

DOINGS IN THE TOWN.

Comings and Goings of Citizens of Dallas and their Friends.

For headache Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. M. Hayter, dentist, Wilson building. Sewing machines for rent at L. D. Daniel's.

Mrs. Anna Craven asks her itemizer to be changed from Portland to 339 35th street, Oakland, Cal.

J. H. Moore, who used to run a feed store here, is now living at Mill City. He was in town Tuesday.

Come in and let us equip your phonograph with the new 4-minute attachment. We have them in stock—L. D. Daniel.

Stop itching instantly. Cures piles, eczema, salt rheum, tetter, itch, hives, herpes, scabies—Doan's Ointment. At any drug store.

Our stock of records is now complete. Do not fail to call for any record you want. If it is in the catalogue we have it.—L. D. Daniel, Dallas, Ore.

Edward F. Purdy, a former Dallas boy, is now a large cement contractor at Hoquiam, Wash. He has been here last week visiting his old time friends.

"The Wasting of Natural Resources" is the title of an interesting article in the February Popular Mechanics, which every American citizen should read.

Good for cuts, burns, bruises and scratches, but especially recommended for piles—DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

"Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil" is the best remedy for that often fatal disease—croup. Has been used with success in our family for eight years.—Mrs. L. Whitecar, Buffalo, N. Y.

Take De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are for weak back, backache, rheumatic pains and all kidney and bladder troubles. Soothing and antiseptic. Regular size 50 cents. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

A malicious accident occurred on road street the other day. The laundry wagon was distributing goods. The cats came along, fastening the horses, and hequatted. The belly band broke, the tugs came off, and in the twinkling of an eye the driver found his horse completely turned around in the shafts.

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY ELLIS GROCERY.

Mr. Caldwell has sold his pool room to J. E. Foster, of Roseburg, who will move to the Uglow building in the room lately occupied by J. C. Shultz.

Oakdale has a debating society that meets every Saturday evening, and furnishes recreation, amusement and intellectual development for the residents there.

It is now Captain Holliman, our general merchandise being elected to that position Thursday night by Company H, vice C. D. Chorpeneing, who moved to Eugene, Captain Mead, of the McMinnville company, conducted the inspection. A sort of preliminary inspection was held the following evening by Major Hamlin, of Portland.

Engelhart, cashier, of the First National is a firm believer in the efficacy of fresh air as a preservative of good health. He has built his family sleeping apartments so that a continuous current of pure air circulates through them, and says he has found it healthful in every particular.

State of Oregon, City of Toledo, Lucas county, ss. Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the city of Toledo, county and state aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every case of catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.—Frank J. Cheney. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 4th day of December, A. D. 1888.—A. W. Gleason, notary public.

Flake, the Best Printer. For headche Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Something in post cards at Daniel's.

W. J. Wagner has taken charge of the blacksmith shop at the Wagner agricultural farm, and would like to see all his old customers.

Kodol digests all the food you eat. If you will take Kodol for a little while you will no longer have indigestion. It is pleasant to take, acts promptly. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

At J. L. Castle's Cash Grocery you can get anything you want in the feed line. His goods are fresh and of the very best quality, and he sells as cheap as you can get them anywhere.

Dr. A. B. Starbuck was called to Portland the other day to see his aunt, Mrs. Ella Starbuck, who is dangerously ill with dropsy. Mrs. Starbuck was a resident of the Kola hills vicinity for many years.

Remember that the Twenty-Second annual Clearance Sale of E. Jacobson & Co., McMinnville, will positively close on January 30th. See their ad on this page, and avail yourself of the bargains they offer.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It cures the cold by gently moving the bowels, and at the same time it is soothing for throat irritation, thereby stopping the cough. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

Sheriff Grant has turned real estate agent and yesterday consummated the sale of the Ab Henneberry place in Tillamook county where the tragedy occurred to W. J. White and George Glanfield for $2250. It consists of 155 acres of good land with some improvements thereon.

The Dallas Woodmen installed the following officers last Tuesday evening: Consul, H. C. Seymour; adviser, G. A. Smith; banker, V. E. Johnson; clerk, W. G. Yassall; escort, A. Griffith; watchman, Robt. Reed; sentry, C. Griffith; managers, H. W. Stump, W. A. Ayers, W. H. Keuber and J. Stinson.

A. S. Bible died at Sheridan January 9th and was buried next day in the Masonic cemetery. Mr. Bible had lived in Sheridan since 1878. He conducted a general merchandise store and dealt in cattle. He owned a large ranch at the head of the Nestucca, known to sportsmen far and wide. Mr. Bible was born in Tennessee, March 25, 1834.

Mr. O. H. Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Laper, reached their home at Lowen, in eastern Oregon, sooner than they expected. Their trip was a good and good weather for the trip, and like it very well there. They are getting an abundance of moisture here this winter, and the prospects for crops and water for stock for the coming season is excellent.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Woods left Sunday for their six week tour to Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Gough will take Mr. Woods' place at the depot, and Roy Minter, place of Oakland, Oregon, will take Mr. Gough's place at telegrapher. Mr. and Mrs. Williams went to Portland with them, and Mrs. Williams will go on to Alhambra for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. F. J. Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Argie J. Miller, of Craig, Nebraska, who have been here on their wedding trip to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. E. Truxx and other relatives, left Friday for Portland, where they will take ship for San Francisco to visit relatives and friends there, and at Sacramento and Los Angeles a few days. They expect to reach their home the last of this month.

The most noted article that Everybody's Magazine has published since the "Frozen Finances" days is "The Poison of the Street," by Frederick S. Dickson, in the February number. It strikes a blow and a telling one, at margin gambling in Wall street, and echoes the cry of the many who have "tried their luck" and been lured on to destruction. The article is straight from the shoulder and authoritative.

Before he made his reputation by writing plays, Victorien Sardou, the French dramatist, who was deeply interested in spiritualism, had a remarkable experience in taking dictation. He had been interested in occult phenomena, and by chance, he came into communication with a spirit personality, who signed himself, "Bernard Palissy." M. Sardou, who recently passed into the larger life, has told the story of his experience in an article entitled, "Only the Blindly Ignorant Scoff," in the February Delineator.

W. T. Macey was up from our sister city of McMinnville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. VanOrsdel went to Portland Tuesday to witness Ben Hur.

W. R. Cutler, of Baker City, has been down to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cutler.

The snow of last week broke down a large number of trees at Oakdale, and killed a cow.

W. S. Yost and wife, of Cleam, in Eastern Oregon, are here visiting relatives and friends.

Conrad Stafira, W. V. Fuller, W. L. Craven and G. N. Herrington attended the Schriener's meeting in Portland last week.

When you want prescriptions filled by a competent druggist, one who is careful and knows what he is about, go to Conrad Stafira's drug store.

Kodol for dyspepsia and indigestion will digest any food at any and all times. Kodol is guaranteed to give prompt relief.—Sold by Conrad Stafira.

For a mild, easy action of the bowels, a single dose of Doan's Regulants is enough. Treatment cures habitual constipation. 25 cents a box. Ask your druggist for them.

The Pacific States telephone company is now in their new building, Johnson street, between the old quarters and about February 1st with ladies' confectionery and ice cream parlors.

Heavy impure blood makes a muddy, pimply complexion, headache, nausea, indigestion. Thin blood makes you weak, pale, sickly. Burock Blood Purifier makes the blood rich, red pure—restores perfect health.

Mr. Caldwell has sold his pool room to J. E. Foster, of Roseburg, who will move to the Uglow building in the room lately occupied by J. C. Shultz.

Oakdale has a debating society that meets every Saturday evening, and furnishes recreation, amusement and intellectual development for the residents there.

It is now Captain Holliman, our general merchandise being elected to that position Thursday night by Company H, vice C. D. Chorpeneing, who moved to Eugene, Captain Mead, of the McMinnville company, conducted the inspection.

Engelhart, cashier, of the First National is a firm believer in the efficacy of fresh air as a preservative of good health. He has built his family sleeping apartments so that a continuous current of pure air circulates through them, and says he has found it healthful in every particular.

State of Oregon, City of Toledo, Lucas county, ss. Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the city of Toledo, county and state aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every case of catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.—Frank J. Cheney. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 4th day of December, A. D. 1888.—A. W. Gleason, notary public.

[Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials free.—Frank J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all druggists, like Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Dr. Donohoe, dentist, Uglow building. We have quite a lot of Oregon made hams.—Crier's grocery.

Born, January 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bennett, a daughter.

Next time you make cake, try a package of Olympic cake and pastry flour at Crier's.

Have you seen those nice envelopes just gotten out at this office for the Dallas Development League? None better.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup stops the cough and drives the cold from the system. Children like it. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

W. J. Wagner has taken charge of the blacksmith shop at the Wagner agricultural farm, and would like to see all his old customers.

Kodol digests all the food you eat. If you will take Kodol for a little while you will no longer have indigestion. It is pleasant to take, acts promptly. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

At J. L. Castle's Cash Grocery you can get anything you want in the feed line. His goods are fresh and of the very best quality, and he sells as cheap as you can get them anywhere.

Dr. A. B. Starbuck was called to Portland the other day to see his aunt, Mrs. Ella Starbuck, who is dangerously ill with dropsy. Mrs. Starbuck was a resident of the Kola hills vicinity for many years.

Remember that the Twenty-Second annual Clearance Sale of E. Jacobson & Co., McMinnville, will positively close on January 30th. See their ad on this page, and avail yourself of the bargains they offer.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It cures the cold by gently moving the bowels, and at the same time it is soothing for throat irritation, thereby stopping the cough. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

Sheriff Grant has turned real estate agent and yesterday consummated the sale of the Ab Henneberry place in Tillamook county where the tragedy occurred to W. J. White and George Glanfield for $2250. It consists of 155 acres of good land with some improvements thereon.

The Dallas Woodmen installed the following officers last Tuesday evening: Consul, H. C. Seymour; adviser, G. A. Smith; banker, V. E. Johnson; clerk, W. G. Yassall; escort, A. Griffith; watchman, Robt. Reed; sentry, C. Griffith; managers, H. W. Stump, W. A. Ayers, W. H. Keuber and J. Stinson.

A. S. Bible died at Sheridan January 9th and was buried next day in the Masonic cemetery. Mr. Bible had lived in Sheridan since 1878. He conducted a general merchandise store and dealt in cattle. He owned a large ranch at the head of the Nestucca, known to sportsmen far and wide. Mr. Bible was born in Tennessee, March 25, 1834.

Mr. O. H. Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Laper, reached their home at Lowen, in eastern Oregon, sooner than they expected. Their trip was a good and good weather for the trip, and like it very well there. They are getting an abundance of moisture here this winter, and the prospects for crops and water for stock for the coming season is excellent.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Woods left Sunday for their six week tour to Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Gough will take Mr. Woods' place at the depot, and Roy Minter, place of Oakland, Oregon, will take Mr. Gough's place at telegrapher. Mr. and Mrs. Williams went to Portland with them, and Mrs. Williams will go on to Alhambra for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. F. J. Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Argie J. Miller, of Craig, Nebraska, who have been here on their wedding trip to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. E. Truxx and other relatives, left Friday for Portland, where they will take ship for San Francisco to visit relatives and friends there, and at Sacramento and Los Angeles a few days. They expect to reach their home the last of this month.

The most noted article that Everybody's Magazine has published since the "Frozen Finances" days is "The Poison of the Street," by Frederick S. Dickson, in the February number. It strikes a blow and a telling one, at margin gambling in Wall street, and echoes the cry of the many who have "tried their luck" and been lured on to destruction. The article is straight from the shoulder and authoritative.

Before he made his reputation by writing plays, Victorien Sardou, the French dramatist, who was deeply interested in spiritualism, had a remarkable experience in taking dictation. He had been interested in occult phenomena, and by chance, he came into communication with a spirit personality, who signed himself, "Bernard Palissy." M. Sardou, who recently passed into the larger life, has told the story of his experience in an article entitled, "Only the Blindly Ignorant Scoff," in the February Delineator.

W. T. Macey was up from our sister city of McMinnville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. VanOrsdel went to Portland Tuesday to witness Ben Hur.

W. R. Cutler, of Baker City, has been down to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cutler.

The snow of last week broke down a large number of trees at Oakdale, and killed a cow.

W. S. Yost and wife, of Cleam, in Eastern Oregon, are here visiting relatives and friends.

Conrad Stafira, W. V. Fuller, W. L. Craven and G. N. Herrington attended the Schriener's meeting in Portland last week.

When you want prescriptions filled by a competent druggist, one who is careful and knows what he is about, go to Conrad Stafira's drug store.

Kodol for dyspepsia and indigestion will digest any food at any and all times. Kodol is guaranteed to give prompt relief.—Sold by Conrad Stafira.

For a mild, easy action of the bowels, a single dose of Doan's Regulants is enough. Treatment cures habitual constipation. 25 cents a box. Ask your druggist for them.

The Pacific States telephone company is now in their new building, Johnson street, between the old quarters and about February 1st with ladies' confectionery and ice cream parlors.

Heavy impure blood makes a muddy, pimply complexion, headache, nausea, indigestion. Thin blood makes you weak, pale, sickly. Burock Blood Purifier makes the blood rich, red pure—restores perfect health.

Mr. Caldwell has sold his pool room to J. E. Foster, of Roseburg, who will move to the Uglow building in the room lately occupied by J. C. Shultz.

Oakdale has a debating society that meets every Saturday evening, and furnishes recreation, amusement and intellectual development for the residents there.

It is now Captain Holliman, our general merchandise being elected to that position Thursday night by Company H, vice C. D. Chorpeneing, who moved to Eugene, Captain Mead, of the McMinnville company, conducted the inspection.

Engelhart, cashier, of the First National is a firm believer in the efficacy of fresh air as a preservative of good health. He has built his family sleeping apartments so that a continuous current of pure air circulates through them, and says he has found it healthful in every particular.

State of Oregon, City of Toledo, Lucas county, ss. Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the city of Toledo, county and state aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every case of catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.—Frank J. Cheney. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 4th day of December, A. D. 1888.—A. W. Gleason, notary public.

[Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials free.—Frank J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all druggists, like Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Dr. Donohoe, dentist, Uglow building. We have quite a lot of Oregon made hams.—Crier's grocery.

Born, January 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bennett, a daughter.

Next time you make cake, try a package of Olympic cake and pastry flour at Crier's.

Have you seen those nice envelopes just gotten out at this office for the Dallas Development League? None better.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup stops the cough and drives the cold from the system. Children like it. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

W. J. Wagner has taken charge of the blacksmith shop at the Wagner agricultural farm, and would like to see all his old customers.

Kodol digests all the food you eat. If you will take Kodol for a little while you will no longer have indigestion. It is pleasant to take, acts promptly. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

At J. L. Castle's Cash Grocery you can get anything you want in the feed line. His goods are fresh and of the very best quality, and he sells as cheap as you can get them anywhere.

Dr. A. B. Starbuck was called to Portland the other day to see his aunt, Mrs. Ella Starbuck, who is dangerously ill with dropsy. Mrs. Starbuck was a resident of the Kola hills vicinity for many years.

Remember that the Twenty-Second annual Clearance Sale of E. Jacobson & Co., McMinnville, will positively close on January 30th. See their ad on this page, and avail yourself of the bargains they offer.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It cures the cold by gently moving the bowels, and at the same time it is soothing for throat irritation, thereby stopping the cough. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

Sheriff Grant has turned real estate agent and yesterday consummated the sale of the Ab Henneberry place in Tillamook county where the tragedy occurred to W. J. White and George Glanfield for $2250. It consists of 155 acres of good land with some improvements thereon.

The Dallas Woodmen installed the following officers last Tuesday evening: Consul, H. C. Seymour; adviser, G. A. Smith; banker, V. E. Johnson; clerk, W. G. Yassall; escort, A. Griffith; watchman, Robt. Reed; sentry, C. Griffith; managers, H. W. Stump, W. A. Ayers, W. H. Keuber and J. Stinson.

A. S. Bible died at Sheridan January 9th and was buried next day in the Masonic cemetery. Mr. Bible had lived in Sheridan since 1878. He conducted a general merchandise store and dealt in cattle. He owned a large ranch at the head of the Nestucca, known to sportsmen far and wide. Mr. Bible was born in Tennessee, March 25, 1834.

Mr. O. H. Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Laper, reached their home at Lowen, in eastern Oregon, sooner than they expected. Their trip was a good and good weather for the trip, and like it very well there. They are getting an abundance of moisture here this winter, and the prospects for crops and water for stock for the coming season is excellent.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Woods left Sunday for their six week tour to Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Gough will take Mr. Woods' place at the depot, and Roy Minter, place of Oakland, Oregon, will take Mr. Gough's place at telegrapher. Mr. and Mrs. Williams went to Portland with them, and Mrs. Williams will go on to Alhambra for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. F. J. Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Argie J. Miller, of Craig, Nebraska, who have been here on their wedding trip to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. E. Truxx and other relatives, left Friday for Portland, where they will take ship for San Francisco to visit relatives and friends there, and at Sacramento and Los Angeles a few days. They expect to reach their home the last of this month.

The most noted article that Everybody's Magazine has published since the "Frozen Finances" days is "The Poison of the Street," by Frederick S. Dickson, in the February number. It strikes a blow and a telling one, at margin gambling in Wall street, and echoes the cry of the many who have "tried their luck" and been lured on to destruction. The article is straight from the shoulder and authoritative.

Before he made his reputation by writing plays, Victorien Sardou, the French dramatist, who was deeply interested in spiritualism, had a remarkable experience in taking dictation. He had been interested in occult phenomena, and by chance, he came into communication with a spirit personality, who signed himself, "Bernard Palissy." M. Sardou, who recently passed into the larger life, has told the story of his experience in an article entitled, "Only the Blindly Ignorant Scoff," in the February Delineator.

W. T. Macey was up from our sister city of McMinnville, Saturday.

Dr. Donohoe, dentist, Uglow building. We have quite a lot of Oregon made hams.—Crier's grocery.

Born, January 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bennett, a daughter.

Next time you make cake, try a package of Olympic cake and pastry flour at Crier's.

Have you seen those nice envelopes just gotten out at this office for the Dallas Development League? None better.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup stops the cough and drives the cold from the system. Children like it. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

W. J. Wagner has taken charge of the blacksmith shop at the Wagner agricultural farm, and would like to see all his old customers.

Kodol digests all the food you eat. If you will take Kodol for a little while you will no longer have indigestion. It is pleasant to take, acts promptly. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

At J. L. Castle's Cash Grocery you can get anything you want in the feed line. His goods are fresh and of the very best quality, and he sells as cheap as you can get them anywhere.

Dr. A. B. Starbuck was called to Portland the other day to see his aunt, Mrs. Ella Starbuck, who is dangerously ill with dropsy. Mrs. Starbuck was a resident of the Kola hills vicinity for many years.

Remember that the Twenty-Second annual Clearance Sale of E. Jacobson & Co., McMinnville, will positively close on January 30th. See their ad on this page, and avail yourself of the bargains they offer.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It cures the cold by gently moving the bowels, and at the same time it is soothing for throat irritation, thereby stopping the cough. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

Sheriff Grant has turned real estate agent and yesterday consummated the sale of the Ab Henneberry place in Tillamook county where the tragedy occurred to W. J. White and George Glanfield for $2250. It consists of 155 acres of good land with some improvements thereon.

The Dallas Woodmen installed the following officers last Tuesday evening: Consul, H. C. Seymour; adviser, G. A. Smith; banker, V. E. Johnson; clerk, W. G. Yassall; escort, A. Griffith; watchman, Robt. Reed; sentry, C. Griffith; managers, H. W. Stump, W. A. Ayers, W. H. Keuber and J. Stinson.

A. S. Bible died at Sheridan January 9th and was buried next day in the Masonic cemetery. Mr. Bible had lived in Sheridan since 1878. He conducted a general merchandise store and dealt in cattle. He owned a large ranch at the head of the Nestucca, known to sportsmen far and wide. Mr. Bible was born in Tennessee, March 25, 1834.

Mr. O. H. Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Laper, reached their home at Lowen, in eastern Oregon, sooner than they expected. Their trip was a good and good weather for the trip, and like it very well there. They are getting an abundance of moisture here this winter, and the prospects for crops and water for stock for the coming season is excellent.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Woods left Sunday for their six week tour to Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Gough will take Mr. Woods' place at the depot, and Roy Minter, place of Oakland, Oregon, will take Mr. Gough's place at telegrapher. Mr. and Mrs. Williams went to Portland with them, and Mrs. Williams will go on to Alhambra for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. F. J. Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Argie J. Miller, of Craig, Nebraska, who have been here on their wedding trip to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. E. Truxx and other relatives, left Friday for Portland, where they will take ship for San Francisco to visit relatives and friends there, and at Sacramento and Los Angeles a few days. They expect to reach their home the last of this month.

The most noted article that Everybody's Magazine has published since the "Frozen Finances" days is "The Poison of the Street," by Frederick S. Dickson, in the February number. It strikes a blow and a telling one, at margin gambling in Wall street, and echoes the cry of the many who have "tried their luck" and been lured on to destruction. The article is straight from the shoulder and authoritative.

Before he made his reputation by writing plays, Victorien Sardou, the French dramatist, who was deeply interested in spiritualism, had a remarkable experience in taking dictation. He had been interested in occult phenomena, and by chance, he came into communication with a spirit personality, who signed himself, "Bernard Palissy." M. Sardou, who recently passed into the larger life, has told the story of his experience in an article entitled, "Only the Blindly Ignorant Scoff," in the February Delineator.

W. T. Macey was up from our sister city of McMinnville, Saturday.

Dr. Donohoe, dentist, Uglow building. We have quite a lot of Oregon made hams.—Crier's grocery.

Born, January 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bennett, a daughter.

Next time you make cake, try a package of Olympic cake and pastry flour at Crier's.

Have you seen those nice envelopes just gotten out at this office for the Dallas Development League? None better.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup stops the cough and drives the cold from the system. Children like it. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

W. J. Wagner has taken charge of the blacksmith shop at the Wagner agricultural farm, and would like to see all his old customers.

Kodol digests all the food you eat. If you will take Kodol for a little while you will no longer have indigestion. It is pleasant to take, acts promptly. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

At J. L. Castle's Cash Grocery you can get anything you want in the feed line. His goods are fresh and of the very best quality, and he sells as cheap as you can get them anywhere.

Dr. A. B. Starbuck was called to Portland the other day to see his aunt, Mrs. Ella Starbuck, who is dangerously ill with dropsy. Mrs. Starbuck was a resident of the Kola hills vicinity for many years.

Remember that the Twenty-Second annual Clearance Sale of E. Jacobson & Co., McMinnville, will positively close on January 30th. See their ad on this page, and avail yourself of the bargains they offer.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It cures the cold by gently moving the bowels, and at the same time it is soothing for throat irritation, thereby stopping the cough. Sold by Conrad Stafira.

Sheriff Grant has turned real estate agent and yesterday consummated the sale of the Ab Henneberry place in Tillamook county where the tragedy occurred to W. J. White and George Glanfield for $2250. It consists of 155 acres of good land with some improvements thereon.

The Dallas Woodmen installed the following officers last Tuesday evening: Consul, H. C. Seymour; adviser, G. A. Smith; banker, V. E. Johnson; clerk, W. G. Yassall; escort, A. Griffith; watchman, Robt. Reed; sentry, C. Griffith; managers, H. W. Stump, W. A. Ayers, W. H. Keuber and J. Stinson.

A. S. Bible died at Sheridan January 9th and was buried next day in the Masonic cemetery. Mr. Bible had lived in Sheridan since 1878. He conducted a general merchandise store and dealt in cattle. He owned a large ranch at the head of the Nestucca, known to sportsmen far and wide. Mr. Bible was born in Tennessee, March 25, 1834.

Mr. O. H. Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Laper, reached their home at Lowen, in eastern Oregon, sooner than they expected. Their trip was a good and good weather for the trip, and like it very well there. They are getting an abundance of moisture here this winter, and the prospects for crops and water for stock for the coming season is excellent.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Woods left Sunday for their six week tour to Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Gough will take Mr. Woods' place at the depot, and Roy Minter, place of Oakland, Oregon, will take Mr. Gough's place at telegrapher. Mr. and Mrs. Williams went to Portland with them, and Mrs. Williams will go on to Alhambra for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. F. J. Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Argie J. Miller, of Craig, Nebraska, who have been here on their wedding trip to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. E. Tr