WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

ELLIS GROCERY.

Say, I thought I was a goner the first of the year, when I heard my boss had sold out, but I tell you, Mr. Ellis is O.K., for he gave me a raise in wages, and told me I could work some in front this year. Think of it, right out in front where the oranges, bananas, candy and everything good to eat is. You bet I will snap all of the buttons off of my new waist Grandma gave me for Christmas, or please him.

A man never realizes how little he really knows until a kid begins to ask him questions. I know a boy lives down near us who has his father nearly crazy trying to answer such fool questions as "Why will they bury the last man?" and "Why can't a chicken cross its legs?" I remember when I was a little kid once asking the governor why the man in the moon got full but once a month, but the old man didn't answer me all at once. He gave me four lickings, one for each quarter. I guess I was a green cheese to ask him. Speaking of cheese, we have the article from all nations. You don't need to go aboard to get a taste of it, either. A trip to this store is all you need to get in close touch with your favorite cheese. Fine and fancy is our full cream cheese direct from good old York State. And McLaren's Canadian Club cheese from Toronto, Ontario.

Sometime Tuesday morning a regular down east snow storm struck our little berg, such as we seldom experience in Oregon. It same mighty near being a blizzard during Tuesday morning, for the north wind did blow something fierce, and the snow came in gusts so as to particially obscure objects only a block away. As we go to press it does not look very much better. Think the weather man lied.

CONTEST CASES.

Several Homstead Entries Up for Testimony.

County Clerk Smith having been notified by the register of the Portland land office that contests have been filed in the case of several Siletz homesteaders, and further instructed to take testimony in the same, he has been occupied so far this week in attending to the matter, L. D. Brown acting as stenographer. Contests have been filed as follows:

U. S. vs Richard Paul.
U. S. vs Quitman B. Smith.
U. S. vs Agnes Z. Knoble.
U. S. vs James H. Dunn.
U. S. vs Wm. H. Butz.
U. S. vs Jas. Crowther.

So far testimony has been taken in the Paul, Dunn and Crowther cases, and the work is now going on in the others. Quite a number of witnesses have appeared to substantiate the claims of those in controversy. The testimony taken will be submitted to the general land office for final adjudication.

THOSE O. & C. LAND GRANTS.

March 1 is the date set for the first clash beteen counsel for the railroad and attorneys for the government in the famous land grant suit of the United States against the Oregon & California company, involving title to land in this state worth between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000.

The time was set by Judge Wolverton in the United States circuit court this morning on motion of W. D. Fenton, representing the railroad company. Monday B. D. Townsend, special assistant to the attorney general, who has had the case in hand for the government, made a motion that a date be decided on for the first hearing. At that time Judge Wolverton was unable to set an exact date, owning to the jury cases on the calendar. During the latter part of February all these cases will be disposed of and Judge Wolverton, therefore, set the argument for March 1.

The hearing set down by Judge Wolverton this morning involves the argument of the demurrer filed by the railroad company to the charges set forth in the suit in equity brought by the government. Practically all the legal points in the case will be brought up in the argument of this demurrer and the decision will virtually be final, so far as the lower court is concerned.

Quite an array of legal talent will be in court representing the different interests in the case. For the railroad company there will be Peter F. Dunne, of San Francisco, general counsel for the Southern Pacific, William Singer, Jr., of San Francisco, and W. D. Fenton, of Portland. Associated with Mr. Townsend for the prosecution will be Tracy C. Becker, also a special assistant to the attorney general.

Senator Gearin will appear for the Union Trust company, of New York, trustees of the Oregon & California. In the event that the demurrer is overruled by the court, Senator Gearin will answer the government's complaint, officials of the company having decided some time ago not to demurr to the suit

MAIL CARRIERS CATCHING IT.

They are Surely Having a Picnic in Making Good.

A man who would not feel sorry for Uncle Sam's mail carriers during this severe stretch of weather, surely has but little of the milk of human kindness within his breast. They are having an awful hard time to make good with their patrons, but are doing their best to that end. On most of the routes the roads are simply impassable for a vehicle, and the hard crust that has formed makes it awful hard on the horses legs. In some places drifts have formed to such a height as to prevent getting through at all until the road has been broken by heavy teams and sleds. On the two routes out from Salem in Polk county the carries will, we understand, make no attempt to go out today, they having tried it yesterday and failed. The Salem stage and Derry hack are making it all right, but that road is so well traveled that it has been kept broken in. The Buell mail carrier went through on horseback so far, but of course it is an awful hard job. Milt Grant went out on his regular afternoon trip Tuesday and it took him until late next day to get back. He may start again today. Bert Wells got as far as Remingtons this morning on foot, and will take this car to Smithfield this afternoon, and will then work his route back home afoot, that portion of it. Tomorrow morning he will go by train to Perrydale and work the other portion. In this way, if this keeps up, he can serve his customers every two days, except one or too. How would you like to have the job?

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine it is unequaled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

TO THE GARDEN ABOVE.

One of Our Fairest Flowers Transplanted to Her Heavenly Home.

Monday morning the sweet spirit of Miss Lucile Dalton freed itself from its entombment of human clay and took its flight for those sublime regions above. Her death came as a shock to the entire community, although not unexpected, as she had not enjoyed good health for some months, and for three weeks her condition has been extremely serious. Until the last hopes were had by her relatives and many friends that her constitution would be able to withstand the ravages of the dread disease with which she became afflicted, tuberculosis, but the powers above had ordained that she had brightened our lives long enough, and at 11 o'clock Monday morning she was called to her everlasting and beautiful home beyond the skies. No sweeter flower was ever granted a period of life in this earthly garden than Lucile. Her sunny temperament, graceful and obliging ways breathed sweet fragrance on everyone with whom she came in contact, and her transplanting leaves a void than can never be filled. Knowing her intimately as we did since a small child, and being thoroughly familiar with her many beautiful qualities of heart and mind, we cannot help but sympathize most deeply with her terribly bereaved parents with whom we have been close neighbors for so many years. On the threshold of womanhood, with its joys and sorrows opening out before her tender gaze, she was taken away from the kind, loving care that surrounded, and the endearing arms that now ache so badly to once more entwine her ethereal body in a fond embrace. Lucile was gifted with many acomplishments of mind, and if permitted to live would have finished her college course with honor to herself and pride for her parents.

Miss Lucile Dalton was born in Independence, Oregon, on September 18, 1890, making her 18 years old at the time of her death. She came with her parents to Dallas in 1899, when her father, E. V. Dalton, was elected county treasurer, and has since lived here. Her remains were laid to rest in the Odd Fellows cemetery Wednesday afternoon, the funeral services being conducted from the Evangelical church at 1 o'clock, of which Sabbath school she was a member. The funeral was preached by the pastor, Rev. H. H. Farnham, and he laid special stress on her sweetness of disposition and excellence in her studies. Many floral tributes from her bereaved schoolmates evidenced the grief they felt at her demise, and six of her boy school mates acted as pall bearers, they being Vern Launer, Geo. Gurney, August Risser, Lew Ballantyne, Walter Ballantyne and Clarence Reynolds. The college was dismissed for the afternoon and the students attended in a body, marching to the church.

The bereaved father, mother and brother have the sympathy of the entire community, she being the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Dalton, and only sister of Maurice Dalton. May their grief be tempered with the knowledge that she has gone to a more beautiful home, where sorrows are unknown and joys everlasting.

A TRIPLE WEDDING.

Old Dallas Young People Make the Happy Event.

We take the following from the Spokane Review regarding some of our former Dallas boys and girls:

Three children from one family, two sons and a daughter, were married at Cedonia by a single ceremony on New Year's eve. They were the children of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dashiell, of Dallas, Oregon, who for several years have been ranching in the vicinity of Cedonia, their parents residing at the old home still.

The couples wedded in the little Cedonia church are. George Dashiell and Miss Alith Walker, formerly of Waverley; Robert Dashiell and Miss Myrtle Myers, both of Cedonia, and Clara Dashiell and Sydney Singleterry, of Kettle Falls.

The house was packed by friends of the happy couples who came from miles around to witness the ceremony. A New Year's dinner was served at the Dashiell residence to the following relatives: Mr. and Mrs. Carter Singleterry, Kettle Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Linton, Cedonia; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hergesheimer, Cedonia; Mr. and Mrs. John Young, Cedonia; Mr. and Mrs. Carter, Cedonia; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker and youngest daughter, Waverly; Elmer and Harry Rodenbaugh, Bert and Albert Dashiell, of Cedonia; Wm. Dashiell, of Krupp, and Rev. C. C. Gibson, of Davenport.

MONMOUTH.

Louis Murdock spent the holidays in Monmouth.

V. D. Butler, our electrician, recently visited Albany friends.

O. S. N. S. work is now going nicely since a pleasant holiday season.

Several report the frost so severe as to burst the water pipes to their wind mills

Robert Chase and family, of Dallas, made his parents a flying visit Sunday.

Mrs. Moffitt, of Newport, visited friends in Monmouth during the holidays.

Shoveling of snow is a diversity in Monmouth at present, the first in two years.

Mrs. Davis Foulks spent the holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. Grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Rhodes, of Salem, recently visited friends and relatives in Monmouth.

Miss Ethel Newman deputy post mistriss of this place, visited her friend Miss Sterns at Lebanon during the holidays.

Mrs. Showerman, of West Salem, spent the holidays with her nieces Misses Loretta, Nellie, Orva and Cora Smith.

Mrs. Mary H. Withrow surprised a great many last week by marrying G. A. Peterson, a farmer of Benton county. They will reside in Monmouth.

Poultry Association Meeting.

The Polk County Poultry Association held a very successful meeting at the court house last Saturday. The officers elected for the year are C. I. Ballard, president; Lee Smith, vice president; C. S. Graves, secretary-treasurer; executive committee, B. I. Ferguson C. P. Cornwell, A. G. Rempel. Much interest is now being taken in the breeding of pure-bred poultry and the association has plans in view of adding an exhibit of pigeons and pet stock, and to hold a greater and better show this fall.

The Roswell Bewley tract of 3000 acres near Sheridan has lately been sold to Portland parties.

A Living Producing Home for Sale

One of the most beautiful living sites in Falls City is offered for sale at a bargain. The land is 2½ acres in extent, and is the best strawberry soil in the world. It is already planted to 40 English walnuts and some 60 apple trees, out 4 years. An adjoining acre can be had for $750. Almost new modern house of nine rooms, with many conveniences, good barn and outbuildings. The cash price is $2,500, and it is a snap for a person who wants a fine location, sure to double in value, and whereon one can easily make a living. Address or see the Itemizer.

Former Dallasite for Governor.

C. A. Johns, ex-mayor of Baker City, and candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Oregon two years ago, may shy his castor into the race this year, according to information that comes almost directly from him. The ex-mayor does not say he will be a candidate, but admits he wants to be Governor of the state at some future time, and speaks of it as one of his life's ambitions. When he ran for the office before, Republicans there were not harmonious, and factional fights caused him to experience weakness at home. It is different now, and many high up in the party councils think Mr. Johns can command the undivided support of not only Baker county, but several surrounding counties as well.

NORTH DALLAS.

Leon, Addie, Paul and Martha Brown and Guy Lee have been on the sick list.

The school house was cleaned and all the old seats stained and varnished during vacation.

Mrs. Will Brown entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul, from Pitner most of last week.

This snow may be all right for the boys, but it will cause suffering among cattle and other farm stock.

Our teachers returned Sunday evening from Junction City, where they spent their vacation with their parents.

At last the sidewalks and all the crossings are in to the city limits. They are greatly appreciated this kind of weather.

George Conlee and his crew of men came home from Mill Creek last Sunday. They returned Monday with a new supply of provisions.

A Reliable Prediction.

The Oregon weather forecaster, who inhabits the Oregonian tower in Portland, sent out the glad news that a warm wave was in sight, and that we would be soon rid of our snow. He must have meant a cold wave, as we awoke this morning to find another good fall of snow, our water pipes on the bum, our electric lights not knowing whether they wanted to burn or not, and all the telephones out of commission. Surely a delightful state of affairs, when we went to bed happy in the belief that all would soon be well. We are not doing any predicting.

About Water Rights.

Portland attorneys and irrigation experts generally believe that yesterday's decision of the Oregon supreme court, holding that the congressional act of 1877 limits all riparian rights subsequently acquired, except to the use of water for domestic purposes, will have a beneficial effect. Beside doing away with the useless waste and holding of water it will prevent any person or corporation from holding a power or irrigation right for speculative purposes.
