Spring Outing.

On May 7, the students of the Dallas college observed their annual spring outing. They departed on the 7:10 train to Falls City, Prof. Fisher leaving his house the same time the train started and yet he showed his ability as an athlete by overtaking it. After reaching Falls City, the crowd moved in a body up Teal Creek about two and a half miles from Falls City. There the crowd divided, some went about three and a half miles farther up the creek to the falls, some went either way fishing, and still others remained to guard the provisions. At 1:30 p. m. the crowd was scated and after singing the doxology, enjoyed a substantial lunch, having On May 7, the students of the Dallas
