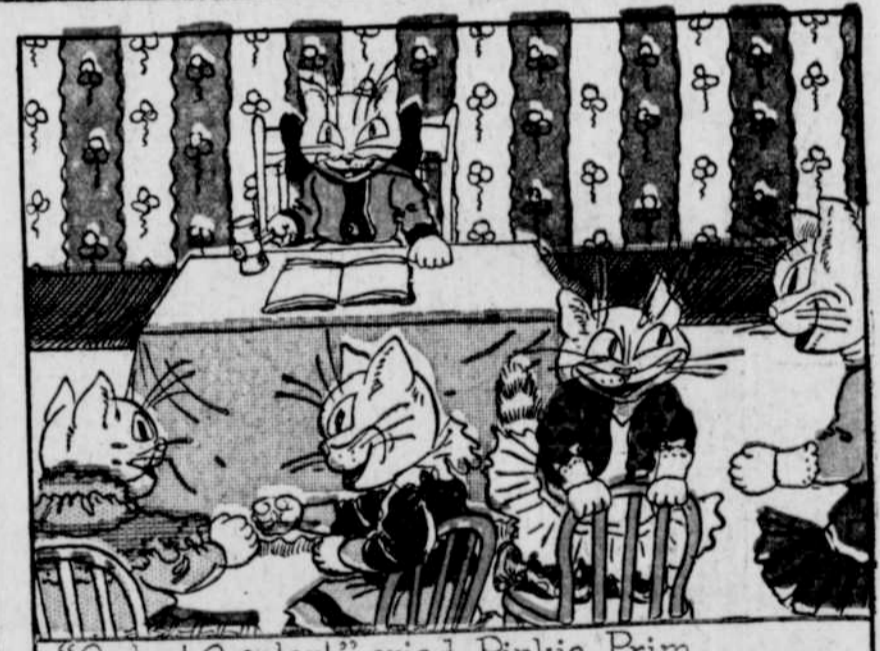

PINKIE PRIM

Pinkie Prim started the Smiling Club, The object of which was to teach; - A smile beats a frown, The whole world round The smiler is ever the peach.

Many girls gathered at Pinkie Prim's, - The parlor her Maw let them keep, - And soon they all in discussion were Of gossip profound and quite deep.

"Order! O, order!" cried Pinkie Prim. "This meeting is not called in fun! Which is the better, a Smile or Frown?" "A Smile," answered all, then, as one.

"Unanimous vote!" said Pinkie Prim, "We will now proceed to proceed! The meeting's adjourned, so all may show The sentiment in the good deed!"

Every time that a strange girl got A nod, a kind word and a smile; - Why?, she would ask. The Club Member'd say: - A Smile beats a Frown, full a mile!

Pinkie Prim's Smiling Club still exists. It's getting new members each day. Present appearances indicate That the Smiling Club's here to stay.